What Sewer Committee Hopes to Accomplish for the City.

STOCK YARDS TO BE ASKED FOR A REFUND

Also Aspects to Ask Company to Bear Half the Expense of Constructing a New Tunnel Large Enough for Purpose.

Richard O'Keefe and W. B. Chesebrough, respectively chosen president and secretary of the Citizens' Sewer company at the meeting of that body Tuesday night...

First, we want the Stock Yards company to refund to the city the amount named in the original contract...

Second, we want them to agree to bear one-half the expense of constructing a new and commodious sewer tunnel to be used both by the city and the Stock Yards company.

Third, we want the company to give to the city that portion of its tunnel which lies between I and Q streets...

Fourth, we want the company to give to the city that portion of its tunnel which lies between I and Q streets...

It is proposed in the new system to accomplish both the sanitary and the overflow drainage, so that no more sewage will be allowed to flow in open channels...

The cost of reconstructing the tunnel, which has now proved inadequate for the need, is estimated at about $55,000.

It is imperative to the efficiency of the system in the district north of L street...

Without it the city will be obliged to parallel the system of the Union Stock Yards, and, it is declared, ruining its value to them.

Funeral of William J. Mangum. The funeral of William J. Mangum was more largely attended yesterday than any for a long time past.

A farmer by the name of William Henry was brought into the South Omaha hospital yesterday morning, having been completely paralyzed from the effects of a fall from a cart...

EAGLES' OPERA SCORES HIT

"Chimes of Normandy" Rendered to the Delight of Great Audience at Boyd's.

The first presentation of "The Chimes of Normandy" at the Boyd Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Eagle club of Omaha, went along very successfully.

Some really good voices give strength to the chorus, and the principals, male and female, gave very satisfactory renditions of their parts.

"The Chimes of Normandy" itself is one of the most tuneful and pleasing of the old-time favorites. It has to do with an absent hero and a lost heroine.

Miss Hazel Livingston and Miss Alice Winsper, as Serpolette and Germaine, respectively, carried the two principal female roles very competently.

RAILROAD LABORER KILLED

Mutilated Body of Riprap Worker Found on Northwestern Track Near Council Bluffs.

The badly mangled body of William McCully, employed on the Illinois Central, was found early yesterday morning by the Northwestern tracks about two miles north of Council Bluffs.

McCully and a man named G. Arbuckle, also employed on the rip-rapping work, lived in a tent near the river bank.

Arbuckle showed up for work yesterday morning, but short while after work representative of the Northwestern sought him.

Little is known about the dead man. He had been working for the Illinois Central for about three years and, as he frequently talked about Sedalia, Mo., it is thought likely that he may have relatives there.

Arbuckle showed up for work yesterday morning, but short while after work representative of the Northwestern sought him.

Everybody's Magazine For January Out today Get it

In two short brilliant years, Everybody's has become the great magazine of America.

Not Lawson—though he has opened people's eyes to the wicked power of the money-mad, and put the insurance grafters on the rack.

Not Russell—though he has turned the greatest trust in the world inside out; pointed the way to Roosevelt's cutting the claws of the Beef Trust lion; and is now showing what more can be done by all pulling together.

It is this: Everybody's is for everybody—it tells what you want to know in the way you want to read it—with fact-stories: clear, strong, dramatic. These fact-stories have set a hot pace for the fiction-stories.

They keep up. See Everybody's for January. Give yourself and friends a year of Everybody's for a Christmas present.

Everybody's Magazine 15 cents $1.50 a year. Special representatives wanted for Everybody's Magazine in towns where there are no dealers.

JAPROSE

Pure, fragrant and cleansing. The favorite toilet soap of discriminating users.

Its mild and soothing qualities make it particularly desirable for sensitive skins.

Its perfume is the delicious odor of natural flowers.

FARMER HELD FOR MURDER

Allegation of Murder in Secured Deal. Man's Farm is Back of the Crime.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—On a grand jury indictment, W. L. Carter, a professional bondsman and farmer, was arrested today for the murder of Edward J. Gresser of Avon.

The charge is murder in the first degree. Gresser was found dead October 2, in front of a shattered window at his home with a bullet through his head.

Carter claimed to have bought Gresser's farm. It is alleged that instead he made out a check to Gresser and cashed it himself after murdering Gresser.

Carter's mother owns a farm adjoining the Gresser property and, it is charged, that she desired the same amount on the part of Carter is responsible for the murder.

Ball was refused and Carter is confined in the county jail here.

Series of Christmas Tragedies.

CENTERVILLE, Ia., Dec. 27.—(Special.)—A murder, an attempted murder and probable suicide are the Christmas tragedies in this vicinity.

Jack Whitaker has given himself up to the officers on the charge of killing his boarder, Dan Reedy. Bill Hendon is also under arrest for attempting to cut his wife's head off with a Christmas tree.

The third tragedy was in the form of the beating of a man, apparently an Austrian, lying across the Milwaukee tracks where a train had evidently severed the head.
