The union Thanksgiving services at the First Baptlet church last evening brought ut a large congregation, made up from the several English speaking Protestant churches of the city. The ministers taking part in the services were Rev. W. D. Price if the Epworth Methodist church, Ray, W. Starr of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. W. B. Clemmer of the First Christian hurch, Rev. Charles Mayne of Trinity Methodist church, Rev. Marcus P. McClure First Presbyterian church, Rev. W. ives of the Fifth Avenue Methodist , Rev. G. W. Snyder of St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. Harvey Hostetler of the Second Presbyteri in church and Rev. Otterbein O. Smith of the First Congregational church, who preached the banksgiving sermon. Rev. Mr. Smith took for his text, "But shall be one day that shall be known o the Lord; not day, nor night, but it shall ne to pass that at evening time it shall light." Zech xiv.7, saying in part:

Contains Helpful Messages.

This prophecy has many beautiful and helpful messages in it for the people to whom it was spoken and yet the prophet's ision grows broader and more far-reaching than local conditions and needs, and be utters these sublime words which can have their perfect fulfillment only when their perfect fulfillment only when the kingdom of God shall have come in its fullness among the children of men. These words were uttered about 2,400 years ago. This seems a long time and our earth has undergone many changes Nation after nation has grown up from a small tribe and become powerful and for a time held the destiny of the world in its hand, only to be supplanted and disappear. Continents have been discovered and peopled with millions of inhabitants. All this and much more has happened and yet the prophetic finger points to the future.

The majesty, beauty and divineness of the majesty, beauty and divineness of the majesty, beauty and divineness of the council Bluffs, just before the close of the council Bluffs itself to gether and made a number of good itself together and made a number of good itself together and made a number of good itself together and made Contains Helpful Messages.

The majesty, beauty and divineness of this statement is brought strikingly before this statement is brought strikingly before the when we remember that the vast millions of the Christian church for the past 2,000 years have been striving to fulfill this prophecy, and yet today we cannot write in our Bibles opposite these words. Finished. Still, this glorious vision of the prophet rises above us as the mountain peak above the valley and points to the ruture and urges the whole church of God on to its fulfillment.

> WEST DES MOINES THE WINNER Final Score 9 to 6 in Favor of Capital

> City Eleven. The Council Bluffs High school went down in defeat before the West Des Moines High school yesterday afternoon on the Manawa gridiron, the visitors winning by a score of 9 to 6. By its defeat yesterday the Bluffs boys lost their chance for the pennant in the state high school championship race and will now have to be content with third place. The game was a fast one from start to finish, but the boys from Des Moines proved too fast for the Bluffs lads, and, besides that, outwelghed them nearly ten pounds to a man. Despite these odds, the Bluffs team put up a rattling game and during the greater part of the first half it looked as if the visitors would be defeated. The game was witnessed by a crowd of something over 1,000, the cold weather keeeping many away who had > bought tickets. Cantain Nicoll won the toss for the home team and chose the north goal. Macomber kicked off. The Bluffs boys were unable to gain and Nicoll punted, Des Molnes returning the ball about twenty yards. By a series of line smashes the visitors advanced the ball to the twenty-yard line, when Macomber kicked a goal from the Council Bluffs, just before the close of the half, got within scoring distance and Nicoli had a chance to kick goal, but the ball fell short about five yards of the posts. The half ended with the ball in possession of Des Moines and the score 6 to 4 in favor of Council Bluffs.

In the second half the Des Moines team esumed its line smashing tactics, and the Bluffs boys were unable to stand the line plunges of Macomber, who made big gains through both sides of the line. Gradually asummer day over the continents and nations are being born to God in a day, as it were.

In yiew of this, should we not on this, our Thanksgiving day, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord and come before Hispresence with singing."

