ECHOES OF THE ANTEROOM

Improved Order of Red Men

Yuh-Nun-Enh-Sis tribe No. 3 at its meet-g last Monday evening elected these offi-rs for the ensuing term. Brother Pague, cers for the ensuing term. Brother Pague, sachemi Taylor, sentor sagamore: Woods, junior sagamore: Johnson, prophet: Me-grath, keeper of wampum: Wolcott, keeper of records: Althouse, trustee (re-elected.) The retiring sachem was Erother Johnson, and in commemoration of his retirement he set up the cigars. A very enjoyable even-ing was passed and the lodge has every reason for self-congratulation over the in-creasing membership and the signs of fra-terning membership and the signs of fra-terning normer and the signs of fra-terning membership and the signs of fra-terning membership and the signs of fra-terning membership and the signs of fra-terning property all along the line. Onaba tribe No. 15 will give a 'fadies' mail-driving contest' and ball at its hall Wednemday evening, December 6. An in-meresting program of entertainment thas been provided, including music and other social diversions. ers for the ensuing term:

social diversions. Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Ancient Order of United Workmen. Last Wednesday evening North Omaha lodge No. 159 celebrated its sixteenth an-niversary. An enjoyable evening was spent O. J. VanDyke, the grand master workman of Nebraska, delivered one of his characteristic speeches. After a varied program refreshments were served, follow-ing which daming was indulged in. Next Wednesday evening will be the semi-an-unal election of officers and also the initia-tion of a large class of candidates. Ancient Order of United Workmen and Degree of Honor central committees met Ancient Order of United Workmen and Degree of Honor central committees met last Monday evening to complete arrange-ments for their grand ball, to be given at theighton hall Tuesday evening, December 19. The committees will meet Monday ovening. The Ancient Order of United Workmen central committe is preparing for the next union meeting of the Work-men lodges of the city, which will be held with No. 150 Wednesday evening, Decem-ber 9. All of the members of the differ-ent lodges are invited to attend, as the program will be an interesting one.

Knights of Pythias.

Knights of Pythins. Tuesday evening Triune lodge No. 55 held its annual election of officers. Past Grand Chancellor John H. Bexton was elected chancellor commander: John B. Conte, vice commander: Charles Mangum, P. L. D. Blackwood, M. of W.; J. C. Brew-ington, K. of R. and S.; M. W. Carter, M. of F.; W. D. Eck, M. of E.; Jacob Kendia, M. of A.; Hugo Melchior, I. G.; Albert H. Hawitzer, O. G. Quite a contest of the different officers was had and especially the one for outer guard, but the contest different officers was had and especially the one for outer guard, but the contest was of the most friendly rivalry. Imported refreshments from the Isle of Pines were passed around. Next Tuesday evening, becember 5, work in the third rank will be had at the new hall in the Patterson block. Seventeenth and Farnam streets, on this eccent invested furth will be occasion imported fruits will served.

Thanksgiving evening Triangle lodge No. 34 held its annual election of officers for the coming year. The officers elected were:
4. C. Double, C. C.: Ernest James, V. C.; J. C. Blake, P.; Theodore Festner, M. of W.; J. R. Stine (re-elected). K. of R. and 8.; Chris Boyer (re-elected). K. of R. and 9.; C. C. Elake, P.; Theodore Festner, M. of
8.; Chris Boyer (re-elected). K. of R. and
8.; Chris Boyer (re-elected). K. of R. and 9.; C. C. E. B. Balcombe, trustee.
After the election an elaborate Thanksgiving lunch was served in the hall. The tables were set in the shape of a triangle, the name of the lodge. About the hour when the members were ready to sit down to the table the Rathbone Sisters appeared in the hall and added greatly to the enjoyment of all present.
Monday evening Nebraska lodge No. 1
1dected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Alvin S. Kelley, C. C.; C. W. Cooper, P.; O. P. Thompson, M. of W.; Will C. Matthews, M. of F.; Dr. Roy A. Dedge, K. of R. and S.; J. A. Dalzel, M. of E.; Dr. Wallace, M. at A.; Dr. Romm, I. G.; A. B. Meston, O. G.; William Berg, T. Following the election refreshments were served, consisting of wandwiches and cof-Thanksgiving evening Triangle lodge No.

Not the election refreshments were following the election refreshments and cofserved, consisting of sandwiches and cof-fee. The retiring chancellor commander is B. B. Anderson. The new officers will assume their stations January 1. This lodge is the oldest Pythian lodge west of Pennsylvania.

National Woman's Relief Corps.

