Councilman Evans:

OMAHA, Nov. 28.—Mr. E. D. Evans, City Hall: Dear Sir—At a meeting of the Druid Hill Improvement club last night the secretary was instructed to write you and ask that you either appear before the club or write it the reasons you had in repealing the ordinance you fathered requiring the signatures of property owners within 1,000 feet of the property upon which a gas tank was to be erected, introduced when the gas company talked of erecting a plant near your property. Now that the company will no' build near your property, would you introduce an ordinance with the same feature if they were to locate in some part of the ward you represent? As the spring elections are getting nearer every day, the club desires this information at as early a date as possible. information at as early a date as possible.
Yours truly. E. L. PLATZ, Secretary. The club went after the sidewalks in that part of the city and urged the necessity of repairing them. The club is anxious for the street railway company to build north on Thirtieth street to Pratt. west on Pratt to Thirty-second and north on Thirty-second to Spaulding and east on Spaulding to Thirtieth, thus making a loup and doing away with the switching on Thirtieth street A committee was ap-pointed to see Manager Smith about the matter. A committee was also appointed to attend the council meeting Tuesday night and see what could be done in regard to constructing crossings on Thirtythird and Sahler and Thirty-second and Evans streets. The opening of Thirty-
