

LICENSE PROTEST HEARING

Excise Board Declines to Listen to Circulation Testimony.

ONE WORLD-HERALD CASE IS OPENED UP

Elmer Thomas' List is Read and a Start Made by Attorneys Objecting to Hearing a Detective's Story.

In the matter of the World-Herald protests against liquor licenses, the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners last night absolutely refused to go into the question of the circulation of the daily papers.

The protest against W. C. Albach was withdrawn by the World-Herald and he was granted a druggist's permit.

NEW COUNTERFEITS SPOTTED

Both Are of Ten-Dollar Denomination and Bear Marks of Careless Manipulation.

Two new $10 counterfeit treasury notes of the Buffalo series have put in an appearance. The notes have been found by the secret service department of the government to be on the lookout for them.

Second Note—Series of 1901, check letter C, plate numbers undecipherable; photo process of the counterfeit is printed on paper.

Case in Question.

The case under discussion was that of H. C. Harm, 302 Vinton street, whose right to a liquor license was protested by the World-Herald on the ground that he had not advertised in the paper of largest circulation.

Mr. Harm was placed on the stand to testify as to his good faith. He said he believed The Evening Bee to have the largest circulation in the county and, although he had advertised in The Evening Bee last year, he knew of a license granted where advertisement had been made in The Evening Bee and not in the World-Herald.

Civic Federation Protests.

Elmer E. Thomas, on behalf of the Civic Federation, appeared before the board in protest against twenty-nine saloon keepers and brewers, charging them with violation of the St. Louis law.

ECHO OF OLD BANK WRECK

Suit for Twenty Thousand Dollars Damages Grows Out of Tecumseh Failure.

An echo of the Chamberlain bank wreck of Tecumseh several years ago bobbed up in the United States circuit court Wednesday morning in the commencement of a suit for $20,000 damages brought by A. Staples Cody of Johnson county, against Charles H. Dennis and Pierce S. Jones for false arrest and imprisonment.

The petition on which the suit is based on July 2, 1904, he was charged with taking away and concealing a note for $35 and upward (amounting to $2,250) which had been taken or carried away, and that he was further charged with knowing the note had been stolen.

Upon the hearing of the case the plaintiff was honorably acquitted and discharged from custody.

MEDIUM PRICED FUR COATS

MEDIUM priced coats can be made attractive. But care must be exercised in selecting a model for style.

A fitted coat should be avoided, as it isn't fair to expect in a $30 or $40 wool seal, muskrat or astrachan coat the same work that is put in a $400 London-dyed Alaska seal coat.

Gordon & Ferguson recommend astrachan for these coats. Prices for Gordon Astrachan coats from $27 up.
