OBSTACLES AHEAD OF BREEN Objection Raised by Conneilmen te

His Plan of Having a Second Assistant.

"I think it would not be proper for me

City Attorney Breen is going to have a hard time to get the council to create the office of second assistant city attorney, the resolution for such purpose already having passed the council and is now being advertised. It yet has to come before the council for final action. It is understood the majority of the council will not favor the creation of this office, but instead will favor consolidating the office of claim J.
