Attempt to Overthrow Government of Russia Fails Utterly.

REVOLT IN MOSCOW IS SUPPRESSED

Electric Light Service Resumed and Conditions Are Becoming Normal.

PEOPLE FAIL TO SUPPORT MOVEMENT

Strikes Declared Without Preparation and Army Remained Loyal.

WORST CONDITION ALONG THE BALTIC

Revolutionists in These Provinces Show Great Strength—Revolt of Peasants Probable in the Spring.

BULLETIN.

MOSCOW, Dec. 29.—The electric lighting system was restored at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The streets are gradually assuming their normal condition. It is probable that the railroads will soon commence their regular schedules. Work has been resumed in most of the factories. The town council is organizing a system for the relief of the families of the victims of the recent disturbances.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 28.—The suppression of the insurrection at Moscow and the certainty that similar uprisings elsewhere will be crushed mark the collapse of the first attempt at a general revolution through the government arms and administration from which it is not believed in government circles the revolutionaries can quickly recover.

Now that the smoke of battle is clearing away the utter hopelessness of the conflict seems to be apparent. The populace held aloof and not a single military unit actually joined the revolutionaries. Even the general strike crumbled under their feet by their challenging and precipitating a conflict before the proletariat organizations were prepared. The government secured a comparatively easy though unblemished victory by the use of such official circles that the organizations have been so demoralized and disrupted by the blow and by the arrest of their most able leaders that it would be impossible for them to attempt the coup planned for the anniversary of "Bloody Sunday."

The country has quieted down, and the cabinet now hopes that the selections to the duma are assured and that the government can devote its time to the suppression of the revolt in Baltic provinces, and more especially to the solution of the agrarian question. If means cannot be found to in some measure satisfy the land hunger of the peasants before spring the universal opinion is that the peasants everywhere will rise. The landed proprietors seem to be convinced of this to such an extent that the landlords in the neighborhood of Minsk are calling their tenants together and voluntarily arranging the distribution of a portion of their private holdings upon terms satisfactory to the peasants.

Costly Victory for Caesar. Peter Struve, editor of the Osvobodjnie (Emancipation) newspaper, was again shifted this afternoon in a ringing article this afternoon in which he admits the defeat of the attempt aimed at the overthrow of the government. He says the attempt, of course, was mad and was bound to be extinguished in blood. Nevertheless, he alleges, there was a heroic spirit behind it which should testify to the government. "Another such victory and the government is lost," says Mr. Struve, who, in conclusion, summons all the forces of emancipation to bury their dissensions and to unite in a final struggle. The report that Lieutenant General Mitchenko has been wounded had not been confirmed.

The League of Leagues has split, one portion favoring a continuance of the strike and another the abandonment of violent tactics and co-operation in peaceful preparation for the work of the duma. With the evident object of inflaming sentiment abroad, the revolutionaries are putting out a story to the effect that the government is deliberately plotting a general massacre of Jews. These agents display what purports to be the text of an appeal by a rabbi addressed to the Jews to fight against the cross, which they declare is being printed by the ministry of marine for distribution among the ignorant masses, with the object of producing a concerted attack. Investigation fails to substantiate the charge that the government is circulating any such document. There was a slight relapse on the Bourse today. Imperial is were quoted at 89 1/2.

Many Uprisings Planned.

The government has intercepted telegrams showing that the social democrats and workmen's council have arranged for uprisings at Kieff, Kazan and Krasnoyarsk and for a general insurrection in Poland, which will be proclaimed December 31. At Kieff and Kazan the authorities believe the movement has been planned in the bud by the arrested revolutionaries and the soldiers' arms. At the former place one of the leaders was a porter in the governor general's house. At Riga the proclamation of a general strike was accompanied by an open effort on the part of the fighting organizations to seize the city. Barricades sprang up in all the streets as if by magic and fighting between the revolutionaries and the gendarmes, troops and police has begun. At Aamboff, central Russia, all the railroads have stopped running and Vice Governor Bogdanovich, it is now confirmed, has been shot and seriously wounded. The revolutionaries are said to have also completed preparations for a general strike at Simeropol, south Russia, and throughout the Crimea.