Mrs. Abbie A. Adams of Superior, Neh., national president of the Woman's Relief sorps, has added to her list of appointments recently announced. The list is as follows: National Secretary-Mary R. Morgan, torps, has National Alma, Neb. National camp Saturday evening, December 9, at Baright hall, Nineteenth and Farnam SIFOPIA. Wednesday evening the social hour is Wednesday evening the social hour in Onisciences input earlies No. 15 was devoted to a Thankssiving celebration. Addiverses were made by Sovereign Commander Root, Past Consul Kuhn and Sovereign Asplo-wall of Council Huffs, interspersed with missic. The sovereign commander told the camp that its name, had been adopted by camp No. 33. Syracuse, N. Y., and in rec-ognition the camp ordered a ploture of the champion team sent to it. Next Wednes-day evening will be the annual election of officers and on December 20 will occur the regular monthly dance. The Glee club meets every week an hour before the camp convenes and there is room for a few more voices more voices.

Inspector-Annie E. Noyes, Madison, Wis Madison, Wis. National Counselor-Agnes Hitt, Indian-apolis. Ind. National Instituting and Installing Offi-cer-Alice Breitenstein, Dayton, Ky. National Patriotic Instructor-Eliza J.

Tribe of Ben liur

Omaha court. No. 110, had forty-five ap-plications last Tuesday night and initiated a class of twenty-three. Next Tuesday night a dance and card party will be given in Baright's society hall. Ninetcenth and Farnam. All members and their friends are invited to be present. Prizes will be given.

Modern Woodmen of America.

Chicago has become the greatest city in fourin woodcraft in the United States. response.

Chicago has become the greatest city in Mourie Woodcraft in the United States. The demonstration in that city November 18 was the greatest meeting in the history of the order. Within the walls of the First Regiment armory, on Michigan avenue and Sixteenth street, 10.000 members of that order witnessed the adoption of 1,622 candi-dates. The exemplification of the secret work was conducted by the officers and foresters of Eigin (ill.) camp. This was the first uemonstration of the Modern Wood-men of America in Chicago, which eighteen months ago had no members in that city. It began with a street parade in which 5.24 men were in sline; seventy-five dif-ferent camps marched through the busi-ness streets to the armory. There were thirty-six drill teams, bail a dozen floats, a tally-ho and twenty carriages contain-ing head officers and several bands. Past Head Consul W. A. Northcott de-livered a rousing address. He said in part: "The Modern Woodmen of America is the ing head officers and several bathcott de-Past Head Consul W. A. Northcott de-livered a rousing address. He said in part: "The Modern Woodmen of America is the greatest fraternity organization in Amer-ica, with 750,000 members, and Cook county alone has 12,000 members, and Chicago is alone has 12,000 members, and Chicago is the greatest city in Modern Woodcraft in the United States. There are 140,000 mem-bers in Illinois." Head Consul A. R. Talbot delivered the oath to the 1,852 candidates. The local camps are now interested in the election of officers. Beech camp, No. 1454, and B. & M. camp, No. 945, elected their officers last Friday. Hickory camp, No. 5132, and Magnolis camp. No. 1833, elect Tuesday, and Camp No. 120 elect Wednes-day, December 6. The joint meeting under the auspices of day, December a The joint meeting under the auspices of The joint meeting under the auspices of the promotion committee of Omnha and Bouth Omaha camps had a large and suc-cessful meeting at Benson last Tuesday. The next joint meeting will take place on Friday, December 15, with Bouch camp in the hall in the Commercial college building, Nineteenth and Farman streets. National Lecturer Thomas H. Duffie of Dubuque, Ia., will address this meeting. B. & M. camp, No. 945, expects to inf-tiate a large class of candidates on De-cember $. Omaha camp, No. 120, expects to initiate cember 8. Omaha camp, No. 120, expects to initiate a class on December 13. The champton drill team of Camp 150 gave two exhibition drills at the Flatt-deutscher Verein Jahrmarkt last week. On Thursday, December 14, the officers and the foresters of Omaha camp. No. 120, will initiate a large class of candidates for Camp No. 7151 of Council Bluffs, Ia.

Knights of Columbus.

Knights of Columbus. The third annual dancing party of Omaha council, Knights of Columbus, was given in the hall of the Metropolitan club Fri-day evening. Nearly 100 couples attended. While the young people enjoyed the dan-cing the older once filled the parlors of the club and played progressive high five. The prize winners were Mrs. M. E. Donohue and John A. Kervan. Dainty letter openers were given as souvenirs to the women in attendance. Luncheon was served at 10:30. attendance. Luncheon was served at 10:30

Benson.

Christian church services at the Town hall today at 7:30 p. m. Miss Nisson will move into her new mil-inery store on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ulmsted left Saturday for Logan, la.,

after a week's visit in Benson Mrs. Chris Nevius left last Tuesday to spend the winter in California. The regular fire meeting will the fire house Monday evening. eeting will be held a Mrs. Sallsbury of Lincoln is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Pearson. The town board held an open session at the town hall last Saturday evening. Lutheran services at Gravert's hall at 7:30 p. m. Bunday school at 3 p. m. Miss Rose Masters of Pierce, Neb., vis-tted Benson friends last Wednesday. Mass at St. Bernard's Catholic church at 10 a.m., Father Harrington officiating. Robert Smilley was the winner of the gun raffied off last week by Wulff Brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wulff left last Tuesday for a two weeks' stay in Californla.

on his ranch near that place. Dr. Akers will look after his practice in his absence. John Bell arrived home on Wednesday from Missouri Valley and spent Thanks-giving with his family.

