Considerable business was transacted by the city council last night, but there was little of interest to the public. As Mayor Koutsky had expressed the desire to be reifered of the responsibility of calling a mass meeting for the consideration of the sewer bond question, the counci elded to hold a meeting at Workman temple on the evening of December 14. Councilman Adkins said that he did not want April 1 to roll around without the city officials taking some steps to present the matter to the taxpayers. It was therefore, decided to hold this meeting on date mentioned and also to get out as many people as possible in order that both sides of the question might be fully

When it came to granting permission to the Young Men's Christian association to construct a frame building inside the fire timite there was considerable discussion. The councilmen all declared that they were willing to help the association as much as possible, but did not like the idea of violating the fire limit ordinance, Mayor Kouteky stated that if permission was given the Young Men's Christian association to erect a frame structure, other property owners or renters in the same locality would want the same permission. He mentioned a couple of cases that had already been called to his attention. Adkins stated that he had also been approached with the suggestion that if the ordinance was violated in one case it could

Mr. Klewit said that it would cost only about $300 to veneer the proposed gymnashtin with brick and suggested that the directors of the association be asked to do this instead of insisting that the fice limit ordinance be set aside in this case. In order to have an opportunity to confer with Socretary Marsh, the matter was postponed indefinitely.

The reserve on the Thirtleth street, the O street and the pavement in the alley between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, from N to O street, amounting to about $4,000, was released. These pavements have been down a year, and the city will now pay to Parks, Johnson & Parks the 10 per cent reserve and $160 interest, the reserve having been invested at I per cent.

General Manager Kenyen of the Union Stock Yards company said last night that when the O street viadact was built an agreement was entered into with the National Packng company for the stock yards to construct an approach in case the building he had not heard a word about the opening of the Hammond plant, but that an approach would be constructed when required.

Teachers' Salaries Not Allowed. Only three members of the Board of Education attended the meeting held last night. Mr. Laverty being absent. In order to bring the matter of teachers' salaries before the board and straighten out the tangle in the teachers' pay rolls, which have been held up for two months, Dr. Schinds, offered the following motion: As the Misses Campbell, Fitsgeraid, Penney and Lorens Johnson have been regularly appointed in compliance with rules of the board. I move that they be allowed the mainries voted the positions, Miss Campbell 198, Miss Fitsgeraid 88, Miss Penney 375 and Miss Johnson 375.

President Morrill seconded the motion.

When the roll was called Morrill and Schindel voted in favor of the motion, but Mr. Rich voted in the negative, and it was last. In the expenditure of money a majority of the hoard must favor a motion.

The result of the turnng down of Dr. Schindel's motion was that the teachers' pay roll for November was not read at all. Other claims, however, were paid. Secretary Rich was directed to advertise for a site for a grade school building. This building is to be erected within these boundaries: Thirteenth street on the east, Twenty-second street on the west, Syndicate park on the north and Missouri avenue on the south. The idea of allowing such a scope of territory is to secure as many proposals as possible, from which the board can make a selection. The resignations of Miss Penney and Miss Halpin were read and accepted. New teachers were named as follows: Eva Murray at $45, Louise Moore $45, Stella Gray $15, Della Borst $70, Cora Rothschild 140 and Ella Malin $70. Miss Patricis Naughton was transferred to the physics department and her salary was fixed at $80 per

In the evening there is to be a literary program. Committees of the Kings' Daughters are visiting the offices and stores, selling tickets for the basar.

Eagles' Election Tonight. This evening the local lodge of Eagles will elect officers to serve for one year. A great deal of interest is being taken in this election, principally un account of the large number of candidates. For worthy president, the candidates are C. Christianson, James Austin and Frank E. Jones. About the same number of candidates are on the ticket for the balance of the offices. The aerie has nearly 70 members in good standing, and it is expected that the voting will occupy several hours.

