It is said by one who has been looking into the mat-ter that the organization has been quietly at work for some time, but so far he had been unable to get a line on the personnel of the company. It is his firm belief, how-every brick yard in the west in order to every brick yard in the west in order to control the output and the price of brick. Whether it is the intention of the company to shut down some of the yards or to run them as though owned by individuals he could not say at this time. He was certain, however, that some Omaha parties are interested in the deal.

Warner Going Home.

Chairman Warner of the republican state 2: committee will leave Lincoln tomorrow for his home in Dakota county and try to patch up the holes in his own business which have developed there where he has patch up the holes in his own business which have developed there since he has been attending to the campaign. Whether the headquarters will be kept open all win-ter has not yet been decided. There is still considerable cierical work to be done and a number of the stenographers will be kept busy several days. All the debts of the last campaign which were turned over to the present committee hy ex-Chairman Burgess were paid off last night and the committee has a nice little balance in the bank. Mr. Warner has a rebalance in the bank. Mr. Warner has requested the county chairmen to send to him the names of every office holder in the state and he will have a large army of helpers to begin with when the next campaign starts. A number of counties have sent in their official returns to the secretary of state and they do not vary from the returns already published.

Supreme Court Holds On.

The supreme court did not adjourn to night as had been anticipated, but will hold over until some time tomorrow. The fact that a day was lost because of the election is the cause of the delay in adjournment.
