BURTON'S SENTENCE STAYED

Senator Gives Bond and Delays Service in Jail and Fine.

DEFENDANT NOW HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Accepts Judgment of Court in Silence and Notice of Appeal of Case is Made by Attorneys.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29.—United States Senator Joseph Ralph Burton of Kansas was today sentenced to six months in the iron county jail, to pay a fine of $2,000, and to pay a fine of $2,000, as the penalty for conviction on the indictment charging that he had acted in the capacity of a paid attorney in behalf of the Rialto Grain and Securities company of St. Louis before the Postoffice department to prevent the issuance of a fraud order. He was released on bond in the sum of $5,000, with R. C. Kerens as surety, pending an appeal to the supreme court. Execution of sentence was stayed pending appeal.

After a trial which continued throughout the three last weeks Burton was found guilty early last Sunday morning on six counts of the indictment, four of which charged that he agreed to receive compensation for his services as an attorney before the Postoffice department in behalf of the Rialto company, and two charging that he received such compensation. Judge Vandevanter imposed sentence of imprisonment on one count in each of these two indictments, making the terms concurrent, and, in addition, assessed him $1,000 on one of the counts. As provided in statute 192, which Senator Burton was convicted of having violated, Judge Vandevanter imposed the additional penalty of barring Senator Burton forever from holding any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States government.

The sentence imposed in the previous trial and conviction of Senator Burton before Judge Adams was six months in the iron county jail and to pay a fine of $5,000. On appeal the United States supreme court has reversed the sentence. When court convened today the attorneys for Senator Burton secured an additional two hours in which to complete their petition for a writ of error, upon which to base the appeal to the United States supreme court. The application for a new trial was overruled by Judge Vandevanter immediately upon the reopening of court. A motion in arrest of judgment was also overruled and the United States district judge then moved that sentence be pronounced.

Has Nothing to Say. Judge Vandevanter ordered the defendant to stand up. Senator Burton remained standing by the side of the table occupied by his counsel and did not approach directly in front of the bar as is customary. Judge Vandevanter said:

"You have been present during the progress of this trial and have heard the verdict rendered by the jury. Have you anything to say?"

Judge Vandevanter, standing pale and motionless with his eyes fixed unwaveringly upon the court, replied: "Nothing."

Judge Vandevanter then pronounced the formal sentence. He said that the penalty of imprisonment for six months and the fine of $5,000, imposed on count six, which charged him with having agreed to accept compensation, and sentence of six months' imprisonment alone was imposed on count seven, charging that he received compensation.

In regard to counts 1, 2 and 3, Judge Vandevanter said that as they involved the same transaction as count six, no separate judgment was imposed, and as count 3 was the same as count 7 no separate judgment was imposed on that count. Counts 4 and 5 were quashed because of the statute.

After Senator Burton had been committed to the care of the marshal, Attorney Lehmann submitted his petition for a writ of error, which was allowed. Mr. Lehmann then asked that the writ of error upon the acceptance by the court of a proper bond should operate as a stay of execution of sentence. This was allowed by the court, who announced that the bond for $5,000 offered by Senator Burton as personal and R. C. Kerens of St. Louis as surety was approved.

Senator Burton, on advice of counsel, refuses to make any statement to the press. All records of the trial, including the indictment, the verdict, and the sentence, are on file in the office of the clerk of the court.

Refuses to Pay Fine for Selling Liquor Without License. BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Councilman Harry Ford from the third ward, who was found guilty last week in the district court on the charge of selling liquor without a license and who was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 by Judge Kellinger or file a supersedeas bond or go to jail, failed to file a bond or pay his fine within the time limited by the court, so he was lodged in the county jail soon after noon today by Sheriff Tredwell.

Ford absolutely refused to pay his fine and when taken in charge by the officer intimated that he would just as soon serve his fine out in jail, which will take about sixty days. Later in the day, however, he changed his mind, gave bail and was released. Ford was arrested during the Chautauque assembly last summer after the officers had raided his rooms on Lower Court street and confiscated a quantity of liquor. His term as councilman expires next spring.

LIFE IN THE NEBRASKA LAW

Judge McPherson Rendered Similar Decision Here to Iowa Case.

SOME TALK OF REOPENING THE CASE

Report of Democratic Committee Shows it Expended Only Three Hundred Sixteen Dollars in Campaign.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Insurance Deputy Pierce of the state auditor's office believes that the decision of the United States supreme court sustaining the Iowa statute against insurance companies will establish the validity of the Nebraska enactment of 1897, which was held to be unconstitutional in 1901 by Judge McPherson, whose decision with reference to the Iowa law has just become final. The scope of the two acts is much the same. The decision in the Nebraska case covered the main points touched in the Iowa case, the interference with the freedom of contract, guaranteed by the United States constitution. The principal objections urged by Judge McPherson to the Nebraska act was in its attempt to prevent contracts as to agents' commissions and methods of transacting business. That is also the principal point discussed in his opinion in the Iowa case.

The Nebraska decision was rendered in 1901 and carried with it a permanent injunction, restraining the auditor of state from enforcing the provisions of the act. The suit was brought against John F. Cornell, who was then in the office of the Nebraska Insurance company as its plaintiff, but several other large fire insurance companies were interested in the suit. In the petition it was alleged that the enforcement of the act would deprive the companies of the valuable business which has been built up since coming into the state and it was charged that only through the use of the equity power of the court in the issuance of an injunction could irreparable injury be prevented. The Iowa case, that of the Greenwich Fire Insurance Company against Auditor Carroll, took the same course.