Mrs. Banks, who has been here for three weeks visiting her daughter. Mrs. H. L. de, went to Blair Friday. The Odd Fellows will have an entertain trent at their hall Friday night for their families and Rebekah branch in Florence.

C. E. Christian of Utah is visiting rela-tives here after a fourteen years' ab-sence. At present he is visiting his daugh-ter. Mrs. A. C. Cubley. John Anderson, llving near Blain, was the guest of his brothers, Henry and An-drew Anderson, on Saturday and Sunday. His son accompanied him.

His son accompanied him. The volunteer fire department of Flor-ence, Hose Company No. 1 and Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 gave their annual review and dance at the city hall Thurs-day night. There was a large attendance of firemen, all in uniform. The present chief, William Kindred, with the two ex-tinates. E. H. Walker and John Simpson, were present and each received a largo size picture of themselves with Mr. Lu Flant, an ex-chief, who was sick and not able to be present. These pictures were a present from the members of the hook and ladger companies. The presenting speech adder companies. The presenting speech was made by W. R. Wall. Each of the ex-chiefs made a rew feeling remarks in West Ambler.

Frank Potter is working early and late here rushing times at the Booth Oyster ompany.

Mrs. Aughe and Aus. daestric were guests of Mrs. William McDonald for dinier on Tuesday of this week. John Gantz will board with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Hensman, during the of his wife and daughter in Iowa. Young Guy Cook's crippled knee has re-overed so he is able to return home from he hospital and spent Thanksgiving under the roof tree

Mrs. L. Darling spends three days out of the week at home with her children since her daughter. Miss Alma, has secured a permanent position.

Charles Henderson came down from Sloux Ity Saturday evening to visit his parents ind together they spent the Sabbath with is sister, Mrs. Nelson Pratt and family, on Decatur street.

Allen and Albert Faverty and parents will attend the free entertainment Tuesday evening. December 5, given by court No. 10. Tribe of Ben Hur, at Baright's hall, Nineteenth and Farnam streets. Mrs. John Gantz and daughter, Miss Adn will leave the first of the week for Fair field, ia., where they will be the guests of their daughter and slater, Mrs. Anna Gant Ryder, until after the holidays.

John Eberl, wife and little daughter John Eberl, wife and little daughter Clara formerly residents of East Ambler, who have been living on West L street, South Omaha, removed to a large farm on West Q street, where he will turn farmer. The Beals school will give an opening in honor of their new, building on Thursday evening, December 7. Several prominent educators of Omaha will address the gathering. The eighth grade will take part and Miss Arnold, musical instructor, will size will sing.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. John Parrott, 1828 Park avenue, on Thursday, December 7, to sew for the hostess all day, who will serve din-ner at noon to all who come. A good at-tendance is desired, as an election of offi-cers will be held at that time.

J. E. Aughe and wife entertained the fol-lowing guests at their Thanksgiving feast Thursday: Frank S. Aughe and wife, Rev J. B. Priest and wife of Seward Street Methodist Episcopal church, his daughters, Missee May and Esther, and sons, John, James and Herbert. Miss Aughe was as-sisted by Miss Anna White of Chicago.

Dundee.

D. L. Johnson is in Denver on business Mrs. T. K. Hunter is able to be out again after her recent illness. Hamilton left Saturday for James W. Hamilton I Boston on legal business, Mrs. P. J. Barr entertained some friends at luncheon on Tuesday. The Dundee Woman's club met Wednes-day with Mrs. H. C. Baird.

The Round Dozen club will be entertained in Wednesday of this week by Mrs E. R. Thanksgiving services were held Wednesday evening at the Dundee Presbyterian church The Ladles' Aid society of the Dundee Presbyterian church met on Friday with Mrs. R. C. Peters, Fort Crook.

ARMY NEWS AND BOSSIP.

Fort Mobrars.

OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1905.

