Chicago-Los Angeles Overland Limited in Service Monday.

WILL CARRY PARTY OF NEWSPAPER MEN

Leading Journals of the East Sending Representatives to View Wonders of the West Along New Railroad.

Today the widely heralded Chicago-Los Angeles Overland Limited train goes into service. It leaves Chicago tonight at 10 o'clock and will arrive in Omaha tomorrow at 11:15, leaving at 11:30 for Los Angeles, which it reaches at 7 p. m. Wednesday.

On its initial trip this train will carry a party of newspaper men from the east and west, accompanied by E. L. Lomas, general passenger agent, and Alfred Darlow, advertising agent of the Union Pacific.

George Ade, humorist, playwright and slang virtuoso, is expected to join the train somewhere in the west. A. C. Thomas, superintendent of the Associated Press at Chicago, with his son, Melville Thomas, and H. W. Brown, of the New York Times, will be on the train.

Equipment is Superb. The equipment of this train will be superb. Electric lighted throughout, composed of cars of the latest design and furnishing, it is characterized in the rather traditional term of a "palace on wheels."

The railroad officials have exerted themselves in the preparation of the schedule of entertainment for their guests on this trip, who will occupy a special car or two. Among some of the features provided for their enjoyment will be a lunch at the famous Glenwood Inn at Riverside, Cal., followed by an automobile drive down the valley through the orange groves, a trip to Mount Lowe and visits to the various places of interest near Los Angeles.

STORM ALONG ATLANTIC COAST

All Shipping in Vicinity of Hampton Roads is Tied Up and Norfolk Is Isolated.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Dec. 16.—Tide Water, Va., is in the grasp of the most severe storm of the winter and shipping around Hampton Roads is practically tied up. This port, Norfolk Harbor and Hampton Roads are crowded with storm-bound craft of every description and but few vessels braved the storm that rages outside of the Virginia capes.

Norfolk is practically isolated tonight as all telegraph wires leading out of Cape Henry and the life saving line along the Virginia coast, are cut off and it is impossible to ascertain the fate of several vessels that were reported to be in distress at Cape Henry today. The tide here tonight is the highest in many years and a number of docks are flooded.

The government wharf at Old Point and Chesapeake bay ports is suspended. It is reported that a part of the Old Point wharf has been carried away.

The Swedish steamer Norman, Captain Anderson, loaded almost to the water's edge with a cargo of coal, put to sea this afternoon for Havana, Cuba, and shipping men here fear its safety when it attempts to pass the treacherous Virginia-Carolina coast. Nothing can be learned of the fate of the barkentine White Wings, which was reported dragging anchor off the Cape Henry life saving station.

It is reported that the oyster vessels in James river have suffered severely from the storm and that a number of them have foundered. Complete reports, however, could not be ascertained tonight.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Dec. 16.—Practically isolated from the outside world, Greensboro has been in the grip of one of the worst storms for the past forty-eight hours it has experienced for years. Telegraph and telephonic connection was cut off for the best part of the day, due to broken wires and falling poles. This damage was temporarily repaired late this afternoon and all wires were in fair working order before midnight. Intestible damage was done to trees and foliage was crushed beneath the weight of ice.

COLLEGE SHOWS GROWTH

Growth of City Has Its Effect Upon Omaha Institutions.

The material growth of Omaha is manifested in many ways, but the Omaha Commercial college indicates that it has also grown in its appreciation of up-to-date business methods. Perhaps it may be more correct to say that one of the reasons that this institution has progressed so phenomenally is that the city has always demanded the best talent and training of its young business men.

This institution was founded some twenty years ago. From a small beginning it has gradually developed into a large and important school. It has just completed and now occupies its own building at the north-east corner of Nineteenth and Farnam streets. The building is one of the finest of its kind in the west, and is not only a monument to the merit and enterprise of its owners, but also an ornament to the city.

HOLDUP MEN VISIT DRUG STORE

John B. Conte and His Clerk Believed of Thirty-Five Dollars in Cash.

John B. Conte's drug store at Thirty-first and Farnam streets was held up last night by three small masked robbers. Thirty-five dollars was taken. This happened at 10 p. m. just as the proprietor was closing for the night. The men came in and forced Conte and his clerk to stand with their backs to the wall and then one of the men went through the pockets of the victims. One of the proprietors got into cash and a number of papers and receipts. Miss Johnson works for the Carpenter Paper company. A pocketbook was found last night by Officer Hudson, but it was not the one lost by Miss Johnson.

