

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Monthly Report, as Expected, and Has No Effect.

TRADE OF DRAGGING, HOLIDAY NATURE

Wheat Lower, but Closes Strong— Good Feeling in Corn, with Small Trade—Oats Are Unchanged and Steady.

OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1905.—The government report was about as expected and apparently had no effect on the market. Wheat opened lower and declined through a large part of the forenoon.

Wheat—Receipts, 30,000 bushels; exports, 4,000 bushels; sales 20,000 bushels. Oats—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Corn—Receipts, 40,000 bushels; exports, 5,000 bushels; sales 35,000 bushels. The receipts of corn are heavy, but the market is steady.

Flour—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Butter—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Eggs—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Pork—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Beef—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Lamb—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Bacon—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Ham—Receipts, 10,000 bushels; exports, 1,000 bushels; sales 8,000 bushels.

Various other products and market information.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Money Conditions Ought the Market Into Narrow and Sluggish Channels.

CALL RATE RISES TO FIFTEEN PER CENT

Values Are Lower After a Firm and Active Opening, Union Pacific and Hill Issues Leading the Decline.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Money conditions guided today's stock market into narrow and sluggish channels. Operations were restricted to almost the highest level of the week during the early session.

The market opened firm and active, but soon became narrow and sluggish. Union Pacific and Hill issues led the decline.

Call rate rose to 15 percent. The market was generally lower.

Several issues were active, including Union Pacific and Hill.

The market closed lower than it opened.

Various other market news and financial data.

Financial news and market analysis.

Market trends and price movements.

Summary of market activity.

Final market report and closing prices.

Additional financial news.

Concluding remarks and market outlook.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Light Run of Cattle—Good Steady Trade at Opening.

HOG MARKET IN SATISFACTORY SHAPE

Receipts of Sheep and Lambs Light, with No New Features Developing and Prices on All Kinds Unchanged.

OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1905.—Receipts were light and the market was steady. Cattle and hogs were the main items.

Prices for various types of livestock were reported. The market was generally steady.

Sheep and lamb receipts were also reported. Prices were steady.

Market analysis for the day's trading.

Summary of livestock market activity.

Final report on the live stock market.

Additional market news.

Market trends and price movements.

Summary of market activity.

Final market report and closing prices.

Additional financial news.

Concluding remarks and market outlook.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Light Run of Cattle—Good Steady Trade at Opening.

HOG MARKET IN SATISFACTORY SHAPE

Receipts of Sheep and Lambs Light, with No New Features Developing and Prices on All Kinds Unchanged.

OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1905.—Receipts were light and the market was steady. Cattle and hogs were the main items.

Prices for various types of livestock were reported. The market was generally steady.

Sheep and lamb receipts were also reported. Prices were steady.

Market analysis for the day's trading.

Summary of livestock market activity.

Final report on the live stock market.

Additional market news.

Market trends and price movements.

Summary of market activity.

Final market report and closing prices.

Additional financial news.

Concluding remarks and market outlook.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Light Run of Cattle—Good Steady Trade at Opening.

HOG MARKET IN SATISFACTORY SHAPE

Receipts of Sheep and Lambs Light, with No New Features Developing and Prices on All Kinds Unchanged.

OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1905.—Receipts were light and the market was steady. Cattle and hogs were the main items.

Prices for various types of livestock were reported. The market was generally steady.

Sheep and lamb receipts were also reported. Prices were steady.

Market analysis for the day's trading.

Summary of livestock market activity.

Final report on the live stock market.

Additional market news.

Market trends and price movements.

Summary of market activity.

Final market report and closing prices.

Additional financial news.

Concluding remarks and market outlook.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKET

Condition of Trade and Quotations on Simple and Fancy Produce.

MARKET IN SATISFACTORY SHAPE

Receipts of Sheep and Lambs Light, with No New Features Developing and Prices on All Kinds Unchanged.

OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1905.—The market was in a satisfactory shape. Receipts were steady.

Prices for various types of produce were reported. The market was generally steady.

Market analysis for the day's trading.

Summary of wholesale market activity.

Final report on the wholesale market.

Additional market news.

Market trends and price movements.

Summary of market activity.

Final market report and closing prices.

Additional financial news.

Concluding remarks and market outlook.

Additional market news.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKET

Condition of Trade and Quotations on Simple and Fancy Produce.

MARKET IN SATISFACTORY SHAPE

Receipts of Sheep and Lambs Light, with No New Features Developing and Prices on All Kinds Unchanged.

OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1905.—The market was in a satisfactory shape. Receipts were steady.

Prices for various types of produce were reported. The market was generally steady.

Market analysis for the day's trading.

Summary of wholesale market activity.

Final report on the wholesale market.

Additional market news.

Market trends and price movements.

Summary of market activity.

Final market report and closing prices.

Additional financial news.

Concluding remarks and market outlook.

Additional market news.