Six is the Twelfth.

Out in the new Twelfth ward, which comprises the northwest end of town, no less than six candidates are chasing down support for the republican nomination. They are: J. J. Smith, the yeast manufacturer and formerly a member of the school board; W. J. Hunter, grocer; James T. Dougherty, a hardware merchant; T. C. Craig, who has a clerical job in the Union Pacific heading month a year ago, an increase of $54 buildings and $3,284,600. buildings and $3.284.669.

It is interesting to note that in the larger cities in the list the figures are practically the same with the exception of two instances. New York shows a less of 3 per cent, Philadelphia 7, Pittsburg 4, while Chicago and Brooklyn both show gains, the former of only 4 and the latter of 7 per cent. It will thus be seen that the great trailing and thousands are some remarkable percent. It will thus be seen that the great galus—and there are some remarkable percentages—are in the smaller cities. Of thirty-three cities twenty-one show increases varying from 1 to 22 per cent, while eleven show losses of from 1 to 43 per cent. The losses are so widely separated that they have no bearing upon the general situation. The most significant features of the figures are the remarkable gains, amounting in Omaha to 22 per cent; Spokane, 183; Duluth, 119; Denver, 88; Cincinnati, Sil Louisville, 75; Cleveland, 45; Columbus, 41; Toledo, 37; Indianapolis, 33; Milwaukee, 31. Davenport leads in the decrease with 45 per cent. Nashville 37, New Orleans 28, Allegheny 17, while the others are really insignificant. Interest is Astonading.
