

COCKLE BLUFFS

STUBBS STARTS FOR PRISON

Judge Sentences Him to Eighteen Months on Charge of Embezzlement.

FRIENDS TO ASK GOVERNOR FOR PARDON

Prisoner Thanks the Judge for Light Sentence but Court Expresses Belief He Has Been Too Lenient in Matter.

Eighteen months in the penitentiary at Fort Madison was the sentence imposed yesterday morning by Judge Green in district court upon David T. Stubbs, who Wednesday pleaded guilty to embezzling $1,800 from the Citizens' Gas and Electric company, of which he was formerly cashier.

Arrangements had been made earlier in the morning at the request of Stubbs that he be taken at once to Fort Madison, the passing of sentence was disposed of with all possible dispatch and half an hour later Stubbs was on his way to Fort Madison in custody of County Jailor Gallup.

Stubbs, who had served himself for the ordeal, took his sentence without flinching, and when he was taken to the penitentiary for eighteen months had been pronounced by the court he thanked the judge for the light sentence in a voice in which but a slight quiver was noticeable.

Judge Green in referring to the case after sentence had been pronounced said he felt that the penalty was light, if anything, too light, and that an unusual amount of sentiment existed for the imposition of a light sentence not warranted by the facts in the case. It is understood that Stubbs' friends will petition Governor Cummings for a parole or pardon for him.

Several Wives Divorced. Mary G. Tracy began suit for divorce yesterday in the district court from William B. Tracy, to whom she was married February 9, 1888, in Harlan, Ia. She alleges that her husband treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner and that she was forced to leave him about a week ago.

Elizabeth R. Richardson not only wants a divorce from H. E. Richardson, to whom she was married in July, 1902, in whom she, she alleges, abandoned her in August of the year following, but seeks the restoration of her maiden name, Elizabeth Marshall.

George W. Rolph, a painter, who fell from a scaffold while working on the residence of J. W. Squire on May 21 last and was seriously injured, has brought suit against Peter H. Wind, the contractor in charge of the work, for $4,077 damages. The plaintiff alleges that Wind was responsible for a defect in the scaffold.

Arthur is to Go Free. James Arthur, who was convicted of kidnapping the Treynor bank safe on the night of January 8 and sentenced to ten years in the West Madison penitentiary, will be set free. The clerk of the district court received yesterday the proceedings from the supreme court giving Arthur a new trial. The supreme court in sending the case back for a new trial held that the evidence was insufficient to convict and that Attorney Hess stated yesterday that inasmuch as the state would be unable to offer any evidence except that introduced at the trial he would move to dismiss the case. It is expected that Jailor Gallup, who took Arthur to the penitentiary, will bring Arthur back with him.

Arthur and John Bernstein were jointly indicted for the blowing of the Treynor bank safe. Bernstein pleaded guilty and was sentenced to ten years, but Arthur claimed he had nothing to do with the safe blowing. Arthur was arrested in company with Bernstein the morning following the attempt to rob the bank. Arthur is believed to be an assumed name.

DEATH RECORD

HEATRICE, Neb. Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Henry C. Jaynes, an old resident of Gage county, died at his home in this city yesterday morning, aged 78 years. Mr. Jaynes was a native of New York state and located in this county in 1878, being one of the first settlers of the town of Wynora, where he resided until about two years ago, when he removed to Beatrice. He is survived by a widow and seven children. H. C. Jaynes of Omaha being one of the number. Mr. Jaynes was a member of the Independent order of Odd Fellows, which order had charge of the funeral services from the family home today at 2 o'clock.

L. H. Cowger. L. H. Cowger, aged 66 years, died at his home in Washington, Ia., Wednesday evening of paralysis. The deceased has been for thirty or more years connected with the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway and was at the time of his death foreman in charge of the machine shop at the company's Washington, Ia. He was the father of three sons, residents of Omaha—William F. Cowger, formerly assistant custodian of the federal building, and Brady T. and John L. Cowger, members of the Omaha fire department. The three sons will leave for Washington, Ia., Thursday evening to attend the funeral.