Run Him Anyway.

in Field club affairs the plot is thicken ng. Ben T. White, the unwilling candidate for president, has returned home and emphatically declares that when he wired his refusal he meant what he said. J. B. Blanchard, the other regularly nominated candidate, states that he is indifferent to the result and the club seems unable to find a member who will accept that office without protest. The friends of the men. however, are not listlessly engaged in the ampaign and Wednesday's vote promises to be close. Mr. White, by persevering in his modesty, may leave his opponent entirely alone in the field. The only alternative left the anti-Blanchard men, the radicals they might be called, would be to elect Mr. White against his will, since his name cannot now be officially withdrawn, and on his resigning leave Mr. E. V. Lewis,

the prospective vice president, in the execu tive chair. Some of Mr. White's supporters are ineliped to consider the actions of the other party as a little more than shrewd. The telegram which was sent that gentleman while in California reached him so late that his reply could not officially scratch his name from the ballot. This, it is said, was intended to embarrass the radicals with a reluctant leader. That purpose has sucpeeded, but their opponents are determined that last year's vice president shall not advance to take the place of Mr. Foster this year. The desire for an interesting election seems to be the principal reason for desiring to defeat that gentleman. The elders of the club are trying their best to smooth the tempers that are being ruffled here and there, and deplore the tempest which darkens the horizon. All are confident that after the election the clouds will scatter and under whoever may be chosen as leader the sun of prosperity will shine again for a season as it did during the

After a short business meeting E. Rosewater made an address on early Nebraska politics. He began with a bundle of information concerning the malfeasance in office of Governor Butler and showed what a high standard of morality the republican party in those days demanded. He made this the basis of an appeal to the club to hold up the high standard of the party, and pointed to the example set by "the man at Washington." The address was interpolated with reminiscences which served to send home the moral truths underlying government by the peo-

Fraction Over Twenty-Three Miles of New Steam Roads and Sixty-Three Miles of Electric Lines Constructed During Year.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, In , Dec. 4 .- (Special.) -- According to the annual report of the State Board of Railroad commissioners flied with the governor today, both the gross and net earnings of the railroads of lows show an increase over that of last year though the high water mark of 1902 is not reached. Only 23.25 miles of new line was built durng the year ending June 30, 1966, and of this 19.00 miles was erected by the Chicago. Anamosa & Northern, a new corporation operating a road from Anamosa to Coggon, and the balance was due to changes and additions in old lines. The total mileage in the state is therefore 9,826.77 and tho gross earnings were $58,436,943.15, While a year ago they were $57,692,095.10. The high water mark was reached in the state in 1901 when the gross carnings were $59,170,-526.34. The operating expenses for the year were $41,854,554.77, a decrease from $42,694,-960.85 of the year before, which was the high water mark in operating expenses. The net earnings increased to $16,482,358,38 and the year before were $14,998,634.25.. The net carnings per mile are $1.677.19, an increase from $1,529.86, the high water mark being in 1880, when the earnings per mile were $2,181.

The number of cars has increased from 281,748 to 288,133; the cars equipped with automatic coupler from 280,589 to 284,548; cars equipped with power or train brake from 237,248 to 246,076; number of employes from 38,508 to 39,578; injuries from coupling cars decreased from 75 to 46; killed coupling cars from 10 to 5; killed falling from cars from 20 to 11; injured falling from trains from 147 to 102

In the line of accidents there is also good showing, the number of accidents to from 12 to 7; to employes from 90 to 74; others from 113 to 109; accidents resulting in injuries to passengers decreased from 201 to 148; to employes from 1.419 to 1,376. and to others increased from 128 to 190.

While the number of employes increased from 38,506 to 39,573, the total paid in compensation for wages was decreased from $25,828,102.20 to $25,177,129.55, and the average dally compensation decreased from $2.10 to $2.08. This is partly accounted for by the claim that during the year there has been a considerable amount of cheap help employed, such as shovelers, in improvements of the roadbed and other property.