Revolutionists Hold Town.

For a week past Zlatoust, a town of 17,000 inhabitants, government of Ooft, in the Ural mountains, has been in the hands of the revolutionaries, according to information received by the Molva (Rus). They have formed a local republican government and the red flag is flying over the government arm factory, the officials of which are held as hostages. The former local authorities threatened to summon Cossacks, but the revolutionaries declare that Cossacks appeared the officials of the factory would all be killed.

Conditions at Moscow.

1:30 p. m.—The correspondent of the Associated Press at Moscow telegraphs that the scattered revolutionaries there are only able to keep up a feeble show of resistance

SLUGGERS ARE FOUND GUILTY

Officials of Chicago Labor Union Given Prison Sentences for Attacking Nonunion Men.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Five officials of the Carriage and Wagon Workers' union of Chicago and their alleged hired sluggers, who were on trial in the criminal court yesterday, were found guilty tonight of a severe punishment was inflicted on the alleged sluggers. Besides receiving a term to the penitentiary, they were also fined. The other union men who were found guilty were Henry Newman, financial secretary of the Carriage and Wagon Workers' union No. 4; Charles Casey, secretary of the union; Edward Shields, recording secretary; Charles H. Demach, president of the Carriage and Wagon Workers' union, and John Heiden, member of the executive board, and Marcus Looney, one of the alleged hired sluggers.

Frank Novak, another member of the executive board, was found not guilty. The specific case on which the men were tried is only one of many similar instances that have occurred in Chicago within the past few years. Last April while Chris J. Cagliostro, a nonunion carriage worker, was returning home from work from a factory where a strike was in progress he was attacked by two men and severely injured. He died two weeks later from pneumonia, contracted as a result of the exposure while lying on the frozen ground after he had been left unconscious by his assailants. Last summer, when the department store teamsters' strike was at its height and the various unions of the city were being made by the state's attorney, George Mellor, a former president of the Carriage and Wagon Workers' union, turned state's evidence and told of the inner workings of the union. During the disclosure Mellor claimed the union maintained what he called a "wrecking crew," which he alleged meant a regular organization of men who were contracted to do considerable amounts of demolition work which they might desire to take the places of strikers. He then cited the Carliston affair as an instance of the "wrecking crew." Indictments were secured against the officials of the union and the alleged slugs and on September 15, 1905, received a considerable amount of publicity. The eleven weeks that it took to secure a jury, 1,381 verdicts were examined and the total expense of the case to Cook county up to date has been $35,000.

BOSTON COPPER BROKER FAILS

Firm of H. R. Leighton & Co., with Branches in Many Cities, Unable to Meet Obligations.

BOSTON, Dec. 29.—The recent rise in copper stocks on the Boston Stock exchange was an important contributing cause to the suspension today of the stock brokerage firm of H. R. Leighton & Co., which assigned for the benefit of its creditors. Although the firm is not a member of any stock exchange, the assignment was made for the purpose of insuring the copper stock of the firm. The firm has some forty branch offices, all but three of them in New England cities and towns. The outside offices are at Montreal, Halifax, N. S., and St. Johns, N. B. The assignee is Charles E. Allen, a lawyer of this city.

Forty-Five Years for Hart

Long Sentence for Chicago Doctor Who Pleaded Guilty to Killing Little Girl.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Dr. Oliver B. Hart, son of a wealthy resident of St. Louis, who pleaded guilty two weeks ago to the murder of Irene Klowkow, 10 years old, in his residence in Rogers Park last October, was sentenced today by Judge Barnes in the criminal court to forty-five years in the penitentiary. The child was left alone in the house with Hart, who, it was charged at the trial, drugged her with morphine and then maltreated her. The morphine resulted in the child's death, and when neighbors broke into the house a few hours later they found Hart in a semi-conscious condition. The effects of some drugs he having made an attempt to commit suicide.