Walter A. Florer. DR. H. W. Florer, Dec. 21.—Walter A. Florer of Gray River, Okla., well known as a trader among the Osage Indians, died here at midnight from tuberculosis of the brain. Mr. Florer's extreme age was about a year ago. He was a son of Colonel John M. Florer, one of the pioneers of Oklahoma, and a trusted friend of the Osages, among whom he has lived since the close of the war. Walter A. Florer was born and raised among the Indians. The remains will be taken to Lawrence, Kan., for burial.

Eleanor Porter. Eleanor Porter, the 3-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Porter, 1512 South Twenty-ninth street, died at the home of her parents Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Yamaguchi in Council. TOKIO, Dec. 21.—Field Marshal Yamaguchi has been appointed to the privy council. Admiral Togo, now president of the general staff of the navy, in his farewell address to the officers and men of the combined Japanese fleet, which was dissolved yesterday, warned them to be constant readiness for emergencies. He concluded with the words: "Victors, tie your helmet strings tighter."

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

- (a) Gavotte, Brunnner,.....Hoch-St. Reans (b) Nocturne, op. 17.....Branche (c) Laide Preite.....Joseph Gahn (d) Dedication.....Schumann-Liszt (e) Bol Raggio Sembrando.....Rossini (f) "Ave Maria".....Schubert-Wilhelmy (g) Capriccio.....Paganini (h) "My Love Will Come Today".....DeKoven (i) "Good Day, Marie".....E. Pasard (j) "Molly's Eyes".....H. W. Parker (k) "To Antioch".....Hutton

A very good-sized audience was out last night to greet the old time favorite of Omaha, Mr. Hans Albert, who, with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gahn, Mrs. Clara and Fred Ellis, gave a very delightful concert at the Boyd theater. Mr. Albert was in a most excellent and mellow mood and played with that sympathy for which he has always been noted. In response to the applause of a most delighted audience he gave an encore a very touching arrangement of "Clara Polka."

Of Mr. Gahn too much need be said as his concert has been pronounced said he felt that the pianist was in a way to please the fancy and arouse the sympathy of the children and to gratify the love of animals which is so strong in childish hearts. Mr. L. J. Bridgman's drawings accord capitally with the verses, bringing into special prominence the element of fun, which is so characteristic of the work in Miss Paulson's other books. The book is published by the Lothrop Publishing company.

This was Mrs. Gahn's first appearance as a professional and most nobly did she assert herself, playing her beautifully toned and picturesque harp with charming ease of manner and delicacy of touch, showing the result of the hard work she has been doing under the instruction of Signor Enrico Trammont. The "Welch Melody" was very much enjoyed. Her friends remembered her in that best of ways, by deluging her with flowers.

Mrs. Kate Norcross Gale is a new addition to the ranks of Omaha's sopranos. She possesses a mezzo voice of very good range, which was at its best in the song of Pasard's "Good Day, Marie." As an encore she sang in a very delightful manner "Love is a Bubble."

A much felt need in Omaha of a fine basso-baritone has been supplied by Mr. Ellis, who has one of those absolutely true voices, which nothing can shake from the pitch, having besides a tender and sympathetic quality, which, in addition to his thoroughly artistic manner of singing, makes his appearance as a soloist a delight to his audience. His rendition of "Oedipe a Colone" was very dramatic, and in the ballads he sang to equal advantage.

Taken as a whole the concert was up to a high mark of professional work, only perhaps a few minor details being in need of own city that we have but too seldom heard.

NEW SENATOR TAKES HIS SEAT

John M. Gearin of Oregon Sworn After Discussion of Form of Certificate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—John M. Gearin, the newly appointed senator from Oregon, took his seat in the senate chamber today when the session convened. His credentials were presented by his colleague, Mr. Fulton, but before he took the oath of office Mr. Burrows, chairman of the committee on elections, interposed an objection, saying that the certificate of election was defective in that it was provided that Mr. Gearin shall serve "until his successor is elected." He said that the governor had no constitutional right to place such a restriction upon his appointment. He, however, withdrew the objection after Mr. Spooner had said he would not insist on the certificate if it was not without precedent. Mr. Spooner agreed that the words objected to were surplusage, but pointed out that they do not invalidate the appointment, which, he said, was regular in other respects.

