

JEW'S FEAR RIOTS

Rumors of Massacre Frets Disturb St. Petersburg and Moscow.

Attacks are expected tonight. Chief of Police takes steps to prevent uprising.

Reactionaries try to cause trouble.

Tell ignorant people in the interior that imperial manifesto is forgery.

Cronstadt mutiny is suppressed.

Troops with machine guns pour into the city from all quarters and order is quickly restored.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—2:06 a. m.—Except in the kingdom of Poland, where the rapidly growing nationalist movement and the state of tension among the proletariat will soon bring about the declaration of a state of war, Russia seems for the time being at least to be generally peaceful.

Telegram from interior points report the restoration of order in nearly all cities and towns, but in many cities, notably St. Petersburg and Moscow, the better classes of the population are greatly disturbed, owing to the rumors of impending attacks by the "black hundred," composed of the most ignorant types of the population, which, according to these rumors, are scheduled to take place in St. Petersburg tonight and in Moscow tomorrow.

The apprehension in St. Petersburg has become so great that the general manager of the "Black Hundred," composed of the most ignorant types of the population, which, according to these rumors, are scheduled to take place in St. Petersburg tonight and in Moscow tomorrow.

Count Witte's cabinet may now be regarded as constituted as Count Lamsdorff, minister of foreign affairs, and M. Muraviev, minister of justice, will retain their posts, leaving only the posts of minister of the interior and minister of education to be filled. Dmitri Shipoff of Moscow, who was president of the first senate congress, has definitely declined to accept any position in the cabinet.

Count Witte's Ministry.

Count Witte's ministry as far as announced, is in knowledge that he has abandoned hope of securing the active cooperation of the constitutional democrats or other parties of the center.

Four of the ministers chosen, namely, Ivan Shipoff, finance minister; M. Kurler, minister of agriculture; M. Financin, minister of commerce; and M. Filosoff, controller of the empire, were assistants of Count Witte when he was minister of finance. The only minister who is not a bureaucrat is M. Nemechekoff, who succeeds Prince Hilkoff as minister of commerce.

FIGURES OF METROPOLITAN

Armstrong Committee Again Examines President Hegeman and Actuary Craig.

New York, Nov. 10.—Closing the sessions of the week today the Armstrong committee of insurance investigation has found it a mass of details and figures which, of apparent little interest to the public, is of inestimable value to the committee. The greater part of the week has been devoted to the Metropolitan Life insurance company, the expressions of President Hegeman and James M. Craig, the actuary of the company, being of a most technical nature.

Just before the hour of adjournment Mr. Hegeman was excused and Mr. Howard J. Craig, writer who has been employed by the Mutual Life, was called to the stand. He identified vouchers that he had signed for money received for writing advertisements and reading notices for the Mutual Life. Mr. Howard afforded much amusement by his declaration that his only regret was that he could not sign more of these vouchers. His only complaint was that he was not paid enough for his work.

There were ten of these vouchers, aggregating $125. Mr. Howard denied that he had ever signed any vouchers by this name and was very strenuous in his assertion that he had never written a line about insurance for any paper on which he was employed, characterizing it as a "dirty trick."

William Barnes, ex-formerly St. Albany, who was called to the stand, testified before the commission at his own request and was the first witness of the day. Mr. Barnes' name appeared on the investigation several weeks ago, when vouchers were produced for legal service. Mr. Barnes explained his connection with the insurance companies, answered the questions put to him and when his examination had been concluded asked to be allowed to make a statement. He was given the privilege and had proceeded but a little way when he was stopped by Senator Armstrong because Mr. Barnes' statement was an argument in defense of insurance along the lines brought out in the investigation.

Midshipmen's Side of Case

Fight Was Outgrowth of What Was Considered a Personal Insult.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 10.—A statement coming from within the naval academy believed to represent the midshipmen's version of the fight between Midshipmen Meriwether and Branch and the death of the latter, is as follows:

The fight between Midshipmen Branch and Meriwether was because of personal dislike and trouble between the two midshipmen, which culminated in the latter's personal insulting remarks to Branch.

Branch did not report Midshipman Meriwether's "challenging" remarks to him and that he did not incur this fight because of discharging his duty. Midshipman Branch "challenged" Meriwether as a result of insulting remarks addressed to him by the latter, and it was decided that their dispute should be settled on the lines of an American fashion.

In this there was not a difference of over five feet between the two. Both midshipmen were good physical specimens and the fight was a well developed physical, as has been erroneously stated. This was of settling their personal difficulties, which was a mistaken one, as far as can be said about an affair of this kind, it was a tragedy and a tragedy which was unfortunate.

Branch was able to walk to his room and there conversed with his second for several minutes. He then returned to his room and retiring, no fear of the result being tragic was felt. The next morning he was found dead.

The code at the naval academy absolutely prohibits fighting over reports of honor. It is a duty to report such a matter to the proper authorities and it is just as serious an offense against their code for the midshipmen to report to the academy that they were fighting over a matter which would result in a University of Virginia student to offend against their code of honor by cheating at an examination.

Vandiver is After Brokers

Will Prosecute St. Louis Men Who Solicit Insurance Without Having License.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—State Superintendent of Insurance Vandiver will undertake the prosecution of insurance brokers in the state who are doing business without a license and as the preliminary step in the matter he today sent James M. Roy of the insurance department, St. Louis, to confer with J. L. Carlisle, the latter having been appointed to represent the department in the prosecution of these unlicensed brokers.