President Hunts Turkeys

Chief Executive Taking Strenuous Exercise in the Mountains of Old Virginia.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Dec. 29.—The president and Mrs. Roosevelt took a long horseback ride today, and Archie and Theodore had a lively rabbit hunt. It is now said to be the president's intention to return to Washington Saturday, instead of Sunday night, as he originally intended to do. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss Ethel left North Garden tonight at 9 o'clock to return to Washington. The president enjoyed a hunting trip for wild turkey yesterday. The locality selected was on top of Green Mountain, about three miles from Pine Knob. He was accompanied by Peyton S. Coles, a well known resident of Albemarle county, and by Mr. Omahundro. Later in the day the two boys, Kermit and Archie, departed on a hunting trip in the neighborhood of Keene, not a great distance from Pine Knob.

FATAL FIRE AT MINNEAPOLIS

One Dead and Many Injured as Result of Blast in Tenement.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 29.—One dead, two badly burned and fifteen or more injured or overcome by smoke, is the result of a fire in the "Higgins" tenements this morning. The fire started in the apartments of Mrs. Lorraine Buckliff, 323 Minnehaha avenue, in the midst of the big tenement and spread with great rapidity. Twenty-seven families were rescued from their beds and sent shivering and half-smothered into the outer air, where the thermometer indicated 12 degrees above zero.

INSURANCE INQUIRY ENDS

Final Session of Committee Today Will Be Devoted to Receiving Exhibits.

TWO SMALLER COMPANIES EXAMINED

Officers of the Manhattan and the Life Insurance Club Explain Methods of Doing Business.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—With the adjournment of the legislative committee on insurance investigation tonight, the investigation of the last of the old line companies was completed. Tomorrow, the last day of the committee's session, will be given over to the presentation of exhibits that have not heretofore been prepared by several companies, and these it was thought probable that they will not be read for the record, but after introduction by the witnesses will be marked for identification. Today the examination of the United States Life Insurance company was completed and the Manhattan Life Insurance company of the latter company was a witness. The last old line company taken up was the Life Insurance club of New York. This appeared to be a system of securing insurance without agents by means of advertising. In the examination of its president, Robert Wightman, it was brought out that the system is antagonistic to the larger companies.

Iselin on Witness Stand.

When the legislative investigating committee began its sessions today Adrian Iselin, of the banking firm of A. Iselin & Co., member of the finance committee of the Mutual Life Insurance company, presented a statement of his experience in underwriting syndicates which the Mutual Life Insurance company also took part. He was not required to testify further today. President John P. Mann of the United States Life Insurance company, was called and asked about the agency contracts of his company. Henry B. Stokes, president of the Manhattan Life Insurance company of New York, followed Mr. Munn.

Noted Inventor is Arrested

George W. Cornwell Accused of Stealing Bonds and Jewelry from Woman.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 29.—George W. Cornwell, until recently treasurer of the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing company and an inventor of note, was arrested today on the charge of theft of $100,000 in bonds and jewelry to the total value of $100,000. The complaint is Mrs. Gilbert A. Lumpkin, wife of Gilbert A. Lumpkin, who was known as Lumpkin A. Gill of St. Louis, of the firm of Arnold & Co., who became involved in legal difficulties in the month of January last. She alleged "get-rich-quick" methods of doing business.

Daring New York Burglars

Tenderloin Jewelry Store is Robbed of Diamond Rings and Watches.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—For the second time within three months and the seventh time within three years the jewelry store of Schwab & Co., 138 Broadway, in the heart of the tenderloin district, was robbed early today, and about $4,000 worth of diamonds, rings and watches were stolen. The robbery was most daring, as this part of the city at the busiest and most brilliantly lighted throughout the entire night. Working during the height of a terrific rainstorm, when most of the pedestrians had sought shelter, the burglars gained an entrance to the store by cutting through a steel folding gate that barred the approach to the front door and then cut through a half-inch screen that protected the plate glass in the front door. They then smashed the half-inch thick glass.