Mr. Gearin was then escorted by Mr. Fulton to the vice president's desk, where the oath of office was administered. Mr. Gearin took a seat on the democratic side of the chamber. He is the first democrat to occupy a seat in the senate from Oregon since 1867, when Mr. Slater retired from that body.

The bill extending for one year the time allowed the Council City and Solomon River railroad of Alaska for the completion of its line was passed. At 12:30 p. m. the senate went into executive session at 1:10 p. m. adjourned to January 4, 1906.

With adjournment for the holidays on today's program, only a few members were in their places when the house met. Nothing of moment was attempted and the independent order of Odd Fellows, which order had charge of the funeral services from the family home today at 2 o'clock.

FORMAL DINNER AT WHITE HOUSE

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Entertain Cabinet Members and Wives. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The president and Mrs. Roosevelt gave their first formal dinner to members of the cabinet and their wives and a few invited guests at 8 o'clock this evening. The dinner was in the state dining room. Following were the guests: Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks, Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan, Secretary of War and Mrs. Taft, Attorney General and Mrs. Clegg, Postmaster General and Mrs. Corbin, Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Bonar, Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Wilson, Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Roosevelt, Elliot Gregory and Lieutenant Sheridan.

SHORT SESSION OF THE HOUSE

Leave Given to Print Cotton Speeches and Adjournment Taken. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—There was a ten-minute session of the house today, when the holiday adjournment until January 4 was taken. Two speeches, one attacking and the other defending the cotton crop estimates of the government, were to have been made, but permission was granted to print these speeches in the Record. Mr. Payne announced that "Our oratory seems to have been exhausted," and without extending further invitation to any member for a speech the adjournment was declared by the speaker.

COMMITTEES BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: Register of the Land Office at Lawton, Okla.—H. W. Maxwell of Missouri. Receiver of Public Money at Lawton, Okla.—A. W. Maxwell of Missouri. United States Marshal at Lawton, Okla.—L. A. Lamb, central district of Indian Territory.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Suit Against Street Railway Company to Enforce its Ordinance. TRANSFER SYSTEM BASIS OF THE ACTION.

Charles M. Tracy Lodges Complaint with City Attorney and Action Will Be Had to Test the Law at Once.

Charles M. Tracy, a carpenter living at 741 North Twelfth street, filed a deposition in the city attorney's office, when the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company will be sued under the ordinance passed in South Omaha on July 2, 1905. The object of the case is to test the validity of the ordinance, and if possible compel the street railway company to issue transfers to the city at once. Mr. Tracy is an interested party, since he has to pay double fare from his home to all points on Twenty-fourth street and the reverse order, and a double fare to the Missouri avenue and a double fare to the city center. Many complaints have been made to the street railway company, all of which have been ignored. Not only this, but the company has never given the slightest heed to the ordinance passed last July. Mr. Tracy has collected evidence which will make his case good, provided the ordinance is valid. The city attorney will have charge of the case. The present South Omaha ordinance was copied from the Chicago ordinance, which have been carried to the supreme court of Illinois and proven valid. The second section of the ordinance provides a penalty of from $50 to $200 for each person who violates the ordinance as prescribed in the first section.

Maher and Ford Held for Trial. The defendants to the charges of robbery, James P. Maher and Michael Ford, appeared for trial at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and both waived preliminary examination. They were held in the district court. It is expected they will have their trial in January. The bonds were fixed at $500 in each of the three charges filed against them. The case of Ford and J. Morrison, charged with having robbed the Rybin saloon at Albright, was brought to trial this afternoon. John Rybin and a boy named Johnson testified against the defendants, and the evidence produced was sufficient to have the men bound over to the district court. Morrison was placed under $1,000 bond and Ford under $500. The difference was because of other indictments standing against him, making a total bond for Ford of $2,000.

Other Buyers Want the Bonds. A flood of letters poured into the city clerk's office yesterday from eastern purchasers of South Omaha securities. They are asking for information with regard to the sale of the city hall bonds to Spitzer & Co. last Monday. The city clerk was enlightened as to the nature of the transaction. The clerk answered in all cases that the sale was made to Spitzer & Co. in accordance with the old bid. Spitzer & Co. were third in the matter of the sale of the bonds. The other two companies failed to bid and the other two bid the bonds were contracted to Spitzer & Co.

