Wool Market.

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—WOOL—Stocks of domestic wool in Boston are very small in a market which is unusually dull. It is estimated that the year will go out with the smallest stocks for several seasons. Foreign wool is in relatively better supply than domestic, though it is said that a good proportion of the wool now in bond at this port is held for manufacturing account. There has been a fair demand for territory wools. Pulled wools are quiet, with a few sales of A supers at $29.50c, and B's at boyesto. or feeders on sale, but there was a world of half-fat stuff. The market did not present any especially new or interesting features. Desirable kinds of cattle brought steady prices, but the feeder buyers did not appear particularly hungry for the warmed-up kinds.

Representative sales: Representative sales: BEEF STEERS.

HOGS-The receipts of hogs this morning run the market opened active and strong to 5c higher. Probably as many as a third of the hogs sold the first round. After about 100 cars had changed hands the trade weakened and the movement from that time until the close was rather slow. The later market might be described as a little easier than the opening and the closing with most of the advance lost.

As will be noted from the sales below good hogs sold up to $4.90, with a considerable proportion of the receipts going at $4.8034.874. Taking everything into consideration the market was really in very satisfactory condition as viewed from a sellers standpoint.