Fort Mobrars. FORT NIOBRARA. Neb. Dec 2.-(Spe-cial).-The "Bachelors" gave a stag dinner at their messin quarters No. 21 on Wednes-day evening. Thanksgiving dinner parties were given by Captain and Mrs. J. P. O'Neil, Captain and Mrs. M. D. Cronin and Captain and Mrs. Powell. Lieutenant G. W. Lawirason. Twenty-fifth infanity, went to the Rosebud sgency on Thanksgiving day to inspect cattle to be issued to the Indians. The olisted men gave a dance in Gordon haid on Thanksgiving night. There was a indixed.

enloyed. The Misses MacDonalö of Valentine have been visiting Mrs. Harbold and Miss Brown

during the past week. Dr. Brown returned Tuesday from Omaha

Dr. Brown iccurned Tuesday from Omaha. An informal dance was given at the home of Mr. Furrey on Monday evening. The teamsters and post non-commissioned staff attended. The regular monthly inspection of the command took place Thanksgiving morning at 9 o'clock. Captain J. P. O'Neil of the Twenty-fifth infantry inspected the Third battallon. Captain A. B. Shattuck the First battallon and the post commander battalion, Captain A. E. Shatruck the First battalion and the post commander the post non-commissioned staff, the hospital corps and the regimental non-com missioned staff and band of the Twenty

The post non-commissioned staff, the hospital corps and the regimental non-commissioned staff and band of the Twenty-fifth infantry. The blizzard of Tuesday found people quite unprepared for winter. Many water pipes were frozen. The temperature dropped some fitty degrees from Monday noon to Wednesday morning, and remained in the vicinity of zero all day Wednesday. Henry Stetter of Valentine has been awarded the beef contract for the post from January 1 to June 30, 1906. He was the celly one to submit a bid. The general court-mariful completed the construction of officers who are from January 1 to June 30, 1906. He was the celly one to submit a bid. The general court-mariful completed the construction of the number of officers who are foring on leave for the Christmas time, fi the guard duty on Saturday, for which the the guard duty on Saturday, for which the larger than the old barracks and of a little different plan. There are two squad rooms and of the west squad room are two small forms, one to be used by the company here and the other for a tailor shop. In ours, one to be used by the company parter and the other for a tailor shop. In the boutheast corner there is a large anuse mont form, where the company will have a point all the dot and tailes for magizines. The dividing and to the north of the during mont noon, where the company will have a point all these noons will be the during the boutheast corner there is a large anuse-ment noon, where the company will have a point all these for magizines. The duilding and to the north of the during the boutheast corner there is and an are parter screent's and coak's bedroom. To be not hot there do ally from the outside of Ompany K burned last Christmas they have been living in the old guarter-master screent is and coak's bedroom. To be not hot these nooms will be the during the boutheast corner where the during the streen and beyond that the bath room. The bath of the weathing in the old guarter-ment howing menu of a dinner given by is an flustration of the Fort Riley.

Fort Riley. FORT RILEY, Kan., Dec. 2.-(Special.)-FORT RILEY, Kan., Dec. 2.-(Special.)-day and gent a part of the ordnance department, arrived at this post last Sun-day and spent a part of the week making an official inspection of the field artillery material. The different batteries fired sev-eral rounds from each piece's so that the action of the carriages in fire could be in-spected. Captain Burr recently finished an inspection of the artillery material at Fort Sill, Okl., which included that of the Second battery, which is now marching to Fort Riley.

Second battery, which is now marching to Fort Riley. Letters received from members of the Sixth battery, which left here some time ago to march to Fort Sam Houston, Tex., tell of pleasant experiences on the road. At every stopping-place crowds of people turn out to see the soldiers. Farmers come to the camps and pass around buckets of big red apples, and at several places the men have been treated to hot ples by the citizens. The last report states that not a man nor an animal has as yet been on stek report. sick report.

sick report. Colonel E. S. Godfrey, Ninth cavalry, commanding officer of this post, and family, are entertaining the colonel's sister, Mrs. Ogle of Ottawa, III. E. A. Miller, the expert machinist from the Rock Island arsenal, who came here about the post is a significant the second second the Rock Island arkenal, who came here about two months ago to superintend the work of repairing the new field artillery armament, received word last week that Mrs. Miller was very sick and at once left for Rock Island, where he now is. Bergeant Frank T. Schoenleber, dis-charged last March from the Seventh field battery at this post has recentinged at of Pardue & Chastain, publishers of the Weekly Bulletin, at Alvarado, Tex. While here Chastain was foreman of the printing plant of the school of application. All duties except the necessary guard, stable and police, were suspended here on Thanksgiving day, which was observed as a bullday.

on Thanksziving day, which was observed as a holiday. A circular was published Monday pro-hibiting men from smoking cigarettes in the artillery administration building er expectorating on the sidewalks or on the floors or porches of any of the public buildings. Densate Charles M. Marsh who was re-foors or porches of any of the public buildings. Private Charles M. Marsh, who was re-cently transferred to the Signal corps by orders from the War department, was sent to Ornaha Monday with Instructions to report to the commanding officer at Fort Omaha for duty. Orders have been issued limiting the area on which prairie chickens and quall can be killed on the military reservation to the Smoky Hill flats, west of the Gov-ernor Harvey canyon, the Ogden flats, east of Three-mile creek and the ground between the outer reservation fence and one mile therefrom. The Kansas state school teachers' conven-tion was held in Junction City this week and the post has been floaded with visitors. Private John M. Champeno, Twentleth battery, Field artillery, has been pro-moted to be sergeant. Volde Jorgenson, disoharged about two years ago as a sirgeant in the Sixth bat-tery Field artillery, and now in the em-ploy of a Junction City hundry, has just failen heir to $5000, left to him by an aunt who recently died in Denmark.

