LONDON, Dec. 27.—The money market was active today, partly due to tenders for $9.000,000 of treasury bills. Money is likely to be much wanted for the remainder of the week in connection with stock exchange and year-end demands, but the pressure, it is anticipated, will be less than hitherto. Discounts hardened. was limited and rates closed easier on the monetary situation. Consols hardened and closed below the best prices of the day. Home rails generally were firm. Americans were fairly active at an appreciable advance over parity, being stimulated by the operations in Wall street. Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific and United States Steel were the features. Stocks closed weak. Copper shares were buoyant, led by Anacondas, which fluctuated in the vicinity of parity. Grand Trunk was strong on the traffic increase. Foreigners railied on more hopeful Russian news. This was especially the case with imperial is. Japanese imperial is of 1904 were quoted at 102.

PARIS. Dec. 27.—On the Bourse today, after some hesitation, prices steadled and advanced, owing to the confidence that the energetic repressive measures of the Russian government will eventually result in restoring order. The advances from the St. Petersburg Bourse was very encouraging and Russians and some industrials advanced notably, owing to the restoring payment of dividends. At the close prices were firm. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 80.60 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 480.

HERLIN, Dec. 27.—On the Bourse today prices in all departments were higher, particularly Russians. Imperial 4s went up 154 and Russian bank shares rose 454 points.

attle on the market again today, eighty-ive head, about 2,200 head, being reported n. Although the receipts were small last in. Although the receipts were small last week they were considerable larger last Wednesday than today. On the other hand, however, the run for the same day last year was less than half the size of today's run. It is not expected that there will be any large receipts during the rest of the week. Trains were late in arriving, so that it was rather late before a part of the cattle