Superintendent Vandiver stated today that there are more than 400 agents and brokers in St. Louis alone and only 167 of them have licenses. He said that an attempt will be made to have the unlicensed brokers comply with the law, and those not complying will be prosecuted. He asserts that he proposes to enforce the law as long as it is on the statute books and there will be no favorites.

"There is no reason why some brokers should pay $10 license fee," said Superintendent Vandiver, "while others do so as a business for nothing."

He Will Manage New York National League Team for the Next Three Years.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Rumors that John J. The plans for next year were discussed and the advisability of taking the team to California or to Cuba for training were taken under advisement. It is possible that the former ground will be selected, but nothing definite has been determined upon.

Accused of Nine Murders

Dr. O. C. Haugh of Dayton, O., Charged with Killing Parents, Brother and Six Other Persons.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 10.—Dr. Walter Kline, coroner of Montgomery county, declared today that he believed Dr. O. C. Haugh the murderer of at least nine people. Haugh, is in jail here, charged with the murder of his father, mother and brother several days ago. They were found burned to death last Sunday night in their home, which was destroyed by fire. The coroner says Dr. Haugh used hypocrite to kill his victims and then set fire to the house. In a statement tonight Dr. Kline said: "Dr. Haugh is guilty. I firmly believe, of at least a half a dozen murders other than the crime of murdering his parents and brother. I know enough to assert that Dr. Haugh is one of the greatest criminals of the age."

Dr. Haugh was arrested last Monday after the charred bodies of his father, mother and brother were found in the ruins of their home eight miles north of this city. Developments have followed fast since the visit here of Dr. S. L. Hermann of Lima, O., who charges Haugh with the murder of his sister at April 9, 1894, Broadway, Lorain, O., on April 9, 1894. Dr. Hermann said his sister told him when dying that Haugh was the cause of her death, he having injected muriatic acid mixed with cocaine into her spine, causing paralysis. Tonight search is being made for Mrs. Della Patterson, one of the daughters, but who is now said to live in Ludington, Mich. It is asserted that she was one of Haugh's wives. His name is also connected with the mysterious death of a woman in Milwaukee.

SENATOR BURTON INDICTED

Charge that He Missed His Office as Made by Federal Grand Jury.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment late today against Senator Burton, charging that he missed his office as made by federal grand jury.

The indictment is in the legal wording of the indictment, which is different to avoid the errors found in the former, by United States Judge Vandewater.

The federal grand jury was sworn in today by Judge Vandewater and then, it is stated, spent the entire day in the examination of witnesses, who, with one or two exceptions, were employees of the Postoffice department.

Chief Inspector W. J. Vlesky of Washington, William Cochran, purchasing agent of the Postoffice department, of Washington, Inspector-in-Charge O. M. Fulton of St. Louis and Inspector-in-Charge Joseph P. Johnson of New Orleans were the principal witnesses.

This indictment is the third found against Senator Burton, and should a demurrer to this be sustained, it will be impossible to ever resign him for his alleged offense in connection with the Rialto company, owing to the statute of limitations.

Senator Burton was indicted and committed to the Postoffice department at Washington, the Postoffice department, of Washington, for using his influence in the company's behalf in matters pending before the Postoffice department at Washington. The trial took place in November, 1903.

The case was argued at the supreme court, which reversed the finding of the St. Louis court, and the case was sent back for retrial.

A new indictment was found by the grand jury in March, 1904. Burton's attorney, J. W. Leitch, appealed at once from the indictment and it was sustained. Judge Vandewater immediately called the present grand jury in order that the Burton case might be considered before the statute of limitations became effective on November 15.

Cabinet Crisis in France

Ministry Now Dependent Upon Frictions of Divergent Groups for Support.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The Rouvier ministry with its first check today when M. Bertaux, minister of agriculture, was expelled from the ministerial benches during an angry debate in the Chamber of Deputies and thereafter announced his resignation. For a time the entire cabinet hung in the balance and Premier Rouvier announced his resignation to his colleagues to give up power unless they were supported by a substantial majority. After a debate of exceptional violence a motion favorable to the ministry prevailed by a vote of 319 to 147. However, the minority of divergent groups in the cabinet remains in doubt.

After the session the premier went to the Elysee palace and requested President Loubet to call a special cabinet council tomorrow at which M. Bertaux's successor will be named.

Senator Burkett arrived from Nebraska last night, having left Lincoln Tuesday evening after casting his vote. He was accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Tobey. Senator Burkett said he had learned of the result in Nebraska on his journey east and that he was pleased with the vote polled and thought Nebraska in splendid shape politically. MAJORITY STEADILY PILES UP

Sixty-Nine Counties Give Letton a Lead of Over Twenty Thousand.

BEAR OUT ELECTION NIGHT ESTIMATES

Later Counties to Report Make Better Showing for Regens Than Those First Received, but Still Behind Judge.

With complete returns from sixty-nine of the ninety counties Letton's majority is 26,718, against a plurality for Barnes two years ago in the same counties of 24,844, a net gain for Letton of 11,874, these figures simply confirm previous estimates that his plurality will be in excess of 20,000.

The reports are not running quite so fast behind the lead of the ticket in the later as in the earlier counties to report.