OMAHA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Thanksgiving programs were the order of the day by many societies at the high school on Wednesday aftermoon. The pro-gram rendered by the Priscilla Alden so-clety was delightful in its whole character. It was as follows: Piano solo. "Nocturne" (Rabina), Ruth Sherwood: essay, "Priscilla Alden," Helen Wright, original poem, "A Thanksgiving Dinner," Bessie Townsend; original story. "Why Mr. Orcott was Thankful," Huth Best: violin solo. "Spanish Dance" (Sarasate). Grace McBride; story, "A Snowy Thanksgiving," Dorothy Phillips; oration. "Thanksgiving," Dorothy Phillips; oration. "Thanksgiving," Corott, Was Hommel: recitation. "One-Legged Goose" (Hopkinson Smith), Jessie Harris, and "Ye Puritan Chronicic." by ye editor. Neat and appropriate programs were furnished to all present. Thanksgiving programs were the order of The Margaret Fuller society program was

The Margaret Fuller society program was a very pleasant and enjoyable one. The programs, which were very carefully and beautifully designed, contained the follow-ing numbers: Violin solo. "Il Trovatore." Amy Nelson: original poem, "Thanksgiv-ing," Marie Mackin, original story. "Indian Romance," Fella Jacobson and Eleanor Jaquith, violin solo. "Spring Song," Amy Nelson: poem. "Thanksgiving" (VanDyke). Rogens Dellecker, and "A Thanksgiving Travesty-Dame Welcome's Reception." by the committee.

Travesty-Dame Welcome's Reception." by the committee. The Lincoln society spent a very profit-able stiernoon by listening to an exposi-tion on "The Growth of Socialism in Amer-ica" by Haroid Keller and to a debate on the question, "Resolved, That the Univer-sity of Nebraska should accept Rockefel-ler's donations," by Herbert French and Fay Felker on the affirmative and Paul Hommel and George Flack on the negative. The junkor class met in brief session Mon-day afternoon and choose its class colors, light blue and gold. C. Bracelen was chosen class teacher. As chairman of the yet un-appointed pin committee Carroll Burkhard class teacher. As chairman of the yet un-appointed pin committee Carroll Burkhard class tencher As chairman of the yrd appointed pin committee Carroll Burkhard was chosen.

box, $12

The Lininger Travel club spent a profitable atternoon at the home of Miss Carrie Brown. A brief program was prepared which was as follows: Reading. "Blue Flower," Mabel Huntley: recitation," Thanksgiving Dream," Hulda Anderson: reading, "Rob Roy's Pigs." Mary English, "recitation, "Swan's Song. Pauline Rosenberg, pinno solo, Addie Cronk, reading, the Burnoch." (Club Prophesy: Helen Cook, and a piano solo by Bertha Brown, At the conclusion of the program a social time was had, with exquisite refreshments. The Hawthorne society gave a pleasant program, which was briefly as follows: "Thanksgiving Story," Lavina Shorter; piano solo, by Miss May Gibbs; recitation, by Fern Wallace; violm solo, by Lacy Dietrich; recitation, by Fern Wallace; wolk, Borther Gale; "Thanksgiving Squibbs," by Hazel Warich, and a dialogue, by Helen Monroe, Irene Larmison, Maude Garburz and Riche Clark. Thanksgving Soulds, by Helen Monroe, Irene Larnison, Maude Garburg and Richie Clark The Demosthenian Debating society hele a meeting at which the question, "Resolved That American citles should own and op-rate their own street callway systems." erate their own street raliway system was profitably outlined by all the members under the leadership of George Weidenfeld. The department of history, under the leadership of Mrs. Atkinson, the head of the department, will form a choral society for the purpose of familiarizing all students of history with the more important national hymns and anthems of modern na-tions, and especially of America. One hun-dred and sixty-nine pupils have signified their intention to join in this work. Miss F. Arnold will assume the leadership of this chorus. The first meeting of the choral society will be held Monday next. The Frances Willard society rendered a pleasant program which was as follows: "Story of Frances Willard." Eliz Norgaard: original story, by Frances Zabel; "Pligrims Thanksgiving." Antonie Daugaard: recita-tion, by Anna Maitland, and a quartet song by Grace Sternberg, Mildred McAillster, Nelle Mitchell and Helen Ostrom. tional hymns and anthems of modern na 59 Paid. Nebraska Cycle Co., five cents: ten-inch to sixty cents; twelve-inch to one dollar. Railway Notes and Personals. Eugene Duvail, assistant general western gent of the Milwaukee, has gone to Denver on a short trip. The Union Pacific has about completed the laying of tracks on Leavenworth from the Tenth street viaduct cast to Eighth THE 1906 MODELS the tenth screet change of the local pas-senger department of the Milwaukee, has returned from Kansas, where he has been spending a short vacation. The city station of the Northwestern at Narfolk was completely destroyed by fire Norfolk was completely destroyed by fire Friday night. The fire started from some unknown origin about 11 o'clock and the sold at $35.00. $3195 our sale price..... ON PAYMENTS SIDEBOARD CHIFFONIER Highly polished oak, splen-Highly polished oak, bevdid value $12.00. eled mirror, separate hat 7.75 our 17.75 price....