ASKS COUNCIL TO EXPLAIN

The Newport-Belvidere Improvement club held a meeting last evening at which the principal business was the discussion of the refusal of the city council to permit the people to vote on the independent telephone franchise. A resolution was passed instructing the secretary to send a communication to the city council asking the

DUEL BETWEEN BROTHERS

William Andrews of Jerseyville, Ill., Killed in Fight Over Division of Estate.

JERSEYVILLE, Ill., Dec. 16.—In a duel fought in their cornfield on a farm twenty miles from here William Andrews was shot and instantly killed by his brother, Joel Andrews. There had been bad blood between the brothers since the death of their father, neither being satisfied with the division of the estate, and for several months, although living in the same house, had not spoken to each other. They met today in a cornfield and after exchanging several heated remarks one drew a revolver and the other produced a shotgun and a fusillade of shots followed.

PRESENTATION TO E. J. CHISSELL

One of the especially pleasant features of the past week was the gathering of 100 friends and subscribers to the Omaha Monarch association in literary exchange at the Omaha Commercial college, in honor of its former president, E. J. Chissell, who with his wife and daughter, returned from Europe, a handsome coffee urn and tray, also a beautiful bronze vase, a book, a monogram and the seal of the association appropriately engraved thereon, were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Chissell as a token of appreciation of their estimable friendship and Mr. Chissell's untiring efforts in behalf of the association. Mrs. Samuel Rees made the presentation.

FOUND WITH STOLEN COAT

Roy Green, a well known character of the Third ward, was arrested last night, it being suspected that he stole a coat belonging to E. W. Slater, New York Life building, yesterday morning. Green had the coat in his possession, which was recognized by Mr. Swanson as the one he had sold to Mr. Slater. Green said he bought the coat of a man by the name of Keys and paid him $1.25. The coat is worth $2. The police think Keys is the man who stole the story straight for they know Keys also. It is possible that Keys is the one who will next have to explain the possession of the coat.

ST. PAUL'S CHORUS TO FLORENCE

On Sunday evening, December 24, the valedictory choir of St. Paul's church will accompany the congregation, or at least a large delegation of it, to Florence, the purpose of the trip is to join with St. Mark's at Florence in the pre-Christmas celebration, for which special music is being prepared by the St. Paul's choir. This visit to the Florence mission is an annual event and is looked forward to with much pleasure each year by the two congregations.

"Dick" O'Keefe Names Committee to Meet with the Council.

CONFERENCE TO BE HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Prospects Seem Good for an Amicable Settlement of Sewer Building Proposition in Favorable Manner.

Richard O'Keefe, as chairman of the mass meeting which was held Thursday night in Workmen temple to discuss the sewer bond proposition has returned to the city and announced the committee he was empowered to name, three from each ward. The committee consists of these:

First Ward—V. B. Cheek, John McMillan, P. J. Sheehy. Second Ward—John Franek, Dr. W. J. McCrann, L. J. Carpenter. Third Ward—John Kennedy, Frank Lee, Pat Barrett.

Fourth Ward—August Miller, Balthas Jetter, Dr. W. J. Paull. Fifth Ward—P. C. Caldwell, J. J. Ryan, Charles Cummings.

Sixth Ward—R. E. Montgomery, Tom Hoctor, David Anderson. This committee will meet with the city council next Tuesday night at its regular meeting to informally discuss the matter. At this meeting a date will be set for a meeting between the members of the council, the committee and the representatives of the stock yards company. Something definite should come from this meeting, and it is probable that another mass meeting will be called in the near future to hear the report of the committee.

The consensus of opinion seems to be that the matter will be adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned, as the opponents of the bonds are less active than they were before the meeting. Good arguments are said to have turned several members of the opposition who were at present on the fence and will probably shortly be in favor of the bonds.

It is not known whether the stock yards company will make a proposition to assist in the building of the sewer, but there are prospects that some sort of a proposition will be made.

SPRINGER IS DEAD

M. Springer, whose home is supposed to be in Council Bluffs, was fatally injured Friday afternoon by falling from a scaffold at the new Cudahy ice house at Seymour lake, and died at the South Omaha hospital Friday night from the injuries he received. Springer was walking along a scaffold about twenty feet from the ground when he lost his balance and fell, striking on his head. He was a large man, weighing about 200 pounds, and did not regain consciousness after his fall. An effort was made to locate his family at Council Bluffs, but to no avail. His body is still at the rooms of Undertaker Brewer, South Omaha. A brother has been located at Seattle, Wash., and some friends who live near Wahoo.