Enersen once said: "God's latest charity to man is America," so, may we feel that this unfolding fruth of God's love is most perfectly seen in the history and splendid progress of our own nation. Realizing that the United States is a miracle among nations and that by clean living and high ideals what she has done in the past may be duplicated and even exceeded in the future, we should be full of thankful for a year of unsurpassed prosperity in every department of commercial life. It has been a year of peace and for all of these we should be thankful. But I would be ungrateful indeed if I should close these remarks without referring to our greatest of all blessings, that is the splendid, clean, noble, upright, manly leader of our nation. President Theodore Roosevelt. What he is doing for our nation, will be felt by generations yet unborn. May God be praised for such an unspeakable gift at such a time as this.

through both sides of the line. Gradually the visitors forced the locals back toward their goal, until, when within about twelve yards, Macomber was forced through for a touchdown, but he failed to kick goal. This made the score 9 to 6 in favor of Des Moines. The Bluffs boys railed and for a time it looked as if they were going to time it looked as if they were going to heavy for them. Craigmile was laid out by hurting his shoulder and his place was taken by Seeger. Council Bluffs had nother chance to score, but failed on a place kick. Punting in this half, as in the place kick. Punting in this half, as in the half ended with the ball in possession of the splendid, clean, noble, upright, manly leader of our nation, President Council Bluffs goal. Score 9 to 6 in favor of West Des Moines.

Many Leaders of G. A. R. Think Preference Law is Being Overworked.

FEAR LEGISLATURE WILL REPEAL IT

Fifteen Persons Convicted of Murder in the First Degree Petition the Legislature to Grant Them Pardons.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Nov. 30 .- (Special.)-It is earned that three ministers who are old soldiers are arranging to spend the winter in Des Moines and will apply for the posttions of opening the house and senate each morning with prayer. Heretofore each house has had a committee which has looked after inviting ministers, securing a different one each morning for the most part. It is learned, however, that some of the old soldiers think the soldiers' prefer ence law should apply to this service the same as to any other, and have arranged to assert their rights. Unless level-headed members of the Grand Army of the Repubic and the old soldiers of the state are successful in prevailing on them to abandon their intention it is concessed that they are likely to embarrass the committees of the legislature and, furthermore, wack for the repeal of the old soldier preference law. In addition to these old soldiers there is a host of others who are arranging to ask the legislature for positions of doorkeeper, clerks, assistants and janitors.

About one-half of the janitors and doorkeepers have been old soldlers in the past, but a large number of the clerks are not. In fact, very few of the clerks are old sol-George A. Newman, secretary of the senate, is about the only old soldier in a position of that kind. After enacting the old soldiers' preference law, which the supreme court has now declared to be constitutional, the senate and house will have difficulty in turning down any old soldier who can make a showing of being able to do the work. Past Commander L. B. Raymond of the Iowa Grand Army of the Republic, is urging the old soldiers to be moderate and reasonable, and frankly states that unless the old soldlers desist the law will be repealed and self-respecting old soldiers will be forced to ask for its repeal.

Pardon Applications All In. The last day for filing applications with the legislature for pardons by life prisoners serving sentence for first degree murder has passed and there are just fifteen applications, including that of Charles Rocker of Lyon county, whose appeal to the supreme court has not yet been heard by that body. Two others, Louis Busse of Bremer county and Joseph C. Smith of Monroe, are under the death sentence and set to be executed next April. The other applicants are Nathan and Frank Rainsbarger, who belonged to the famous Rainsbarger gang that was the terror of Hardin county in the early days; J. B. Taylor of a remark to the justice of the peace that married him to another woman the next day caused suspicion; Betsy Smith, who murdered her husband in this city; George Weems, who murdered Conductor Ridpath while attempting to rob him, also in this city; J. Bernstein represented the Simon Lewis liquor house of Rock Island. Ill., and his attorneys claim that his arrest is illegal. The facts were submitted to Judge Gamble without a jury as a test, pure and simple, of the constitutionality of the statutes, and he sentenced Bernstein to a short jail sentence. Bernstein's attorneys argue that it is making penal interstate commerce and argue the case entirely on that ground before the supreme court. Pleased with Cottage Method. It is believed they are the same men who recently made an unsuccovaful attempt to rob banks at Tea and Spencer, small towns in this vicinity, From the fact that they do not appear to understand the mechanism of the safes which they attempted to crack, it is thought they are amateurs at the business of safe blowing.