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

Omaha, Neb.

Retail prices on records are reduced today.

70 aal dx.

Camden, N. Y., Dec. 1, '06.

A Most Enjoyable

As Low as

Christmas Gift

VICTOR TALKING MACHINE CO.

Seven-inch to thirty-

1:53 p. m

$10.00

Crisier, Greensburg, Ind. National Press Correspondent-Elizabeth Robbins Berry, Boston. National Senior Aide and Chief of Staff-

National Senior Aide and Chief of Staff-Eliza Brown Daggett, Attleboro, Mass. Delegate to Council of Women-Emma Stark Hampton, Detroit. Bpecial National Press Correspondent-Isabel Worrell Ball, Washington, D. C. Assistant National Press Correspondents-Inzetta A. Small, Lewiston, Me.; Myra J. Olney, Pawtucket, R. I.; Helen I. Parker, Gouverneur, N. Y.; Amelia F. Colgan, Hampton, Va.; Florence O. McClelland, Chicago, Ada E. May, Stillwater, Minn; Alice Ward, Williamsburg, Ia.; Mayme Hedrich Cleaver, Neligh, Neb.; Mary E. Hartwell, Los Angeles. Hartwell, Los Angeles.

Hartwell, Los Angeles, Executive Board-Orpha D. Bruce, chair-man. Tampa, Fla.; Sarah C. Whiet, Rock-ville, Ind.; Florence E. Babbitt, Ypsilanti, Mich.; Maria E. Dean, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Alkce W. Fuller, Cleveland, O. Andersonville Prison Board-Elizabeth A. Turner, chairman, New Britain, Conn.; Sarah M. E. Battels, Akron, O.; Lodusky J. Taylor, Le Sueur, Minn., to fill unexpired term of Sarah D. Winans: Sarah D. Winans, Toledo, O.; Allaseba M. Bliss, Bagmaw, Mich. Department presidents are also requested to forward at once to the national serre-tary the names of those whom they desire to recommend for appointment as national will addes. Care should be taken to select ac-tive, willing workers for this position, and that all names and postoffice addresses are plainly and correctly spelled. Special aldes will be appointed from time to time, as necessary, when their names come prop-orly recommended. orly rec General Ivan N. Walker, past commander-

General Ivan N. Walker, past commander-in-chief, Grand Army of the Republic, died at Indianapolis September 22. He has re-sponded to the last roll call of his earthly life and passed over to the fairer camping grounds in the great beyond. The deepest sympathy of the Woman's Relief corps is tendered to his stricken family and his comrades of the Grand Army. By the time that these grants bades comrades of the Grand Army. By the time that these general orders shall have reached their destination Thanksgiving day will be approaching, and it is in direct line with other patriotic work that this day of joy be appropriately ob-served by our order. Our beloved country leads in all that makes a nation great and good. No evil threatens us, our fair southland has re-covered from its recent trial with a disas-trous fever and peace, happiness and pros-perity are ours. Let our thankful hearts find voice in songs and all unite in an anthem of praise to the Great Commander who so blesses our fair land.

who so blesses our fair land. By command of ABBIE A. ADAMS. National President. MARY R. MORGAN, National Secretary, Alma, Neb.

Fraternal Union of America. Mondamin lodge No. 111 at its meeting present. Considerable business came be-fore the meeting, including election of offi-ensuing term. Fraternal master, Charles F. Stingerland, Justice, M. J. Petersen; Bingerland, Justice, M. J. Petersen; Bingerland, Justice, M. J. Petersen; Bingerland, Justice, M. J. Petersen; Wide, Joseph Nixon, Euszke Pleronnet; truth, Beşsie Larson, mercy, Lora Smith Wimmel; sentinel, Maggie Alexander; stew-ards, W. C. Matthews, Myrtle Nixon, Alfe-stingerland, musician, Mary S. Nelson; eap-nin, M. J. Lawless, Monday this lodge will give a progressive high five party in Patter-son fail, Seventeenth and Farnam streets, after five games have been played refresh-ments will be served. The evening will be Fraternal Union of America.

Ladles of the Grand Army.