NEW HYDRANTS PLACED

The Omaha Water company has notified City Clerk Gillan that it has completed the location of additional water hydrants at the following named places: Thirty-eighth and Y. Thirty-ninth avenue and P. Fortieth and S. Street 400 feet west of Fortieth, S. Street 800 feet west of Fortieth, and Forty-fourth and S. Streets.

O'NEILL THE SOLE OWNER

Tax Commissioner O'Neill wants it distinctly understood that he is the sole owner of the property proposed as a site for the new city hall. He is not interested in any way with a syndicate, he says, and he would not sell the property for $30,000. Mr. O'Neill also says the sentiment in favor of annexation to Omaha is dead beyond any hope of resurrection.

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE

LAZY LIVER

"I had Constipation so good that I would not be without them. I was troubled a great deal with torpid liver and headache. Now since taking Purgative Candy I feel very much better. I shall certainly recommend them to my friends. It is the best medicine I have ever seen." Ann Butler, Oshawa Mill No. 2, Fall River, Mass.

IT PAYS TO BE HONEST

"Be Good and You'll Be Happy," Said Chanancy Dewey Five Years Ago.

In the New York World of December 13, 1898, Senator Dewey contributed this article.

"Honesty is too much talked about as if it were scarce in these days. The business principles of today are better, purer and more universally honest than they were in the days of my boyhood. Then the motto of life ran something like this: 'All is for love, war and trade.' But this generation has taboos that maxim and business methods were never better or more reputable than they are at this minute.

"Many immense fortunes have been made by men of this generation who employed strictly honest means to attain their ultimate success and great wealth. 'John Wanamaker is a good man to take for example. He started in a small way with a small store, and he is today one of the wealthiest men in the country, and he has been always an upright, honest man. In what lay the secret of his success? Simply in this: He knew what the people wanted, he knew where to buy it and he knew how to advertise.

"Many a man, as we all know, has made a fortune through judicious advertising. 'Some persons might consider that old Commodore Vanderbilt was dishonest because he did not refund the money which the stockholders of the Hudson River and Harlem railroads would have made if they had continued to hold their stock after he took hold of the roads. But he was not. He cheated themselves out of the money by not being farsighted enough to hold on to their stock.

"I have seen many men become wealthy through dishonest methods, and my experience with them has taught me this: That most men who gain wealth dishonestly, if they live long enough, get poor again. It is almost an invariable rule, and it is reasonable enough, if you stop to figure it out, for it comes about in this way:

"A man employs dishonest methods and yet he becomes very wealthy. All his constituents know that his career is just a little bit shady regarding business methods, but he sails serenely along until a crucial moment arrives—a moment such as we had last week—when 'Money! Ready money! Cash at any price!' was the cry of the mad-dogged brokers.

"Then he finds his Waterloo. The credit which he might have obtained, the confidence of reliable, reputable firms which he might have commanded, are not forthcoming. His reputation for shady dealings, his ability to slip out of tight places, his deftness at evading technicalities of ordinary business methods, all cause the firms who would otherwise have come to his assistance to steer clear of such a trickster as he is known to have been—and he goes to the wall.

"The main temptation with which the ordinary business man of today is beset is the temptation to misrepresent his capital or business prospects, and thus obtain greater credit. But doesn't do it. It does not pay. The old, old adage, 'Honesty is the best policy,' is the safest motto for every business man to follow, and I know what I am talking about, too.

"Be good and you'll be happy, but you won't have a good time, you may sound very smart and elicit rounds of applause, but it is a fallacy through and through. It is easier, much easier, for an honest man to become wealthy than for his dishonest brother who may seem to prosper for a time, but mark my words, it is only a temporary success."

THE demand for sensible things for Christmas gifts is on the increase. That is one reason why we are selling so many "Dorothy Dodd" shoes for that purpose. Another reason is found in the beauty of the shoes themselves, and in their obvious appropriateness for Christmas gifts. It gives a woman's foot a different look from those of the crowd. Q And the line affords shoes for every type of feet and for every kind of service. Grant us the favor of showing them.
