GRAIN MEN UNDER THE BAN

Members of Defunct Association to Be Investigated by Grand Jury.

DEPUTY MARSHALS OUT WITH SUBPOENAS

Witnesses Already Summoned from Schraska and Still Others Are to Come from Other Stafes.

It is regarded as a foregone conclusion that the federal grand jury will be called upon to investigate the methods of the Nebraska Grain Dealers' assolution, regardless of the fact that the association has dis-

A number of witnesses already have been summoned from Nebraska and others are to be summoned from adjacent states. The names of these witnesses are kept secret for the present and the investigation into the grain trust methods will not begin until the latter part of this week. The essential feature to be investigated by the grand jury will be for the violation of the interstate commerce laws, while the violation of the Sherman anti-trust law will also be given consideration. Some of the deputy marshals already have been sent out to serve subpospes in these cases,

ONE OF THE REAL OLD TIMERS

George W. Roberts, Whose Tragical Death Occurred Saturday, Helped Found Lincoln Journal.

George W. Roberts, wno died suddenly is his store at 2013 Lake street Saturday efternoon, was one of the founders of the Lincoln State Journal. He came to Lincoln in he early seventies from Vermont his birthplace, and at once bought stock in the Journal company and was identified with its management for a number of years. He was a bookbinder by trade and managed this department of the Journal After selling his Journal stock he came to Omaha and for a number of years traveled for the old Herald, frequently being away from home for six months at a time. Later he worked for other printing establishments.

Mr. Roberts was almost 80 years old. Up to the time of his death his health was exceptionally good. A customer walked into the store Saturday afternoon and, after waiting upon him, Mr. Roberts remarked:

I don't feel just right. You probably will be the last customer I will ever wait upon." With that he dropped dead. Of his immediate family there are left a widow, two sons and a daughter, George W. Roberts, assistant engineer of South Omalia; Edward L. Roberts, a painter, and

Mrs. A. W. Labelle, all of Omaha. Funeral arrangements will not be an nounced until after word is received from Edward L. Roberts, who is now away on a fishing and hunting trip. Some time ago Edward Roberts with some companions built a boat and they are now floating down the Mississippi river, fishing and hunting. They were expected to reach St.

BAUM WILL IMPROVE STORE

Makes Immense Purchases in East with View of Creating Certain Changes.

J. E. Baum, proprietor of the Bennett store, has returned from an extensive trip to New York, where he has been making a thorough study into the department store business with a view of making improvements in his large establishment. Mr. Baum said: "Omaha is getting to be a great retail center and it is surprising the way the retail business is growing, and to care for its share of this increase the Bennett company does not intend to be caught napping. I made some very extensive purchases in the east and the people of Omaha will hear from these as soon as they arrive. Business is remarkable at present and can only be accounted for in side people are coming to Omaha in larger is an immense amount of new building going on in Omaha at present and every senger time. man who wants to work can work and get good wages for his time. I think many who were in Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben week and did not buy because of the big crowds have returned to make their purchases

Water Rates.

The Omaha Water company, regarding the advertisement of water rates by the Water Board of the city of Omaha as contract with the company fixing the limit to nothing." of the company's charges, which the company has never exceeded, and contending also that the reduced rates are unreason able. Should these contentions be sustained as the result of the company's pending suit, all consumers who shall have menntime paid only the reduced rates will be subject to logal proceedings for the recovery of the difference. Should the reduced rates be ultimately established the company will, of course, refund to each consumer who shall meantime have paid the full rate the difference between that rate and the rate as reduced.