Northwestern Pays Taxes. A representative of the Northwestern railroad paid the taxes of that company into the city treasury yesterday afternoon. The amount was $27,335. It was paid without protest.

Wife-Better Fined. The case of Addie Lawer against her husband, Frank Lawer, was called again yesterday morning and the evidence for the wife was taken. The man failed to prove that he was innocent of the brutal assault upon his wife and was fined $15 and costs by Judge King.

Held for Grand Larceny. Ed Demmitt and Lovie Terry, 121 North Twenty-sixth street, who were arrested Wednesday night on the charge of valeting of Tom Mintz of the same address, were held yesterday on the complaint of Tom Mintz. The man was arrested Wednesday night and stole $20 in cash, three suits of clothes, his watch and other jewelry. The estimated cost of the articles taken was $15. The pair will have to face the charge of grand larceny.

Program at High School. An excellent program was rendered by the students of the high school yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the formal presentation of a number of fine pictures and engravings and two companion busts of Venus and Apollo to the school by the city department. The efforts of the young people were highly appreciated by the trustees. Outside of the high school the violin solo by Miss Edna Rudersdorf, accompanied by her sister, was highly appreciated. The two young women are alumnae of the school and are now in the Omaha gymnasium. Mrs. S. R. Towne of Omaha gave a talk on the subject of art, and one of her students read that the American school should be dated from the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia, in 1876. Since that time it has become a positive and distinct school with a character all its own.

Plans for Poultry Show. C. H. Grundy, superintendent of the Tri-City Poultry association, makes the announcement that the people of South Omaha are to be treated to the finest exhibition of up-to-date poultry that has yet been presented, during the time from January 2 to 10. This exhibit will be in the Ancient Order United Workmen temple, No. 1099 birds will be entered, not numbered cards and a few dogs, warranted not to bark. Judge Thompson of Anity, Mo., a noted judge of good birds, will direct the awards. Many towns besides Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs will be represented by exhibitors. Various prizes have been offered by the various poultry clubs. There will be plenty of music around the temple. H. B. Fidelity says he would not be surprised if some of the game cocks broke loose during the exhibit. On the evening of January 4 a great banquet will be served as a fitting close of the entertainment. It is not supposed, however, that the guests will eat all the birds.

Why McPherson Resigned. It is stated that the reason of T. B. McPherson's retiring as cashier of the Union Stock and Land bank is the increase of his personal affairs. He is interested in cattle, coal, land, mines and other investments to such an extent that these take much of his time. His work in the bank has given the highest satisfaction to the management and under his control the capitalization has increased from $100,000 to $200,000, with a surplus of $60,000. No successor has been suggested as yet. His successor will not be named until January 10.

Mrs. Mallander Dead. Mrs. Caroline Mallander died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha. She was one of the pioneers of the city and the mother of Joseph and Harry Mills, also of Mrs. August Williams, who is being chief of the fire department of Armour & Co., and Mrs. Anton Baumester. These children were with her when she died. There are three other sons, who will be here to attend the funeral, which will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's hospital.

ELBOURN MAY PAY COSTS

City Clerk Will Be Sued if He Loses Union Label Suit.

AT LEAST THAT IS WHAT BREEN SAYS. Letter Wrote Out Opinion on the Matter and Elbourn Then Said Go to With Your Opinions.

And it may come to pass in these strenuous Elbourn-Breen cases that the city clerk loses the mandamus suit brought against him to prevent him including the provision that all city printing must bear the union label in his advertisement for bids. He will have to pay the cost of the suit. Attorney Breen expressed such an opinion. The battle royal now going on between the two has had a very depressing effect on the entire city hall and an effort will be made to settle the differences between the two before the glorious Christmas, so that the realized maxim of peace on earth may be realized. But in the meantime Mr. Elbourn has a say coming. He heard Thursday morning that Mr. Breen intended to write him a letter of a scorching nature (which Breen denied) and that gave him the inspiration to explain: "I understand Breen has fixed me up a couple of opinions on the label business. Well, when I saw anything from Breen in the way of an opinion I will ask for it. I have run this office during the incumbency of three different city attorneys and I have had to sit down on every one of them. As I understand a private citizen, I might say that resolution is of no effect, but as William Elbourn, city clerk, it is not my province to hold a resolution passed by the council an act and I don't intend to do it."

