

WOULD SHELVES WITTE

Count Camarillo Makes Another Unsuccessful Attempt to Force Him Out.

M. DURNOVO HEADS THE OPPOSITION

Minister of the Interior Thinks His Stern Policy Can Repress Anarchy.

RETIREMENT OF MINISTER OF JUSTICE

M. Manukhin Resigns Rather Than Allow Durnovo to Dictate Action.

LIBERALS ALSO ATTACK THE PREMIER

It is Charged that He Has Not Even Safeguarded Rights of People Granted by the Ukase.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 31.—7:35 p. m.

The report that Count Witte is booked for a retirement in a few days is again being persistently circulated.

The Nabsh Shain, which declares it can guarantee the accuracy of its statement, says that M. Durnovo, minister of the interior, who is worshipped as an ideal by the court camarilla, which believes that his stern policy alone can put an end to the existing anarchy, has announced the downfall of the count and will be elevated in the premiership.

Investigation by the Associated Press, however, indicates that the report is baseless, certainly for the moment. Nevertheless it is true that M. Durnovo has a powerful majority in the duma, and temporarily seems to dominate the situation.

M. Manukhin, whose sudden retirement from the ministry of justice (in which he is succeeded by M. Akynof, a member of the Senate) created a stir, resigned, according to the Nabsh Shain, rather than submit to M. Durnovo's dictation in matters which he regarded as being strictly within the sphere of his ministry. He insisted that the reports of the senators who were dispatched to investigate the Jewish and other massacres following the imperial manifesto of October 29, should be submitted to the minister of justice in order that legal proceedings could be begun against the police and other local authorities where found culpable. M. Durnovo resisted this, declaring that the interior administration belonged to him. When M. Durnovo was sustained M. Manukhin resigned and M. Akynof, who is his brother-in-law of M. Durnovo, was appointed his successor.

On the other hand, Count Witte is being attacked more fiercely than ever on the side of the liberals, who charge that he is showing the cloven hoof and say that he might himself fall between two stools.

LIBERALS ATTACK PREMIER.

M. Brianchanoff is out with a strong article in the Slovo entitled "Witte Must Go," in which he asserts that the victory at Petersburg has been followed by defeat at St. Petersburg. His line of argument is that anarchy has been able to make headway because true liberals doubt whether Russia is to have a constitution or whether the manifesto of October 29 should be held in full to sleep. It was Witte's first duty, according to the writer, to remove this doubt, but it is charged that he still maintains an equivocal role. He has not, the article says, even safeguarded the prerogatives granted by the ukase, and is responsible cabinet of ministers, but has allowed M. Durnovo, whose patent purpose is to cut off the heads of anarchy and constitutionalism at the same time, to report directly to the emperor and secure his majesty's approval of measures without consulting the duma.

"A man like M. Guchkoff, in whom the people have confidence, must go to the head of the government," says M. Brianchanoff. "It is impossible for Count Witte, who never was a constitutionalist at heart, to continue to play a double role any longer. The situation imperatively requires sincerity and we would have less of Witte's dexterity and more honesty."

SAY REVOLUTION IS SUPPRESSED.

The government is now proceeding on the theory that a victory over the "reds" is assured. It is displaying a strong front and announces that it will no longer tolerate in its service employees who are plotting against the state. The ministers have been authorized summarily to dismiss such employees.

The regulations for the preparation of supplementary lists of those entitled to vote by the law of December 25 were published today. The fact that in the cities the electoral districts are tactical moves to police districts gives rise to the outcry that when the country is "tranquilized" it is the purpose of the government to control the elections.

The Slovo warns the people to quit talking of revolution and to pay attention to the campaign for the duma by the selection of the best representatives.

Foreseeing the probability that it will be impossible to hold elections in the Baltic provinces, the Caucasus and other disturbed districts, the government has proposed that when the certificates are received the members to be elected are received the duma will be convened immediately.

At a meeting of the council of workmen last night some delegates, pending the organization of an armed revolution, advocated recourse to the old terrorist plan of instituting a tribunal to try and condemn officials guilty of tyranny, to publish the reasons for such condemnation, and then to execute the verdict of the tribunal. This, the delegates said, would be preferable to the indiscriminate killing of people and Cossacks who might be innocent.

Not satisfied by the protection given by the secret police to Count Witte, whose life is in constant danger, officers of the Preobrazhensky Guard regiment were detailed to guard the premier, but on Friday they decided to do no further service in this connection, saying it was beneath the dignity of Guard officers to do police duty.

MARITAL LAW IN CRIMEA.

