SUIT ON FILING FEE CLAUSE

Action to Be Started as Test for Candidate's Benefit.

SLABAUGH ADVISES MONEY REMITTED

County Treasurer Thinks Best to Have Courts Act on Matter So Test Case Will Be Undertaken.

Judge Slabaugh, county attorney, in answer to a request of County Treasurer Fink, has expressed the opinion that all candidates for public office who have paid primary filing fees are entitled to have their money back. Still, to be absolutely sure of his ground, Mr. Fink insists on having a decision of the court before he will act in the matter.

"Since the supreme court has declared the law unconstitutional," says Judge Slabaugh, "in my view there is no question but the money should be returned. Being void, the section providing for fees is if it never were passed. However, for his own protection he advised Mr. Fink that a friendly suit, which can be quickly heard and decided, is the best way out."

It is understood that such a suit is to be brought at once, but by which candidate is not yet decided.

WOMAN HAS A FINE MEMORY
Mrs. Cuthbertson in Fight for Husband's Affections Displays Very Retentive Mind.

Taking of testimony began Tuesday morning in the suit of Mrs. Mildred Cuthbertson against Henry E. and David M. Owen for $15,000 damages. Plaintiff claims this amount for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections by defendants. Henry E. Owen of Norfolk is the only defendant in court, as David M. Owen is dead.

As before, when Judge Redick heard the case, Attorneys Jeffries & Howell and H. H. Bowes, for the plaintiff, and Harry

MOST AWFUL SKIN HUMOR

Wearing Entire Body. Shed Dustpanful Scales Nightly. Skin Cracked Open. Suffering Dreadful. Doctors Fatal. Prayed for Death. Sister says, "Won't give up. Try Cuticura!" Eureka! Instant Relief. In 8 Weeks Completely CURED BY CUTICURA

I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D. Florida, and others Leprosy, commencing in my scalp; and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skilled doctors, it slowly but surely extended over a year ago to my hands and feet, and now covers a large portion of my body, sometimes half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost that could be thought of, with little success. I was told to go to the West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister. However, Dr. C. H. Thompson, about three weeks, but did no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; fed badly swollen; toe-nails came off; fingers and toes hard as bone; hair dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh my God! How I did suffer.

My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small part of a box of Cuticura in the house. She would give me a salve, and I applied it to my scalp; and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skilled doctors, it slowly but surely extended over a year ago to my hands and feet, and now covers a large portion of my body, sometimes half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost that could be thought of, with little success. I was told to go to the West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister. However, Dr. C. H. Thompson, about three weeks, but did no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; fed badly swollen; toe-nails came off; fingers and toes hard as bone; hair dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh my God! How I did suffer.

They immediately gave Cuticura, Resolvent, Ointment, and soap. I commented by taking a salve, and applying it to my head three times a day after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soapsoftly; applied Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks. The doctor left, and my sister was as good as this sheet of paper.

(Signed) HIRAH M. CARPENTER, Henderson, N. Y.

We hereby certify that we are acquainted with the above named Cuticura Remedy, and its condition to have been as stated. We believe his statement to be true in every particular. (Signed) L. B. Simonsen & Son, Pharmacists; (Signed) George A. Davis; Millard E. Joiner, Merchant; John Carpenter; A. M. E. Lehmann, Attorney and Counselor at Law.

The above testimonial was written January 10, 1905. Under date of March 10, 1905, Mr. Carpenter wrote us again, saying he had been cured of his particular since he was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, twenty-five years ago.

FOOT BALL TEAM DISBANDS

Injury to Kansas City Player Disheartens Lincoln High School Boys.

BURNING OF RECORDS NOT MATERIAL
Attorney General Brown Does Not Think Action of Grain Dealers Will Have Any Effect on Pending Legislation.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The Lincoln High school foot ball team has canceled the Saturday game with the Iola, Kan., High school team and may disband for the season because of the serious injury incurred by Homer Gibson, the Kansas City manual player, in the game last Saturday. Gibson is improving since the trepanning operation was performed on the cerebral cavity, but the accident has placed a damper on the spirits of the Lincoln lads, who were intensely anxious over the early reports that the young man would die.

The game with Iola has been definitely called off, but no action has yet been taken in regard to the remaining games, although it is stated that a majority of the students favor the cancellation of all other dates for the season. Assistant Manager Hine of the team takes the same view.

Gibson close call has had its effect in awaking the opposition to high school football entirely, and there is more or less talk against the game. Should the accident have terminated fatally anxious parents were ready to take stringent measures to combat the game. As it is, with the Kansas City player lying in a hospital with a very grave injury, many parents are manifesting a disposition to take their sons out of the game, and to that influence the cancellation of the remaining games will be responsible in a measure, although ostensibly out of respect for Gibson.

The man was injured in fair play. It is explained that the accident was unavoidable and due to the rush of the contending players for a fumbled ball.

BURNING RECORDS CUTS NO FIGURE.

Att. Gen. Brown today expressed his concern over the action of the officers of the defunct Nebraska Grain Dealers' association in burning the records after action was taken to dissolve the concern.

He regards the action as rather peculiar on the part of experienced business men, but says that it will not affect the state's case in any event since he has all the evidence that is needed. As a matter of fact, it is said, the correspondence made up the bulk of the records and for use as evidence the letters sent out containing the mandates of the association are of far more value than those remaining in the files.

The supreme court granted the attorneys for the association another two weeks to which to prepare for oral argument, thus deferring the submission of the case to the next sitting.