Leaves Money for Her Pets

Vaudeville Performer Wills $15,000 to Friend for Care of Dog and Birds.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The fate of Cecelia A. Wolsey, who was formerly a performer on the vaudeville stage, under the name of Lillian Western, bequeathed $15,000 for the care of her dog, parrot and a cage of live birds, became known today when her will was filed. Miss Wolsey died a week ago. Harriet E. Gates, a friend of the dead woman, is charged with the care of the animals, and Miss Wolsey's will provides that she shall have the use of the $15,000 for that purpose. After the death of Mrs. Gates, the will provides that the money shall go to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, to care for Miss Wolsey's pets if they outlive Mrs. Gates, and if not to care for other homeless animals. Miss Wolsey was a "musical specialist" on the vaudeville stage, and retired from a year ago, having only her pets as companions.

Men Who Die in United States Cannot Be Moved at Government Expense.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The body of a soldier killed in active service cannot be sent home to his relatives at government expense for burial if he dies in the United States. Moreover, the body must be placed in the coffin issued by the quartermaster general's department.

New Rule for Soldier's Body

Men Who Die in United States Cannot Be Moved at Government Expense.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The body of a soldier killed in active service cannot be sent home to his relatives at government expense for burial if he dies in the United States. Moreover, the body must be placed in the coffin issued by the quartermaster general's department. This was the decision of the comptroller of the treasury in the case of Private Albert Lasse, Twenty-ninth battery, field artillery, who was killed at Port Riley, Kan., last October. His commanding officer wished to send his body to his relatives for burial and desiring a better coffin than was supplied by the quartermaster's department, which was only allowed to spend $25 for that purpose, he offered to supply the necessary additional funds.

CHARLES T. YERKES IS DEAD

Man Interested in Rapid Transit of Two Continents Passes Away Friday Afternoon.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Charles T. Yerkes, the noted railroad financier of Chicago and London, died today in his apartments at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where he had been ill for more than six weeks. Mr. Yerkes suffered from a complication of diseases, growing out of a severe cold which he contracted in London early in the fall. His condition had been critical for ten days and the attending physicians gave up all hope several days ago, although members of the family clung tenaciously to the belief that the remarkable vitality of Mr. Yerkes would eventually pull him through. Since last night the patient had been kept alive by strong stimulants. Despite statements said to have come earlier in the day from Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, wife of the capitalist, that she would not go to the Waldorf-Astoria, the following official statement was made by Dr. Looney, who had attended Mr. Yerkes throughout his illness: "At the deceased were Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, his wife; Charles Edward Yerkes, son, and his wife, Mrs. Charles Edward Yerkes, daughter; Mrs. Charles Yerkes, widow; and Mrs. Charles Yerkes, widow. At 1 o'clock Mrs. Yerkes was telephoned that her husband was dying and she rushed and went to the hotel. She was present when he died. This was the first time Mrs. Yerkes had seen her husband during her husband's illness. The death was peaceful, but unexpected at the time. Mrs. Yerkes' residence is at Sixty-eighth street and Fifth avenue. Epney & Co., the New York banking firm, which had much to do with the local financing of Mr. Yerkes' affairs today made the following statement: "The death of Mr. Yerkes is particularly sad at the time, when his work in connection with the London Underground railway is rapidly approaching completion and he was about to be promoted to president of the company. Mr. Yerkes' falling health had warned him and the bankers of the possibility of his death, and arrangements had been made for relieving him of a portion of his work, or for completing and carrying it on in case of his death. These arrangements have been perfected and will be announced at the proper time."

