Murineers Number Three Thousand. CRONSTADT, Nov. 9 .- Midnight-During the rioting Wednesday night machine guns were employed against the mutinous sailors who had been joined by a battalion of ar-Ullerymen from the fortress, and has raised the total number of mutineers to 2,000. It is difficult to ascertain the number of casual ties, but officers place the figures at 200. Many wounded persons are in the ships. The sailors say their chief grievances are poor food and clothing and an insufficient amount of liberty from barracks.

Roughs joined in the pillage, but the workmen did not participate in it. Many of the workmen and the civilian population have either fied or are trying to fice the city, and the docks are piled high with baggage and household effects. At this hour the city is full of reinforce Riots in the South.

ODESSA. Nov. 9 .- Authentic accounts reeived here from various points in Bessarabia show that the anti-Jewish outbreaks there followed the same lines as at Odessa, varying only in the number of victims.

At Rishineff the disturbances were precoded by inflammatory speeches, gendarmes and city officials near the governor's house asserting that the Jews had attempted to take the life of the local bishop and intended to loot the treasury. The mob thus tkons and portraits of the emperor the mob proceeded to Alexandrovskia, Pushinskin and Gostinskin streets, devastating and pillaging unhindered. Attempts at selfdefense were quelled by the troops. Ninety per cent of the killed and wounded were victims of bayonets and rifle bullets.

The looting was accompanied by atrecities similar to those witnessed at Odessa and continued for two days. They stopped us soon as the governor received an order from St. Petersburg. Seventy Jews were killed and 120 were wounded

Order is now restored. A mob at Ismail, Bessarabia, burned alive eleven Jews who had hidden in a hay rick. The town of Kalarasch, Bessarabia, was entirely devastated and burned. Fifty-nine Jews were killed or perished in the flames and 200 fled to neighboring villages, where the peasants beat a number of them to with audgels and burned three Jews after drenching them with petroleum.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3.-Partison's to the official returns reported to the county seats and telegraphed to the Columbus Dispatch today, all counties being included. Only scattered reports on the minor state candidates have yet been received but these indicate that at least some of the republicans pulled through by safe pluralities and in view of the size of the defection from Herrick it is possible that the republicans may have chosen all state officers below governor. The answers to Chairman Dick's messages came in slowly but the average difference between the vote for Herrick and that for the nearest other republican kept well up and the feeling of confidence at republican headquarters watned steadily. As Pattison's plurality was only 41,706, it was only necessary that the minor republican candidates should average about 500 votes to each county above Herrick and in several counties the difference exceeded

At republican headquarters this morning a majority of two in the house was claimed and the senate was said to stand eighteen to eighteen, with the chances of the remaining senator favorable to the republicans. This, however, is not admitted by the democrats. Governor Herrick tonight gave a state-

In most instances the officers in charge at police stations directed DUNSMUIR WILL IS BROKEN that the boxes be placed in patrol wagons and each lot guarded by five policemen hurried to the office of the board of elections at 786 Greenwich street. Meanwhile other Hearst men had gone to the home of John R. Voorhies, president of the board of elections, at Il West Forty-Second street, and, arousing him, asked him to immediately go to his office and receive the ballot boxes as fast as they reached his office. President Voorbies was say prized at the percuptory demand, and was presented with the court's order. Later he appeared at a window and, addressing the Hearst men, who fairly surrounded the house, said that he would not go to the office of the bureau of elections at such an unreasonable hour, but that he would appear at his office and open the same at 9 o'clock, the usual heur, today. At 3 o'clock this morning wagons and automobiles, filled with ballot boxes, potice officials and Hearst watchers, began to arrive at the board of elections, and an hour later Greenwich street, in that vicinity, was fairly impassable. Unable to get rid of their charges, there was nothing for the police to do but await the opening of the office, and as every twelve or fourteen boxes were guarded by five policemen, a most impressive array of officers

More Boxes Arrive.

As the morning advanced the balance of the 8,000 boxes continued to arrive, and Hearst watchers, as numerous as the police, helped to swell the crowd, which was further added to as the report spread that some startling political move had made necessary a great body of officers at the office of the board of elections.

When they failed to secure the presence of President Voorbis, Hearst men called upon A. C. Allen, chief clerk of the board, at his home on Eightieth street. Mr Allen could do nothing for them and expressed the opinion that the court order had resufted from a misunderstanding. He said that a literal compliance with the order would be impossible, as the $,660 ballot boxes used in Greater New York could not by any means be gotten into the room ocupied by the board. His understanding of the law, he said, was that the boxes should remain in the possession of the police for six months following an election. He could give no advice as to the immediate disposition of the fast accumu-