With the crushing of the revolt at Moscow, interest is now transferred to other places where there are armed uprisings, especially to South Russia. Practically the entire Black Sea littoral is under martial law. Ekaterinoslav and the railroad to the Crimea are the main lines of the revolution, and the troops were ordered today to retake them at any cost. The situation is extremely bad at Buchant, in White Russia, where the coal fields are located. Feridicheff, the Jewish center of Kiev, Kherson, the whole district of Odessa, Krivni, Alesandrovsk and the territory around the railroad between Moscow and Nizhni-Novgorod were placed under martial law today.

THE REVOLT AT SAMRA HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED WITH MUCH BLOODSHED.

WHITE FLAGS FLY IN MOSCOW

Last Remnant of Revolutionists Surrenders to the Guards and Uprising is Ended.

MOSCOW, Dec. 31.—White flags flying from a dozen factories and tenement houses of Prema district, where the revolutionaries made their last stand now bear mute witness to the end of the "December uprising in Moscow." The entire district is now occupied by troops.

During the night the vast majority of the members of the "fighting legions" either surrendered or, after throwing away their arms, endeavored to escape in the guise of peaceful citizens. Only the members who acted as a guard to the revolutionary committee stuck to their colors and the surrender of this handful this morning furnished the last act of the sanguinary drama.

The staging of this last act was admirable—a snow-covered landscape, the small black residence with a tiny red flag fluttering from its gable, and the gleaming bridge, black with the guns of the artillery, and a thin encircling line of the Semenovskiy regiment of the guard, broken only directly in line of fire. Suddenly there was a flash of red fire from the mouth of one of the guns and a solid shot plowed through the wall of the house. A few splintering shots rang from a window. The cannon spoke again and again until a dozen shots had been fired.

It looked like murder to the spectators on a hill and so evidently thought the officers in command of the battery, which opened fire. A heavy company, which included the regiment, then advanced and fired volleys at the upper windows. At the third volley a white handkerchief attached to a bayonet was pushed through a shattered pane. It waved frantically and all was over. The little garrison of thirty men, who had been ordered to hold out a strange collection of rifles and repeating shotguns. All had revolvers.

Strange to say not one of the men had been wounded and when they found that they would not be immediately executed they appeared to be rather relieved. The end of the struggle had come. They gathered around the soldiers' bivouac, stretched their hands eagerly over the cheerful fires and begged cigarettes from the guards.

The number of prisoners is being constantly augmented, most of the new arrivals being arrested at the bridges or at other points of egress in the Prema district, which is crowded with refugees.

The Associated Press correspondent learns that after the fall of the Prokharoff cotton mill and other factories a council was hastily held, at which it was decided that every man to save himself as best he could. A hundred agreed to hold together so as to keep up a show of fight under cover of which the others could escape.

After the final surrender the inhabitants swarmed into the streets of the district and in a remarkably short time cleared away the remains of the barricades and other obstructions with which for a week the revolutionaries had blocked the district.

The Workmen's council, or what is left of it outside prison, has formally declared its support of the revolutionaries who managed to get out a proclamation declaring the purposes of the revolt have been fully accomplished and calling upon the proletariat to prepare for a decisive battle against the enemies of the revolution. However, are in an angry mood. They claim that they have been deceived by the revolutionaries and that their families are starving. These are threatening vengeance on the agitators. Some of the employees, like Mr. Balfour of the American Boiler works, will shorten the usual Christmas vacation from sixteen to four days in order to allow the men to earn something.

The casualties here to Friday night were 137 were formally reported as dead and 27 as wounded.

Governor General Duboussoff has issued a proclamation forbidding well disposed persons to obstruct the revolutionaries, who are powerless, as the revolutionaries appear at their houses with revolvers in their hands.

DOUGHERTY SHORTAGE GROWS

Partial Report of Auditors Indicates that it Will Exceed a Million Dollars.

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 31.—The defalcations of N. C. Dougherty are growing larger daily. A month ago it was estimated that $300,000 would cover the shortage. It is now learned from the authorities that $300,000 has been stolen in the last three years with a strong possibility that the total for the eighteen years of his incumbency will go over $1,000,000.

An official report of the Credit Audit company will be made public on Tuesday night covering a period of seven years. The details of that report will not show that any other man is criminally guilty, but will implicate at least six other prominent citizens as in a chain of transactions by which the robbery of the school funds was made possible.

