OMAHA CLUB BARS THE BAR

Deers Shut to Lawyers' Reception to President American Bar Association.

JOHN L. WEBSTER COMES TO THE RESCUE

Echo of the Recent Bar Meeting Leaves a Bad Taste in the Mouth of Some of the Members.

"To be followed by a reception to the president of the American Bar association, the place to be named later." That is the way the preliminary program for the recent meeting of the State Bar association read and the intention was to hold the reception in the parlors of the Omaha club. But it was not held there because the authorities that be in command of the Omaha club turned down the application for the use of the club house and declared they would rather have the bar association at elsewhere with both its reception and its annual banquet. In this dire emergency, John L. Webster came handsomely to the rescue. "The president of the American Bar association is a national personage," said he, "and I shall esteem it a privilege to tender him a reception myself in my own home."

reception was held at the appointed time with a ceremony making it the social center of the season. "We haven't reached the end of this thing," exclaimed an officer of the bar association, today. "There are thirty lawyers who are members of the Omaha club and there is no good reason why we should be discriminated against. The bankers only a couple of weeks ago entertained the visitors to their state convention at a banquet given in the Omaha club. I suppose that if we wanted to give a reception to somebody with a military title we would have had no difficulty in having the club house placed at our disposal."

NO SUCCESSOR TO BODWELL

New County Superintendent of Schools Not Named, Though Applications Come In.

No successor to County Superintendent Bodwell was named at the meeting of the county commissioners Saturday morning. Mr. Bodwell did not send in his resignation, but applications for the position were read from four men and one woman. The men are John Speck of Benson, Charles E. Sharpe of Elkhorst, H. O. Chapman of Dunbar and W. A. Yoder of Florence. The woman applicant is Bertha Tholecka of Benson, a teacher in the Pacific school. An offer of J. E. Merriam to erect a gateway to the Field club grounds for $200 was referred to the committee of the whole. F. J. McAvay presented a claim for $200 for injuries sustained, as alleged, by reason of a defective bridge in township 14,

WIDOWER GETS PROPERTY

P. C. Heavey Secures Undisputed Possession of Real Estate Left by Wife.

By an order made by Judge Troup, Patrick C. Heavey is put into undisputed possession of eight pieces of Omaha real estate which were held in the name of his wife, Katherine Irene Heavey, at the time of her death. Mrs. Heavey did not make a will, and after her death friendly suit was brought by the widower to have settled in himself as against the heirs of his wife by blood. The title of the property held in her name. Judge Troup's order invests the title in Mr. Heavey as against all of said heirs.

ALLEN DEMURS TO THE BILL

Standard Cattle Company Men Holds Indictment Against Him is Faulty.

R. M. Allen of the Standard Cattle company, who is under indictment for illegally fencing some 200,000 acres of public lands in Cherry county, has filed a demurrer to the indictment. Allen was indicted at the May term of the federal grand jury. He alleges in his demurrer the indictment is not sufficient in law; he is not bound by the has decided the only successful means of circumventing such obstacles is to plant his operations on the natural and actual scene of activities instead of having it as far distant as Atchison. In connection with the removal of the Gould company a report finds circulation that the Missouri Pacific is preparing to branch out its lines in Omaha's wide and growing territory and that even greater recognition may yet be paid this city than is marked by the present action. Grading for Union Pacific. W. C. Bradbury of Denver, grading contractor, who has the contract for the grading of several miles of the road for the Union Pacific, was at the Paxton Saturday, leaving Saturday night for North Platte. "We have the contract for the grading of the 115 miles of roadbed between North Platte and Northport and are getting along quite nicely. Although I have only had the contract about thirty days I have sixteen grading camps at work and am hustling the work as fast as possible. The grading, bridging and culverts will all done by me on this job.

law of the land to answer to the indictment, the indictment does not specifically state the crime of which he is charged and the court has no jurisdiction in the premises. The petition demurs to practically every count in the indictment, of which there are about twelve. The Standard Cattle company of which Allen is alleged to have been a member has gone out of business, but it is held by the Department of Justice that Allen and all other members of the dissolved company are still amenable under the indictment.

LUMBARD SINGS IN CHICAGO

Veteran Omaha Vocalist Receives a Great Ovation from Music Lovers by the Lake.

The complimentary concert given to Judge Lumbard at the Illinois theater in Chicago Thursday is said to have been a veritable old settlers' reunion, filling the theater and is pronounced by the Chicago press critics a distinct success. In its account of it the Tribune says: Mr. Lumbard, who now lives in Omaha, is 82 years of age. He does not look it, for he wears his years with lightness, his form is erect, his step elastic, and his face bright with the glow that good health and vigorous spirit gives. Only the mass of beautiful white hair which hangs thick about his head tells of the winter snow of age that has come to crown him. And he sang, did this sturdy youth of 82? And he sang with style. True, it was the style of ballad singing that prevailed four or five decades ago, but to listen again to this old time music, interpreted in the old time way, was both pleasant and instructive. First came "I Fear No Fox," and all the fees that Father Time can produce had been taken warning and avoid this valiant old

MAN GETS PAY FOR HORSE

At Least, Judgment is Rendered Against Interurban Land Company for the Price.

In the county court William O. Keefer has obtained a judgment for $39 against the Interurban Land company, which is building Sarpy City. Some time ago Mr. Keefer gave into the keeping of a representative of the company a horse, valued at that amount, to be pastured on some part of the land to be occupied by the future metropolis of Sarpy county. On the stand the man who had charge of the pasture admitted "the horse just seemed to have gone up" vanished and disappeared. He could not explain when, how or why. So the court was forced to hold the company liable to Mr. Keefer for the value of the property he consigned to its care.