The Nebraska act which Pierce proposes, with the aid of the attorney general, to revive provides: Any combination or agreement made or entered into between two or more fire insurance companies insuring property against casualties in this state, or between the companies, officers or agents, or between the officers, agents or employees of such companies, relating to the amount of commissions to be allowed agents for procuring insurance or the method of transacting the business of fire insurance within this state, is hereby declared to be unlawful, and any such combination, officer or agent, violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall pay a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500 for each offense. The act also provides for the use of the permanent school fund in the name of the state.

The same act contains a provision requiring the auditor to bring before him persons suspected of violations of the act and to investigate complaints made by two or more residents. In the event that any company is found guilty of the practices prohibited by the statute, the auditor is required to revoke the license and the erring company is not to be permitted to do business in the state within a year from the time of revocation.

Division is made for an appeal from the decision of the auditor. The bill and the statements of persons under examination by the auditor are not to be used against them in criminal prosecutions.

Pioneer Newspaper Man Dead. Today a telegram was received announcing the death of Hiram D. Hathaway, one of the pioneer newspaper men of the state. For twenty-two years he was with the late C. H. Gere in the management of the State Journal, ceasing connection with it in 1896. The telegram does not convey any information as to the cause of his death. The body will be brought to Lincoln for burial. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

Mr. Hathaway was 70 years of age. Born in Trumbull county, Ohio, the sportsman boyhood on the farm. He came to Council Bluffs, then known as Kaneville, in 1862, and began work on the old Frontier Guardian as an apprentice boy. Then he went to California and for a year worked at various things. In 1868 he returned to Nebraska and located at Wyoming, then the promising town of Otero county. The following year he moved to Nebraska City, where he worked on a newspaper called The Spirit of the West. In 1890 he became foreman and in the same year business manager of the Nebraska City News, which is still in existence. In 1895 he went to Plattsmouth and started the Herald, which he published until 1925, when he retired. The telegram of W. W. Carder in the State Journal.

During his life he was very active in politics and represented Cass county in the house of representatives in 1897, and was in the senate in 1903 and 1905. While at Plattsmouth Mr. Hathaway was an active member of the committee which induced the Burlington to locate its headquarters and shops at that town, which had recently acquired the Union Pacific headquarters.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities which are present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system. Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh. All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most pure is that which is made from the finest powered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or, rather, in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from its continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the lozenges are greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost, but 25 cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

found in a saloon this afternoon. The detective recognized the men as persons that he had arrested at Clay Center several months ago under the suspicion that they were dynamite. At that time he secured photographs of the men and the pictures gave him the clue as to the identity of the four men now in the city jail. The Reillys were readily identified with the two men held as suspects at Clay Center. The other two men were identified in his pocket a copy of the Evening News and another of The Omaha Bee containing reports of the robbery at Chapman.

Brown Not Seeking It. Friends of Attorney General Brown discovered the report published by The Washington Star that he was a candidate for the United States senate to succeed J. H. Millard. Brown recently authorized a statement that he was not and would not be a candidate for the governorship of the United States senate. His friends announce that the attorney general's highest duty is to wage a successful contest against the various combinations and trusts operating in the state. He is anxious to pursue his legal career without the deviation which would be caused by membership in the United States senate, but one time the attorney general's highest duty has other aspirations was being used in an attempt to discredit his sincerity in several of the important state suits which are pending.

Long Trip to Speak. Tomorrow afternoon State Superintendent McPherson will start for the northeast corner of the state on a speaking tour which will last until next Wednesday. He will travel 500 miles to talk to teachers at Crawford, where the Northwestern Nebraska Teachers' association will be in session for two days. He will also speak at Hemingford and White.

Board of Health. The medical secretaries of the State Board of Health were in session today at the state superintendent's office. Ten applications for certificates were under consideration, but five failed to appear at the required time for the examinations.

Officials to Observe Holiday. The state house officials will observe Thanksgiving day by closing their offices. Most of the officials will remain in the city for the foot ball game, but Governor Mickey and family, excepting Master Boyd and Miss Nellie, will leave for Osceola as the guests of a relative, B. C. Campbell. Benjamin will be the guest of Rev. Hull at Fremont.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Convention. A four days' province convention of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, was held tonight with delegates in attendance from six universities in four states. One hundred delegates are expected.

Go to Claim Estate. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. Calvin Chapman and David Shellenberger, heirs of the late John Shellenberger, the reputed millionaire, whose death occurred in Oregon some two years ago, have gone to Connelleville, Pa., to claim the estate, which is variously estimated at from $4,000,000 to $24,000,000. The heirs from this city have gone to consult with F. D. Shellenberger and F. Spencer, who have been appointed by the courts to locate and

MANY CONSUMPTIVES HELPED. State Hospital in Adirondacks Shows Encouraging Figures—105 Patients Discharged.

The trustees of the New York State Hospital for Incipient Pulmonary Tuberculosis in the Adirondacks have issued their completed statistics for the first year, which is as follows: There were admitted 207 patients, more than half of whom were incipient. There were no deaths. Of the 105 patients discharged, fifty-two were apparently recovered, twenty-six arrested cases are reported. Sixteen improved, while eleven left without any improvement. The treatment consists mainly of outdoor air, wholesome food and rest. Patients have three full meals and two or three luncheons a day, and 90 of the 105 gained an average of 10.57 pounds each. This is certainly most encouraging and shows that incipient consumptives at least can be cured. There is another treatment perhaps almost as good. Stay home, use cold baths in the morning, get as much outdoor exercise as possible, a generous diet and the continuous use of Scott's Emulsion will doubtless check the progress of the disease and may permanently cure. At any rate it is easy to try it.