Opinion is Ready. "Mr. Elbourn's opinion is on the desk in there and he can get it when he comes after it," said City Attorney Breen. "He talked over the matter with Mr. Herdman and said he would follow the advice of the department if we would give him a written opinion. When Mr. Mahoney came into court to get his restraining order I told him what Elbourn had said and he agreed to wait until I had seen Elbourn again."

Failed to connect with Elbourn and Mr. Mahoney filed his suit. Mahoney told me he had waited, and as I failed to call him up he called up Elbourn and talked with him. Elbourn, he said, told him he had cars two weeks ago or more. It is said that some of the car men were able to get the cars out of the city. W. J. C. Kenyon and a number of prominent men of the stock exchange went to Chicago to attend the meeting of the fat stock show now in progress in that city. A much larger number than this would have been present had it not been for so large a delegation in the fact that a similar show is to be held in South Omaha next week. They expect to get pointers for the event here.

NOT OPINION SHE WANTED. Man Who Holds Anti-Woman's Rights Views Gets Too Close to Home.

She is very modest and retiring, though holding a public office, and though interested in charity to a certain extent, she shuns publicity. Over her vigorous protests, her name had been mentioned in a paper in connection with her charity work. She was a South Omaha car bound into the city by the city treasurer yesterday afternoon. The amount was $27,335. It was paid without protest.

Wife-Better Fined. The case of Addie Lawer against her husband, Frank Lawer, was called again yesterday morning and the evidence for the wife was taken. The man failed to prove that he was innocent of the brutal assault upon his wife and was fined $15 and costs by Judge King.

Held for Grand Larceny. Ed Demmitt and Lovie Terry, 121 North Twenty-sixth street, who were arrested Wednesday night on the charge of valeting of Tom Mintz of the same address, were held yesterday on the complaint of Tom Mintz. The man was arrested Wednesday night and stole $20 in cash, three suits of clothes, his watch and other jewelry. The estimated cost of the articles taken was $15. The pair will have to face the charge of grand larceny.

Program at High School. An excellent program was rendered by the students of the high school yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the formal presentation of a number of fine pictures and engravings and two companion busts of Venus and Apollo to the school by the city department. The efforts of the young people were highly appreciated by the trustees. Outside of the high school the violin solo by Miss Edna Rudersdorf, accompanied by her sister, was highly appreciated. The two young women are alumnae of the school and are now in the Omaha gymnasium. Mrs. S. R. Towne of Omaha gave a talk on the subject of art, and one of her students read that the American school should be dated from the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia, in 1876. Since that time it has become a positive and distinct school with a character all its own.

Plans for Poultry Show. C. H. Grundy, superintendent of the Tri-City Poultry association, makes the announcement that the people of South Omaha are to be treated to the finest exhibition of up-to-date poultry that has yet been presented, during the time from January 2 to 10. This exhibit will be in the Ancient Order United Workmen temple, No. 1099 birds will be entered, not numbered cards and a few dogs, warranted not to bark. Judge Thompson of Anity, Mo., a noted judge of good birds, will direct the awards. Many towns besides Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs will be represented by exhibitors. Various prizes have been offered by the various poultry clubs. There will be plenty of music around the temple. H. B. Fidelity says he would not be surprised if some of the game cocks broke loose during the exhibit. On the evening of January 4 a great banquet will be served as a fitting close of the entertainment. It is not supposed, however, that the guests will eat all the birds.

Why McPherson Resigned. It is stated that the reason of T. B. McPherson's retiring as cashier of the Union Stock and Land bank is the increase of his personal affairs. He is interested in cattle, coal, land, mines and other investments to such an extent that these take much of his time. His work in the bank has given the highest satisfaction to the management and under his control the capitalization has increased from $100,000 to $200,000, with a surplus of $60,000. No successor has been suggested as yet. His successor will not be named until January 10.