Garfield circle, No. 11, will meet in reg-ular session Monday night. December 4 The annual election of officers will take place and all members are urged to be present. The meeting will be held in Ba-right hall, corner Nineteenth and Farnam

Woman's Relief Corps.

Woman's Relief Corps. The Women's Relief corps of Omaha and South Omaha will tender a reception to Mra Abble A. Adams, national president of the Woman's Belief corps, and the na-tional secretary. Mrs. Mary R. Morgan, at the Commercial club, Chamber of Com-merce building, Omaha. Thursday evening. December 7, from 8 to 10 oclock. Members of the Grand Army of the Re-public will also participate in the reception to Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Morgan.

Woodmen of the World.

Woodmen of the World. United States camp, No. 229, has started the log rolling by getting a monthly class of ten new members. Initiations will be held every Tuveday night at the hell cor-ner Fourteenth and Dodge streats. A masquerade ball will be given under the auspices, of the drill team of this

Mrs. Putman and daughter, Grace, were guests of Mr, and Mrs. Heydon during the week. Mrs. Hull entertained her cousin, Newton oler of Sloux City during the past week.

Several people of Benson went to Omaha Several people of Benson went to Omana to attend the funeral of Francis Munn last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gravert and daughter, Ella, have returned from their visit in Mis-souri Valley.

Mr. Herman O. Wulff has purchased the William Seevers' property, Mr. Seevers has

The Modern Woodmen camp of Benson will give a ball at the Odd Fellows hall next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Morton Orindulff left last Wednes-day for Kearney, Mo., where she will visit till after the holidays. oned there

Miss Alice Kilker was the winner of the prize at the masquerade ball given by the Royal Achates of Omaha last week.

The Schubert Mannerchor and Eagles chartered a car last Tuesday evening and attended the German fair at Omaha.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows lodge will serve an oyster supper at their next regular meeting, which will be for the members.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Smith entertained this week Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Heyden, Mr. Heyden, sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Lohr of Cordon, Ia., and Mrs. P. H. Jones of Condon Results. of Cedar Rapids.

Louis Ernst, living about five miles west of Benson, was instantly killed last Mon-day by falling from a load of hay. The funeral was held Friday, interment being funeral was field Friday, interment being at Mount Hope cometery. The Eagles gave their first annual ball at their hail last Thursday evening, which was attended by members and their fami-lies. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Supper followed the dance. Those who entertained at Thanksgiving dinners last week were Mr and Mrs. A. M. Totman, Mr. and Mrs. Mortinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Keiland, C. Stiger, Bon Morton, J. E. Frederics, H. C. Barnes, John Wood-rough, J. L. Rewey and Fred Bolster. T. J. Mangis died at Clarkson hospital

T. J. Mangis died at Clarkson hospital of appendicitis. The funeral will be held Sunday atternoon at the Benson Odd Fel-lows hall, the services being in charge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Friends invited. Interment will be at Mount Hope cemetery. Hope cemetery.

Hope cemetery. The Ladies' Ald society met last Wednes-day afternoon. Reports of the bazar snowed si clear prout. The left over arti-cles will be sold at the meetings. Mes-dames Grove, Hull and Jondro and James Peterson received prizes for chrysanthe-mums. The judges were Mr. Rodabaugh and Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Emerson. The lunch will be served in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Leidy.

Florence.

Carl Feld usen was the guest of friends at Calhoun, on Sunday. Charles Mattox of South Omaha visited one day with his wother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Nelson spent Thurs-day in Omaha with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joc Cooper spent Thursday in Council Bluffs visiting friends. Miss Hulda Tucker returned Wednesday from several days visit with friends at Panillon.

Pupiliton

A. Nutting of Omaha was the guest of the family of Mrs. Sarah E. Tracy on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. A. Anderson and daughter, Sophie, spent Saturday night and Sunday with rel-atives at Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson entertained

Captain and Mrs. Bradner D. Slaughter give a dinner to the military on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

and Friday evenings. Mrs. Grace C. Gamble and Mrs. Amella Slaughter Gilmore entertained Saturday evening Captain and Mrs. Henry R. Hatnaway, Captain and Mrs. Theodore B. Hacker, Captain and Mrs. Theodore B. Hacker, Captain and Mrs. Claude B. Sweezey, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. John Lottridge, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stine, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Missee Me-Cune. Jessie McCune, Marie Fechet, Mary Cecil, Alice Fawcett, Agnes Weller, Captain Frank A. Wilcox, Captain Charles Castle. Mr. C. C. Alien, Lawrence Butler, Will McCune, Emmet Morton. Thomas Cham-bers, Will Brown, Emmet C. Morton, Wilt Brown, Tom Chambers.

NEWS FOR THE ARMY.

Leave of absence for fifteen days has been granted Coionel Charles B. Hall, com-manding the Eighteenth infantry at Fort Leavenworth.