During the year ended June 30, 1905, there was erected a total of 63.642 miles of additional electric interurban railways. The new lines are the Cedar Rapids & Iowa City, 27.63 miles, and the lows & Illinois, operating from Davenport to Clinton, 36,812 miles. The report shows that three interlocking devices have been installed during the year by railroads crossing at grade These are at Rockwell City, Iowa Fails and Spencey. There are now but few roads in the state crossing at grade that are not protected with the interlocking devise

LANE WILL SUCCEED FIFER Appointment Changes Political Complexion of Interstate Commerce Commission.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. Senators Perpresident to discuss with him the appointment of a successor to former Governor Fifer of Illinois, on the Interstate Commerce commission. At the conclusion of made that the president would appoint Franklin Lane of San Francisco to the vacancy created by Mr. Pifer's resignation, which takes effect January 1 next. Mr. Lane, whose nomination will be sent to the senate tomorrow, is a democrat and his appointment will change the political complexion of the Interstate Commerce commission from republican to democratic. Former Governor Piter of Illinois, whom Mr. Lane will succeed on the commission is a republican, as also are (imissioners Knapp and Prouty Commissioners Cockrell and Clements are democrats. While Mr. Lane always has been a democrat in politics, he was a supporter of President Roosevelt in the last campaign. In connection with this appointment, it is pointed out that in the event of the enactment of ratiroad rate legislation by the present congress, the Interstate Commerce ommission very likely will be reorganized sells More of Chamberlain's Cough

CUNNINGHAM RECOVERS HAT in Cell, However, for Being Drunk and Creating a Disturbance.

John Cunningham steered his course into the clutches of the law last night. "There yez see," he shouted, presenting a battered semblance of a hat before the eyes of the patrol conductor, "There, see that. That's how Of've been swindled in this bloody town. Phat did Ot do? Well, phat did Ol passengers resulting in deaths decreased do? Of gintly ordered h mess from that spalpeen ov a Louie, ye know. It's Tinth an' Capitol thot's it. Ol paid for me two frish aigs. an' whin Ol'd downed 'em straight 'ee ses, 'Yes 'll pay agin.' 'Agin. sez Ot. 'Agin,' sez be. An' he vanked me brand new bonnet off me head an' tossed me this rag. Does yez see this rag?"

Then the trate son of Ireland threw the hat on the floor. "Ye're goin' ferninst that mess cart an' git me back me hat. That's phat ye'll do. Ye'll 'aye respict for ne whin Ol tell yes me father's house in County Claire, Ireland, was painted both inside an' outside wid mush, an' me mither did die, she did, in Michighan."

Such an appeal was frreshstable to the police officers, and Officer Morrison was sent with Cunningham to Louie's lunch Wagon at Tenth and Capitol avenue. There it was found that Cunningham had refused to pay 10 cents for his "mess o' frish aigs" and Louis had really snatched his hat off and thrown him the old one. He immediately gave back the hat when the officer Cunningham was taken back to the station, where his opening remark was, "Yez seez a sight ov difference between me new bonnet an' that auld rag."

He was charged with being drupk, and locked up, when he immediately stepped on his prison mate, enother Iriehman, and a circus began. For two hours straight County Claire, Ireland, was mixed with phrases which were evidently painted on the outside and the inside with mush.

SLOAN'S CASE TO LEAD OFF Former Commissioner's Trial Probably Will Be First on District Court Docket.

The United States district court docket will be called for triff immediately upon the close of the Connell against the Convent of Mercy case now on trial in the United States circuit court. It was expected the Ware land fencing and conspiracy case would be the first called for trial, but an agreement has been reached whereby the Ware case has been continued to January 2. The first case, therefore, to be called in the district court will be that of the United States against Thomas L. Sloan, indicted for submitting a false claim while occupying the position of United States commissioner. In the event of the Sloan case not being ready for trial the case of the United States against George Phillips and William L. Johnson, charged with cutting timber on Blackbird island. Thurston county, which is considered a part of the Omaha Indian reservation, will be tried. Following these cases the liquor cases for taking liquor onto the Indian reservations will be tried. These cases being disposed of, the land fencing cases will occupy the attention of the court and will be disposed of as rapidly as

Working to Secure Bail, but Up to Last Night Bad Not Succeeded.

Frank W. Lambert has not yet been able to secure the $10,000 bail under which he is beld to answer to the federal courts for conspiracy in the land fraud cases in which

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Judge Sears has granted a decree of di-verce to Harry O. Churchill from Olive Pries, his wife, on the ground of desertion. Mabel Allison is suing John Allison for divorce on the ground of nonsupport. They were married at Denver, Colo., in October 1902. She wishes to resume her maider name of Barksdale.

Is to joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address