Mrs. Mallander Dead. Mrs. Caroline Mallander died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha. She was one of the pioneers of the city and the mother of Joseph and Harry Mills, also of Mrs. August Williams, who is being chief of the fire department of Armour & Co., and Mrs. Anton Baumester. These children were with her when she died. There are three other sons, who will be here to attend the funeral, which will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's hospital.

ELBOURN MAY PAY COSTS

City Clerk Will Be Sued if He Loses Union Label Suit.

AT LEAST THAT IS WHAT BREEN SAYS. Letter Wrote Out Opinion on the Matter and Elbourn Then Said Go to With Your Opinions.

And it may come to pass in these strenuous Elbourn-Breen cases that the city clerk loses the mandamus suit brought against him to prevent him including the provision that all city printing must bear the union label in his advertisement for bids. He will have to pay the cost of the suit. Attorney Breen expressed such an opinion. The battle royal now going on between the two has had a very depressing effect on the entire city hall and an effort will be made to settle the differences between the two before the glorious Christmas, so that the realized maxim of peace on earth may be realized. But in the meantime Mr. Elbourn has a say coming. He heard Thursday morning that Mr. Breen intended to write him a letter of a scorching nature (which Breen denied) and that gave him the inspiration to explain: "I understand Breen has fixed me up a couple of opinions on the label business. Well, when I saw anything from Breen in the way of an opinion I will ask for it. I have run this office during the incumbency of three different city attorneys and I have had to sit down on every one of them. As I understand a private citizen, I might say that resolution is of no effect, but as William Elbourn, city clerk, it is not my province to hold a resolution passed by the council an act and I don't intend to do it."

Opinion is Ready. "Mr. Elbourn's opinion is on the desk in there and he can get it when he comes after it," said City Attorney Breen. "He talked over the matter with Mr. Herdman and said he would follow the advice of the department if we would give him a written opinion. When Mr. Mahoney came into court to get his restraining order I told him what Elbourn had said and he agreed to wait until I had seen Elbourn again."

Failed to connect with Elbourn and Mr. Mahoney filed his suit. Mahoney told me he had waited, and as I failed to call him up he called up Elbourn and talked with him. Elbourn, he said, told him he had cars two weeks ago or more. It is said that some of the car men were able to get the cars out of the city. W. J. C. Kenyon and a number of prominent men of the stock exchange went to Chicago to attend the meeting of the fat stock show now in progress in that city. A much larger number than this would have been present had it not been for so large a delegation in the fact that a similar show is to be held in South Omaha next week. They expect to get pointers for the event here.

NOT OPINION SHE WANTED. Man Who Holds Anti-Woman's Rights Views Gets Too Close to Home.

She is very modest and retiring, though holding a public office, and though interested in charity to a certain extent, she shuns publicity. Over her vigorous protests, her name had been mentioned in a paper in connection with her charity work. She was a South Omaha car bound into the city by the city treasurer yesterday afternoon. The amount was $27,335. It was paid without protest.

Wife-Better Fined. The case of Addie Lawer against her husband, Frank Lawer, was called again yesterday morning and the evidence for the wife was taken. The man failed to prove that he was innocent of the brutal assault upon his wife and was fined $15 and costs by Judge King.

Held for Grand Larceny. Ed Demmitt and Lovie Terry, 121 North Twenty-sixth street, who were arrested Wednesday night on the charge of valeting of Tom Mintz of the same address, were held yesterday on the complaint of Tom Mintz. The man was arrested Wednesday night and stole $20 in cash, three suits of clothes, his watch and other jewelry. The estimated cost of the articles taken was $15. The pair will have to face the charge of grand larceny.

Program at High School. An excellent program was rendered by the students of the high school yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the formal presentation of a number of fine pictures and engravings and two companion busts of Venus and Apollo to the school by the city department. The efforts of the young people were highly appreciated by the trustees. Outside of the high school the violin solo by Miss Edna Rudersdorf, accompanied by her sister, was highly appreciated. The two young women are alumnae of the school and are now in the Omaha gymnasium. Mrs. S. R. Towne of Omaha gave a talk on the subject of art, and one of her students read that the American school should be dated from the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia, in 1876. Since that time it has become a positive and distinct school with a character all its own.