Orders have just been issued from head Orders have just been issued from head-quarters, Department of the Missouri, re-mitting the unexpired mentences of the fol-lowing general prisoners: Harry L. Su-man, late private Thirty-mixth company coast artillery, and Eaton Thomas, late private, Troop D. Tenth cavalry.

Captain T. B. Hacker, chief commissary, Department of the Missouri, was at South Omaha Saturday superintending the ship-ment of two cars of cenned roast beef from the packing houses to San Francisco for later shipment to Manila, Philippine islands, for the use of the United States army stu-tioned there.

Mortality Statiatics.

The following births and deaths have been reported to the Board of Health dur-ing the twenty-four hours ending at noon Saturday:

Saturday: Births-Henry Johnson, 4015 North Twenty-fifth, boy; Jap Knapp, 3210 Maple, boy; Jacob Taylor, 1301 Ohio, boy. Deaths-Mary Marley, 4825 Poppleton, 38; Elizabeth Mary Morrow, 3611 Charles, 3 months; Henry Easton, county hospital, 56.

Rich Jewelry-Frenzer, 15th and Dodge.

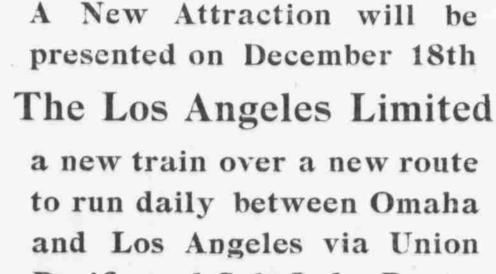

battery at this post, has re-enlisted at Fort Douglas, Utah, for the same organiza-

Trumpeter Oscar G. Robinson, troop D. Trumpeter Oscar G. Robinson, troop D. Ninth cavalry, has been made a corporal. It is probable that Chaplain Oliver C. Miller, Thirteenth cavalry, will be ordered to the seneral hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., soon for treatment. He has been suifering for a long time from neuritis and his con-soon for treatment. He has been suffering for a long time from neuritis and his condition shows no improvement as yet.

Orders have been issued from the head-quarters of the Ninth cavalry nere promoting Corporal Nathan Jones to be sergeant, and Lance Corporal Thomas Smith to be corporal. Both are members of troop L, stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Second Lleutenant E. A. Buchanan. Ninth cavalry, has been relieved as assistant to the commissary. The duties will be performed by Second Lleutenant C. E. Hathaway of the same regiment.
C. S. West, clerk of the school of application, went to Lincoln, Ngb., Wednesday, to spend Thanksgiving with his sister. His family has gone to Omaha to visit relatives.
The post exchange council for the month of December is announced to consist of Captain F. S. Armstrong, Ninth cavalry, and First Lieutenant G. W. Winterburn, Niwth cavalry.

and First Lieutenant G. W. Winterburn, Nivth cavalry. Cook Charles D. Mitchell, Twenty-second battery, Field artillery, has been relieved from extra duty in the subsistence depart-ment as assistant instructor of cooks in the training school for bakers and cooks, and Cook William Hoy of the Seventh battery detailed in his stead. Mrs. Schaffer, wife of Sergeant Major W. H. Schaffer, Artillery corps, who was recently transferred from Fort Leaven-worth to Fort Baker. Cal., is visiting rela-tives near here, where she will remain until the sergeant major gets settled in their new home.

home.

Charles G. Hall, advertising agent of the Northwestern, is in the city in con-sultation with General Manager Bidwell and others. H. I. Cleveland, syndicate writer, accompanied Mr. Hall to Omaha and will make a trip over the western lines of the Northwestern with a view of writing magazine and newspaper avticles.

The four vacant lots at Nineteenth and Corby streets are to be built upon at once. W. R. McFarland has taken out permits to erect two frame dwellings there to cost $2,500 each, and N. B. Sharp has secured a permit to erect one frame dwelling to cost $2,500 and expects in the near future to erect a second dwelling to cost the same.

Building Permits.

TALKING MACHINE HEADQUARTERS 15th and Harney Sts. - Phone 1663. Geo E. Alckel, Mgr.

The Janitor service in The Bee Building is as near perfect as it can be, remembering that janitors are human. Offices from $10 to $45 per month-several desirable ones from which to choose.

new home. Captain John M. Sigworth, paymaster, came in From Kansas City and paid the men of this command yesterday. A polo game played at the athletic park Sunday resulted in a score of 5% to 2% in favor of the Fort Riley team. The visit-ing team was from Junction Citr. Kan Hugh T. Chastain, discharged as a pri-vate from the Eleventh cavalry last sum-mer, has become a member of the firm unknown origin about 11 o'clock and the loss was complete. The Burlington's new time card which affects most of the trains west of the river, will go into effect Sunday. The principal change affecting Omaha travelers is in the morning train for Lincoln, which leaves at 8.18 instead of 8.30, as formerly Charles G. Hall, advertising agent of

Pacific and Salt Lake Route.