Church Union Perfected

Northern Presbyterians and Cumberland Agree Upon Merger Plan.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 29.—After a division of almost 100 years steps were consummated today in the joint session of general committees which, when formally ratified, will unite the Northern Presbyterian church, United States of America, and the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Almost two days have been consumed by subcommittees in arranging details for the union. Their reports were submitted to the general committees representing each church this afternoon. Within two hours the two general committees had met in a joint session and agreed upon in basic for the union of the two denominational bodies. This agreement will be reported to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, meeting at Des Moines, Ia., on May 17, 1906, and of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, meeting in Decatur, Ill., on the same date for formal ratification by the two executive assemblies, which will be followed by the official announcement that the union of the churches has been consummated. The general committee of the Cumberland Presbyterian church had full quota of twenty-one members present. The chairman being Rev. Dr. W. H. Black of Marshall, Mo. Only sixteen of the twenty-one members of the Presbyterian general committee were present, the others being detained away. Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts of Philadelphia was chairman. The joint session was executive in character. It was stated that on the joint ballot on the question of the proposed union there was but one dissenting vote, that being cast by Elder T. W. Keller of Knoxville, Tenn., a member of the Cumberland committee. It was further stated that when the Cumberland committee was appointed seven members known to be in opposition to the proposed union were placed on the committee. The vote today indicated that six had changed their minds during the deliberations of the committee.

Miss Busch Carries Point

Will Marry a German Officer After an Elopement Which Was Unsuccessful.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—Announcement was made today that Lieutenant Eduard Scharrer of Stuttgart, Germany, and Miss Wilhelmina Busch, daughter of Adolphus Busch, the brewer, will be quietly married on New Year's day at the Busch mansion here. This announcement came as a sequel to the elopement of Lieutenant Scharrer and Miss Busch Wednesday night to Belleville, Ill., sixteen miles across the river, which was frustrated by the fact that they were unable to secure a marriage license at the hour and therefore returned to Miss Busch's home. They were later arrested and then Miss Busch telephoned her father. "If you intend to be married come back to St. Louis and marry at home. I have no objection to Mr. Scharrer as a son-in-law," replied Mr. Busch. Lieutenant Scharrer arrived from Germany last Saturday and while stopping at a hotel has been a visitor at the Busch home. He has known Miss Busch since childhood. He is reported to be 25 years of age and she 21 years. It is stated that after the wedding the couple will probably spend their honeymoon at Mrs. Busch's winter home at Pasadena, Cal. Adolphus Busch tonight stated that while his daughter was engaged to be married to Lieutenant Scharrer, that the announcement that the wedding was to take place Monday was premature. He said that while New Year's day has been mentioned during a family conference in regard to the proposed wedding, that no date had been finally decided upon, and that the marriage would probably not take place until later in the year.

Arrest Fake Wire Tappers

New York Detectives Capture Sixteen Men and Racing Cards in Broadway Hotel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Considerable excitement was caused this afternoon by a spectacular raid by central office detectives on the headquarters of a gang of alleged wire tapper swindlers in a double parlor apartment of a hotel in Broadway near Twenty-seventh street. The raiding party took sixteen prisoners at the point of revolvers and seized a quantity of racing paraphernalia, a telephone with a dry battery connection and cards announcing the New Orleans racing entries. It was the biggest roundup of alleged fake wire tappers made in several years by the police of this city. In the crowd, the police saw, there were three former pickpockets.

Disappoints Filipinos by Not Promising to Help Them to Political Independence.

MANILA, Dec. 29.—Filipinos who spoke at the banquet given to William J. Bryan demanded the immediate independence of the islands and said they were looking to him to champion their cause with the American people. Mr. Bryan in his response made no promises and the natives were disappointed. Aguinaldo was among those present. The men displayed an American flag supported by an insurgent banner. Americans here are pleased with Mr. Bryan's conservatism. END OF OVERLAND MARCH Sixth Field Artillery Will Reach Fort Sam Houston Today After Thousand-Mile Trip. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 29.—The Sixth battery of United States field artillery is expected to march into Fort Sam Houston tomorrow after a march of 1,600 miles overland from Fort Riley. The battery left Fort Riley November 12 and is now near Austin. This is one of the longest marches ever made by a battery of artillery in time of peace.