Plans for Poultry Show. C. H. Grundy, superintendent of the Tri-City Poultry association, makes the announcement that the people of South Omaha are to be treated to the finest exhibition of up-to-date poultry that has yet been presented, during the time from January 2 to 10. This exhibit will be in the Ancient Order United Workmen temple, No. 1099 birds will be entered, not numbered cards and a few dogs, warranted not to bark. Judge Thompson of Anity, Mo., a noted judge of good birds, will direct the awards. Many towns besides Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs will be represented by exhibitors. Various prizes have been offered by the various poultry clubs. There will be plenty of music around the temple. H. B. Fidelity says he would not be surprised if some of the game cocks broke loose during the exhibit. On the evening of January 4 a great banquet will be served as a fitting close of the entertainment. It is not supposed, however, that the guests will eat all the birds.

Why McPherson Resigned. It is stated that the reason of T. B. McPherson's retiring as cashier of the Union Stock and Land bank is the increase of his personal affairs. He is interested in cattle, coal, land, mines and other investments to such an extent that these take much of his time. His work in the bank has given the highest satisfaction to the management and under his control the capitalization has increased from $100,000 to $200,000, with a surplus of $60,000. No successor has been suggested as yet. His successor will not be named until January 10.

Mrs. Mallander Dead. Mrs. Caroline Mallander died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha. She was one of the pioneers of the city and the mother of Joseph and Harry Mills, also of Mrs. August Williams, who is being chief of the fire department of Armour & Co., and Mrs. Anton Baumester. These children were with her when she died. There are three other sons, who will be here to attend the funeral, which will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's hospital.

ELBOURN MAY PAY COSTS

City Clerk Will Be Sued if He Loses Union Label Suit.

AT LEAST THAT IS WHAT BREEN SAYS. Letter Wrote Out Opinion on the Matter and Elbourn Then Said Go to With Your Opinions.

And it may come to pass in these strenuous Elbourn-Breen cases that the city clerk loses the mandamus suit brought against him to prevent him including the provision that all city printing must bear the union label in his advertisement for bids. He will have to pay the cost of the suit. Attorney Breen expressed such an opinion. The battle royal now going on between the two has had a very depressing effect on the entire city hall and an effort will be made to settle the differences between the two before the glorious Christmas, so that the realized maxim of peace on earth may be realized. But in the meantime Mr. Elbourn has a say coming. He heard Thursday morning that Mr. Breen intended to write him a letter of a scorching nature (which Breen denied) and that gave him the inspiration to explain: "I understand Breen has fixed me up a couple of opinions on the label business. Well, when I saw anything from Breen in the way of an opinion I will ask for it. I have run this office during the incumbency of three different city attorneys and I have had to sit down on every one of them. As I understand a private citizen, I might say that resolution is of no effect, but as William Elbourn, city clerk, it is not my province to hold a resolution passed by the council an act and I don't intend to do it."

Opinion is Ready. "Mr. Elbourn's opinion is on the desk in there and he can get it when he comes after it," said City Attorney Breen. "He talked over the matter with Mr. Herdman and said he would follow the advice of the department if we would give him a written opinion. When Mr. Mahoney came into court to get his restraining order I told him what Elbourn had said and he agreed to wait until I had seen Elbourn again."

Failed to connect with Elbourn and Mr. Mahoney filed his suit. Mahoney told me he had waited, and as I failed to call him up he called up Elbourn and talked with him. Elbourn, he said, told him he had cars two weeks ago or more. It is said that some of the car men were able to get the cars out of the city. W. J. C. Kenyon and a number of prominent men of the stock exchange went to Chicago to attend the meeting of the fat stock show now in progress in that city. A much larger number than this would have been present had it not been for so large a delegation in the fact that a similar show is to be held in South Omaha next week. They expect to get pointers for the event here.

NOT OPINION SHE WANTED. Man Who Holds Anti-Woman's Rights Views Gets Too Close to Home.

