FORTY - THREE - POUND CAKE Birthday Present to Chief

In commemoration of the "twenty-third" birthday anniversary of Chief Clerk Scott of the Merchants, and to provide a fitting centerpiece for the dining room in honor of Thanksgiving day, C. E. Blark, baker at the hotel, prepared a most pretentious full-rigged ship and weighed forty-three pounds. The ship was made in ornamental work done with royal icing in colors and was equipped with sailors, lifeboats, anchors, pilot house and flags in proper colors. It attracted considerable attention from guests at the hotel. It took four days to make the cake.