ATTACKS VANDUCT PROJECT.

Today Attorney E. H. Wilcox, representing the Omaha, Lincoln & Beatrice railway, made an effort to secure a final ruling in the suits of North Fourteenth street property owners to prevent the construction of the line. He urged that great damage is being done by each day's delay, and insisted that the freezing weather which is approaching would seriously interfere with operations if there were any further delay in the settlement of the suits. The court is expected to make a final ruling tomorrow.

ANTI-CIGARETTE LAW CASE.

The case against Pat Raymond, a young man who was arrested by the police for having rolled and smoked cigarettes, was continued in the police court today until tomorrow. The city officials will seek to convict the young man on the charge of having unlawfully manufactured a cigarette within the meaning of the new Cigarette law.

TEST OF THE WARRANT LAW

Examination to Be Made on Motion of Banks to Determine Status of Securities.

A move is understood to be on foot, started by some of the banks interested in county warrants, to have a thorough examination made of the laws governing the issue and registration of these warrants. The object is to ascertain the exact legal status of all warrants outstanding against the county, for what year issued and all about the contractor or work for which the warrants were given.

Some of the Omaha banks are holding county warrants to a considerable amount, which were bought in the regular course of business. None of these institutions has any doubt of the legality of the paper, but they desire to have the whole question investigated with a view to having definite information for use when the Board of County Commissioners is reorganized at the beginning of the year.

COURT AT BEATRICE.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special)—In the district court yesterday Judge Kelliher overruled a motion for a new trial by the People in this case. In the case of the State of Nebraska against Lawrence McConnell, who was found guilty last week of criminally assaulting the little daughter of Carson Barnard, a farmer living near Filley, the court set the verdict aside and instructed the county attorney to draw a new complaint, the prisoner to remain in charge of the sheriff pending the filing of the information. Judge Kelliher adjourned court until Thursday and ordered the jury to report on December 4 at 12:30 when the case of the State against

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY.

Do Not Try to Drive and Force It to Work When It is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat a balky horse; force, drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and ill-treatment before it "balks," but when it does you had better go slow with it and not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cut the stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would have no use for a stomach when they got through. The sensible way out of the difficulty is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a substitute to do its work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and digest your food just as your stomach used to do when it was well. You can prove this by putting your food in a glass jar with one of the tablets and sufficient water and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the digestive fluids of the stomach would do it. That will satisfy your mind. Now, to satisfy both your mind and body, take one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating—all and what you want—and you will feel it in your mind that your food is being digested because you will feel no disturbance or weight in your stomach; in fact you will forget all about having a stomach, just as you did when you were a healthy boy or girl.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do in a natural way because they contain only the elements of the gastric juices and other digestive fluids of the stomach. It makes no difference what condition the stomach is in, they go right ahead of their own accord and do their work. They know their business and surrounding conditions do not influence them in the least. They thus relieve the weak stomach of all its burdens and give it its much needed rest and permit it to become strong and healthy.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. They are so well known and their popularity is so great that a druggist would as soon think of being out of alcohol or quinine as of them. In fact, physicians are prescribing them all over the land, and if your own doctor is in real honest with you, he will tell you frankly that there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Bachie, charged with a statutory offense upon the young daughter of J. W. Kuhn, will be taken up for trial.

OBJECT TO TWO TELEPHONE LINES

Blair Business Men Trying to Bring About Consolidation.

BLAIR, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special)—Upon the suggestion of the officers of the Blair Commercial club, a meeting of the business men of this city was called for this afternoon for the purpose of trying to secure a consolidation of the Mutual and Nebraska telephone systems in this city and throughout the country. The meeting was attended by about fifty of the business men, who are, almost to a man, strongly in favor of the one-phone system. W. B. T. Bell, superintendent, C. M. Hardig, chief solicitor, and H. E. Pratt, contracting agent of the Bell company and owner of a considerable amount of property in Blair, were present.

BEATRICE—Yesterday Charles Stevens shed 1,065 bushels of new corn at the farm of Gilbert Reynolds, in Lincoln town, and the corn was nice and dry, and Mr. Reynolds marked it as being the best he ever had.

BEATRICE—J. E. Smith of this city will be going to his office yesterday morning to attend a trial, and while he was knocking down by a couple of dogs which ran against him. It will be several weeks before he recovers from his injuries.

PLATTSMOUTH—Tuesday night the city council met again to consider a bill introduced by Mr. W. T. Swanson, which would require all buildings in the city to be equipped with a battery of four tubular boilers to take the place of the one now in use.

PLATTSMOUTH—Mr. Swanback, aged 91, who was elected to the Legislature in 1890, is an energetic as most of men when half that age. He is a member of the order of Odd Fellows and a past grand master of the district where he resides.

OAKLAND—Harry Preston, who lives two miles north of town, had a new fur coat stolen from his buggy late Monday afternoon. The coat was made of mink and was in charge of Baugh's store. No clue to the robbery has been found as yet. Last week a stormy day was a robbery for a while.

WOOD RIVER—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rounds are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary this morning. They invited about twenty-two callers to the home of one of his sons.

WOOD RIVER—William H. Peffer died yesterday, aged 83 years. Deceased was a brakeman on the Chicago & Northwestern road train and while working evidently misunderstood orders and stood on the wrong track and was thrown down by a switch target struck him on the head, hurling him from the engine. For nearly a week he was unconscious.
