

PROPERTY OWNERS ON THIRTIETH STREET BLISS IN PAYING SPECIAL TAX

CONTRACTORS PAID BY A Hasty Loan

City Clerk Gillin Advertising for Bids on Supplies of All Kinds to Be Furnished the City Next Year.

The non-payment by property owners of the taxes assessed for the paying of Thirtieth street, from Q street south to Y, is causing the city authorities some little trouble and a few more expenses.

Several weeks ago an item was printed in the Bee to the effect that the Thirtieth street property owners had refused to pay the special paving taxes, alleging that there were several weak points in the ordinance.

A new feature came to light yesterday, when it was the intention to pay to the paving contractors, Parks, Johnson & Parks, $7,467 reserve money.

City Clerk Gillin is advertising for bids for supplies to be furnished the city for the twelve months commencing January 1.

These bids will be opened at a meeting of the council to be held in the city hall, on December 25.

PLANTS INDIANS ON RESERVATIONS AND COMES TO OMAHA TO SPEND WINTER.

Colonel William McCune has returned to his native land after a summer spent with the Buffalo Bill show, in France and is quartered at the Merchants for the winter.

"The Indians were good sailors, although they did not take well to the German cooking on the boat we used," said Colonel McCune.

"The people in the southern part of France are a hard lot in some cases and several times we were called upon to cry 'Hey Rub!' and give them a good drubbing before we could load the show."

To common sense Catholics a calm, dignified exhortation from the reverend bishop to his flock to quietly discontinue such functions as caused the irate utterance would be more just and productive of better results.

There is still another, and a non-Catholic, view of the bishop's side. The parties to the ceremony were both Protestants, presumably acting in accordance with law and their own consciences.