She is very modest and retiring, though holding a public office, and though interested in charity to a certain extent, she shuns publicity. Over her vigorous protests, her name had been mentioned in a paper in connection with her charity work. She was a South Omaha car bound into the city by the city treasurer yesterday afternoon. The amount was $27,335. It was paid without protest.

Wife-Better Fined. The case of Addie Lawer against her husband, Frank Lawer, was called again yesterday morning and the evidence for the wife was taken. The man failed to prove that he was innocent of the brutal assault upon his wife and was fined $15 and costs by Judge King.

Held for Grand Larceny. Ed Demmitt and Lovie Terry, 121 North Twenty-sixth street, who were arrested Wednesday night on the charge of valeting of Tom Mintz of the same address, were held yesterday on the complaint of Tom Mintz. The man was arrested Wednesday night and stole $20 in cash, three suits of clothes, his watch and other jewelry. The estimated cost of the articles taken was $15. The pair will have to face the charge of grand larceny.

Program at High School. An excellent program was rendered by the students of the high school yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the formal presentation of a number of fine pictures and engravings and two companion busts of Venus and Apollo to the school by the city department. The efforts of the young people were highly appreciated by the trustees. Outside of the high school the violin solo by Miss Edna Rudersdorf, accompanied by her sister, was highly appreciated. The two young women are alumnae of the school and are now in the Omaha gymnasium. Mrs. S. R. Towne of Omaha gave a talk on the subject of art, and one of her students read that the American school should be dated from the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia, in 1876. Since that time it has become a positive and distinct school with a character all its own.

Plans for Poultry Show. C. H. Grundy, superintendent of the Tri-City Poultry association, makes the announcement that the people of South Omaha are to be treated to the finest exhibition of up-to-date poultry that has yet been presented, during the time from January 2 to 10. This exhibit will be in the Ancient Order United Workmen temple, No. 1099 birds will be entered, not numbered cards and a few dogs, warranted not to bark. Judge Thompson of Anity, Mo., a noted judge of good birds, will direct the awards. Many towns besides Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs will be represented by exhibitors. Various prizes have been offered by the various poultry clubs. There will be plenty of music around the temple. H. B. Fidelity says he would not be surprised if some of the game cocks broke loose during the exhibit. On the evening of January 4 a great banquet will be served as a fitting close of the entertainment. It is not supposed, however, that the guests will eat all the birds.

Why McPherson Resigned. It is stated that the reason of T. B. McPherson's retiring as cashier of the Union Stock and Land bank is the increase of his personal affairs. He is interested in cattle, coal, land, mines and other investments to such an extent that these take much of his time. His work in the bank has given the highest satisfaction to the management and under his control the capitalization has increased from $100,000 to $200,000, with a surplus of $60,000. No successor has been suggested as yet. His successor will not be named until January 10.

Mrs. Mallander Dead. Mrs. Caroline Mallander died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha. She was one of the pioneers of the city and the mother of Joseph and Harry Mills, also of Mrs. August Williams, who is being chief of the fire department of Armour & Co., and Mrs. Anton Baumester. These children were with her when she died. There are three other sons, who will be here to attend the funeral, which will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's hospital.

AT THE PLAY HOUSES

"Nancy Brown" at the Krug. Laughing, dancing, singing, sparkling, "Nancy Brown" tripped across the stage at the Krug theater last night, and made good. What if we do not know any of the people whose names are listed on the bill as the principals? We surely know when we are pleased by the work of the folks on the stage, and that bunch must have pleased us or we wouldn't have laughed as we did, and clapped our hands and otherwise have encouraged them to greater exertions. It isn't the biggest company ever seen at the theater, nor the best, but it is a good organization, is imbued with snap and energy, and gets the ginger into the action of the piece. Everything comes quick, as it should with a piece of the sort, and it nearly all comes right, so that the very best effect is achieved. Some new stunts in the way of chorus formations and fancy dances are given, and the work is especially wonderful, but all pleasing in the highest degree.

Mary Marble, who is heading the company, doesn't look it, but demonstrates that she is the possessor of a wholesome and good conception of what fun is, and about her work she has a pleasing, both in conversation and song,