

Telephone 694. Now located in the new retail center, Howard and Sixteenth Streets.

Thanksgiving Week

With our increased facilities for taking care of our customers' needs, we are going to try and make this the best Thanksgiving week in the history of our store.

Robe Blankets on Third Floor.

If you contemplate making a bath or lounging robe (which you know is such an easy thing to make) be sure to see us.

Fine Showing of "Princess" and "Opera" Broadcloths.

Remember please, these two numbers are sold exclusively by us in Omaha.

Corsets.

Have your corsets fitted in our cozy fitting rooms. Expert corset fitter in attendance to show you how the corset should be worn.

Men's Underwear.

There should be no occasion for looking further, as we leave no effort undone to supply every useful and proper undergarment with the most durable materials.

Men's Hosiery.

It is our aim to have our hosiery line represent the choicest productions in fancy and the best values in staples.

An Up-to-date Cloak Business

Like ours, selling as we do each year thousands upon thousands of ready-to-wear clothing for women requires an amount of attention to detail ladies can hardly realize.

Domestic Department.

Temporarily located on third floor. It will certainly pay you to visit the third floor, as we are making special prices on many goods.

Blankets and Comforters.

If you but take the elevator to the third floor, you'll see the finest line of bed blankets you ever saw.

Art Department.

Our Miss Steenstrup gives free instructions in art needlework, yarn and crochet work each afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

SENATOR BURTON CONVICTED

Jury Returns Verdict of Guilty on All Six Counts in Indictments.

COUNSEL WILL FILE BILL OF EXCEPTIONS

Defendant Ordered to Be in Court Monday Morning at 10 O'clock.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 25.—Senator E. R. Burton of Kansas was tonight found guilty on all six counts in the indictment upon which he has been on trial for the last week in the United States circuit court.

The verdict was brought in at 12:30 o'clock, two hours and twenty-five minutes after the jury had received the case.

At 10:40 there was a summons from the inside of the room in which the jury had been confined considering its verdict.

PROTEST AGAINST REED SMOOT

Woman's Congregation Will Present a Petition to Senate Containing Million Names.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—A meeting of the executive committee of the National League of Women's Organizations, formed two years ago to oppose the continuance in the United States senate of Senator Reed Smoot, was held here today.

Case Goes to the Jury.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 25.—The case of United States Senator J. Ralph Burton of Kansas, charged with violating a federal statute by appearing as a paid attorney before the Postoffice department to prevent the issue of a fraud order against the Postal Telegraph and Security company of St. Louis, was given to the jury at 10:25 tonight in the United States circuit court.

Charge of the Judge.

Judge Van Devanter's instructions to the jury, in part, follow: Gentlemen of the Jury: The court fully expects the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY UNDER WAY

World-Herald Sends Threatening Letters to Saloon Men by Registered Mail.

A circular letter, signed by "The World-Herald," and printed in imitation of type, was sent out by registered mail to the Omaha saloonkeepers yesterday, notifying them that if they did not publish notice of their application for liquor license in the World-Herald they would be prosecuted.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—A meeting of the executive committee of the National League of Women's Organizations, formed two years ago to oppose the continuance in the United States senate of Senator Reed Smoot, was held here today.

Case Goes to the Jury.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 25.—The case of United States Senator J. Ralph Burton of Kansas, charged with violating a federal statute by appearing as a paid attorney before the Postoffice department to prevent the issue of a fraud order against the Postal Telegraph and Security company of St. Louis, was given to the jury at 10:25 tonight in the United States circuit court.

Charge of the Judge.

Judge Van Devanter's instructions to the jury, in part, follow: Gentlemen of the Jury: The court fully expects the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

TURKEY TIME

Roasting Pans—Double self-basting, all enamel, guaranteed ten years. 1.50 Food Choppers—Genuine Universal; chops every thing; up from 85c Carvers—Guaranteed keen-edge steel carvers, up from 1.00 Silverware, Silver plated knives, forks and spoons, set up from 2.50

MILTON ROGERS & SONS CO.

14th and Farnam Streets.