All Were Destined for Vancouver and Twenty-Six Specific Violations of the Law are Alleged.

Chicago, Dec. 29.

The federal grand jury late today returned an indictment against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, Darius Miller, first vice president, and C. G. Burnham, foreign freight agent, on the charge of granting railroad rebates. The indictment charges that the rebates were all granted to the United States Steel Products company of New York, a subsidiary company to the United States Steel company. All of the shipments on which the indictment alleges rebates were paid were made from six cities—Elwood, Ind.; Martins Ferry, O.; Pittsburg, Pa.; New Castle, Pa.; Cleveland, O., and Joliet, Ill.—to Vancouver, B. C. Twenty-six separate offenses are charged. Rebates of Thirty Per Cent. The indictment further alleges that by an agreement between the defendants and a number of connecting railroads a joint tariff was made and filed with the interstate commerce committee. The rates were paid, it was declared in the indictment, according to the tariff, but afterwards a rebate of about 30 per cent was allowed to the shipper. In all cases the United States Steel Products company was the recipient of the money, according to the indictment. Indicted Men to Give Bond. As soon as the indictment was laid before Judge Bethel in the United States circuit court, he fixed bonds of $5,000 in each case, and the officials of the Burlington road were notified to call and give bail to the amount of $15,000, which they agreed to do without delay. The greater part of the evidence upon which the indictment was voted is said to have been furnished by T. P. Alder of New York, president of the United States Steel Products company; J. L. Moore, foreign traffic agent for the Burlington road, and G. W. Perry, freight claim agent of the Great Northern road.

McClellan Gives Out Jobs

Mayor of New York Skips Tammany Leaders and Organization Men in Making Appointments.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Mayor McClellan tonight announced the appointment of Brigadier General Theodore A. Bingham, U. S. A., retired, as police commissioner, succeeding William McAdoo, who has held the office through Mr. McClellan's first term. The other appointments to places in the city administration include the following, who have held offices during the last two years: City chamberlain, Patrick H. Keenan; corporation counsel, John J. Delany; commissioner of correction, Francis J. Conboy; commissioner of streets, Richard J. G. Woodbury; commissioner of health, Thomas Darrington; town clerk, James J. Conboy. Other sections include the following: Commissioner of bridges, James W. Steadman; commissioner of water supply, gas and electricity, William B. Ellison, and fire commissioner, John H. O'Brien. John J. Boyle, the incumbent, is appointed a member of the city art commission. None of the new appointees is known as an "organization" man, nor is there a Tammany Hall district leader among the mayor's selections. WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—General Theodore Alfred Bingham, who has been appointed the police commissioner of New York, has announced that when he was an officer of being one of the most active men in that corps. He was born in Connecticut about 46 years ago and appointed to the military academy from New Hampshire September 5, 1875. All his active service was in the engineer corps and many of the most attractive features of the public grounds of Washington owe their inspiration and development to him. Notable among these is the magnificent driveway skirting the tidal basin. After being detached from Washington to 103 General Bingham's next duty was the direction of the lower great lakes section. It was while engaged in the discharge of the duties of this office that he met with the accident which terminated his active service and resulted in an amputated limb.

London Man Reports Theft

Byron R. White Says He Was Robbed While on Wabash Passenger Train.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 29.—Byron R. White of London, England, who says he is the son of Sir Thomas R. White, member of Parliament, reported to the chief of police here today that he had been robbed of money and jewelry valued at close to $20,000 on a Wabash train somewhere between Detroit and Kansas City on Wednesday night. White expressed the belief that he was robbed by a fellow passenger, a stranger, whom he met at Buffalo and who left the train at St. Louis. White says he was on his way to Garden City, Kan., to enter a sanitarium for a nervous disease. He was sent to this country by his father, who is personally acquainted with the superintendent of the Garden City hospital.
