Superintendent Stephens Selected as Head of Teachers' Organization.

LINCOLN CONFIDENT OF NEXT SESSION

Registration Near the Two Thousand Mark and a Considerable Inorease is Looked for on the Last Day.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 28 .- (Special Telegram.) Tonight Superintendent W. L. Stephens of the Lincoln schools was elected president of the State Teachers' association to ponents in the balloting in the nominating Avery of the Nebraska university. committee were J. B. Delzell of Lexington, who had the backing of the Sixth congressional district, and G. H. Thomas of McCook. Mr. Stephens had not announced late in the afternoon that he was sure a two days' campaign for him. He was elected vice president and R. H. Graham of Wymore and R. D. Overholt of Minden were re-elected secretary and treasurer, respectively. Stephens had the backing of the entire eastern section of the state and had eleven out of the eighteen ballots when the nominating committee met at 6 o'clock. George H. Thomas of McCook was elected a member of the executive committee to succeed J. E. Delzell and E. I. Rouse of Plattsmouth a member of the reading circle board.

The location of the next meeting will be left to the executive committee of the association, but the friends of Lincoln have been making a strong fight and it is predicted that it will be located here. Tonight the registration was near the 2.000 mark and a considerable increase is looked for tomorrow, the last day. Tonight the alumni of the Peru Normal and the Fremont Normal held banquets.

The general session was devoted to a musical program and a lecture by George E. Vincent. The general session in the morning was devoted to lectures by Dr. C. O. Hoyt of Ypsilanti, Mich., and Dr. Myra G. Reynolds of Chicago. The former spoke of "The American Appreciation of Educated Citizenship as Evidenced by the Expenditure of $250,000,000 Annually on Elementary Education.

Numerous section meetings were well at tended. In the college section it was decided that college training is absolutely essential for high school teachers.

Trouble for Insurance Companies. Insurance Deputy Pierce intimated today that his department has the right under the general police power to refuse licenses to companies which have made false statements until the officials responsible for the violation of the law are retired. He has been watching the evidence before the New York committee very closely and companies which faisified statements may have trouble in securing permission to continue doing husiness in the state. He said that the erring officials of the Equitable and Mutual Life had been displaced, but refused to indicate which of the numerous compunies are likely to come under the ban. From his statement it is believed that some York companies will experience couble in securing admission until they secure new officials. It was intimated recontly that the department would require new examinations in cases where the New York investigation showed Commissioner Hendricks to have been lax.

Library Association Meeting. juded Its eleventh annual session today after electing the following officers: President, G. H. Thomas of McCook; first vice president, Miss Fanny Geer of Columbus; second vice president, Miss Mary Ray of Kearney: secretary, Nellie J. Compton of Lincoln; treasurer, Margaret A. O'Brien of MORTON'S CONDITION FAVORABLE

The next session will be held at Kearney on the same dates as the Woman's club meeting, the time for which has not been definitely determined.

Among the lectures was one by J. I. The child has dark brown eyes, light brown hair and seven teeth, with a badly bruised fingernal on the third finger of the left hand. The parties knocked on the door and left in a hurry, Mr. Pease saying it sounded as if it were two women walking on the board walk. Sheriff Mencke was called to investigate and expressed the opinion that the child was stolen and brought here for concealment. Mr. and Mrs. Pease have no children and will care for the little stranger for the present.