COPLEY JEWELER THE SELLER OF WATCHES $1, $2, $5, $10 or $20

STATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE. The Men's True Specialists

Doctors for Men CURE Hydrocele, Varicocele, Stricture, Gonorrhea, Impotency, Gleet, Syphilis, Blood Poison (Syphilis), Rupture, Neuritis, Debility.

ADmits GOODS ARE STOLEN Proceeds of Robbery Committed Thursday at Columbus, Nebraska.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. B. W. May of Fremont is at the Henshaw, O. J. Malcolm of Nome, Alaska, is registered at the Paxton.

LIFE SAVED BY FAMOUS PILE CURE Well Known Resident of Moline, Ill., Rescued from Death by the Wonderful Pyramid Pile Cure.

WITNESSES WERE WARNED Why the Grand Jury Did Not Take Up the Grain Trust Inquiry.

LOCAL BREVITIES. William Pugh, Fortieth and Poppleton avenue, died yesterday of pneumonia, aged 22 years. His brother will accompany the body to Wales, Wis., for burial.

Commercial College Wins. The Omaha Commercial college defeated the Omaha Institute Saturday afternoon at the grounds of the latter, 3 to 0.

Johnson Bros. Transfer Co. Announce That a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed November 23. The business will be conducted as heretofore with Mr. J. L. Baker receiver and John A. Johnson manager.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury. The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & Co. Howard and Sixteenth Streets

MUTINY ON THE BLACK SEA

Sailors of Fleet and Garrison of Sebastopol in Open Revolt.

REVOLUTIONISTS CONTROL THE CITY

Vice Admiral Ploresvski Seriously Wounded While Attempting to Prevent a Mutiny.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 25.—The outbreak at Sebastopol is no drunken frolic, as was the case at Cronstadt, but a seriously planned revolutionary demonstration.

The situation is serious, though according to a report received at 6:28 o'clock this evening no attempts had been made to pillage.

Alarm in St. Petersburg.

In view of the alarming news received today of a mutiny at Sebastopol the proceedings of the senate congress at Moscow and not to Premier Witte. The Russian situation paled into insignificance.

Alarm in St. Petersburg.

The mutineers and riotous strikers are parading the city with red flags without interference, and it may be possible, as was the case at Odessa, that the guns of the battleship Pateleimon (formerly the Rikias Potemkin) and other vessels of the Euxine fleet dominate the situation and prevent active measures being taken to quell the mutiny.

Mutiny on Big Scale.

Officers of the Admiralty hope that the mutiny may end like that at Cronstadt, when the sailors, after a night of drunken revelry and disturbance, returned to duty, for the most part without compulsion.

Orders Ordered to Sebastopol.

Orders were sent from here to quell the disorders at Sebastopol, which are reported to be increasing. The mutineers have sent the chief admiral a black coffin and have demanded that he leave the town immediately.

Nobles Call for Cossacks.

NOVOCHERKASSK, Russia, Nov. 25.—The nobility of this province have urgently requested dispatch to Novocherkassk of four regiments of Cossacks to protect their estates against the peasantry.

Officers of the local regiments have challenged an editor who criticized their conduct during the massacre.

WARSAW, Nov. 25.—The governor general has instructed the provincial governments to immediately collect the fines imposed on Jews for evading military service.

Engineers in Session.

George Vroman of North Platte, chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of the Union Pacific system, is at the Arcade hotel.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison Has Neck Broken in Mishap Near New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, wife of former Congressman Francis Burton Harrison of New York, was killed today by the overturning of an automobile in which she was riding with a party of friends on a steep hill in Long Island City when a break in the steering gear caused the accident.

Special Laws Denounced.

The League of Nations has adopted another set of resolutions, demanding the complete abolition of all special laws and concluding with a demand for the abolition of the Schluessburg fortress as a political prison.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.

The case is of great importance to the defendant, because it involves his reputation and the close attention which you have so patiently given to the introduction of evidence and to the arguments of counsel and congratulates you that the arguments have been so superior, so complete and so enlightening that their effect cannot be doubted.

Charge of the Jury.