PREPARING INSURANCE REPORT

New York Legislative Committee Will Meet in Albany Wednesday to Draft Document.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—All members of the legislative insurance investigation committee except those who live in New York left this city today for their homes, upstate, to have a day or two of rest before meeting in Albany on Wednesday to begin preparing their report to the legislature. Charles C. Hughes, wearied with his labors as inquisitor, left his home today to rest in the country until Thursday. He will go to Albany Thursday night unless his program is changed to kid in the preparation of the committee's report and in framing remedial legislation resulting from the investigation.

OPERA SINGERS MAY STRIKE

Members of Chorus at Metropolitan House, New York, Demand Increase of $10 Per Week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The Central Federal union, composed of delegates of all the labor unions, endorsed today the demands of the Metropolitan Opera House Chorus Singers' union, and Director Heinrich Conrad will be visited by a committee tomorrow which will present the union's demand for an increase of wages from $12 to $22 a week and if that demand is not complied with it is declared a strike will be immediately ordered. Efforts made today to secure a pledge of co-operation from the members of the orchestra and stage mechanics failed.

ARRESTS IN DYNAMITE CASE

Idaho Officials Think They Have Man Who Killed Frank Steunenberg.

MINE WAS FIRED BY LONG WIRE. Shoshone County Offers Reward of $10,000 for Arrest of Assassin and Sends its Sheriff to Assist in Work.

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 31.—A man has been arrested at Caldwell who, it is believed, may be the assassin of Governor Frank Steunenberg. His name has not been reported. Five men in all have been detained on trivial charges, under which their whereabouts may be looked up.

When daylight dawned on the scene of the tragedy it was found that the dynamite had been exploded by pulling a wire. Pieces of wire and waxed fusilene were found in the trees on the lawn. Further, it is believed that the wire was used to make certain of carrying out the purpose of the assassination. They seem to have been together, both being pulled at once. It was quite definitely determined during the night that the mine was fired by a wire. The explosive was placed against the post against which the wire was used to make certain the mine was fired by a wire and that the assassin, knowing his habit of making the stop to close the gate, waited until he turned around.

Shoshone county has offered a reward of $10,000 for the apprehension of the murderer and has sent its sheriff to assist in the search. It was in that county, in the northern end of the state, that the Coeur d'Alene riots occurred in 1896. It is believed the funeral will be held in Boise, the body lying in state in the capitol building.

THREE MEN IN SWEATBOX.

The officers at Caldwell have three men whom they are awaiting vigorously. Believing one or more of them to be the assassin of the governor, they have taken knowledge of the crime. One is named Hogan and is said to have been a miner. He has been around town for three weeks and has told flimsy stories about his business. Another is a stranger who appeared at the explosion, took a gun after the explosion, took a gun after the explosion, took a gun after the explosion.

The assemblymen, who took this action at a meeting of the Independence league, the organization which succeeds the Municipal Ownership league at the Gilsey house this afternoon, informed Mr. Wainwright by telephone of their endorsement of him. After thanking them the assemblyman said he would start for Albany tomorrow, where headquarters would be opened.

Twenty of the assemblymen at today's conference are listed among the 111 republican members of the assembly. Mr. Wainwright announced his independent candidacy some time ago, but had not been pressing it actively.

HEAD SPLIT OPEN WITH AXE

Richard Washington of Lexington, Ky., Murdered While Asleep—Wife Charged with Crime.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 31.—Murdered in his sleep, Richard Washington, a hostler at the Mansfield stock farm, was found today with his head split open with an axe. His wife is under arrest charged with the crime.

The police hurried to the Mansfield place today in response to a telephone message from Washington's wife saying her husband had been killed. A bloody axe and a dress belonging to the Washington woman, stained with blood and having the appearance of having been washed, were found concealed.

She alleges that two white men entered the house last night, each having a club, and beat Washington into insensibility. The detectives have quizzed her relentlessly all day, but she adheres to her story of the killing.

BLOW TO UNIONIST PARTY

Date of Devonshire Advises Free Trade Wing to Vote for the Liberal Candidates.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—The Duke of Devonshire, liberal unionist, has issued an important election manifesto, in which he virtually advises the free trade unionists to support the liberal candidates rather than the protectionist unionists. By treating the home rule question as a mere side issue, he deals the strongest blow yet delivered against Mr. Balfour's election tactics.

The duke asserts that there is no indication that the opinion of the country has changed since the rejection of the home rule bill, and that it is in the highest degree improbable that the government of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman will incur the risk of introducing such another measure in the parliament. Therefore, he says, the question of free trade versus protection must be the paramount issue in the coming elections, and he declares there must be no deviation from attachment to free trade.

The duke confesses that he knows no more now than when he left the late government of what is implied by the Balfourian fiscal scheme, which his authors declare to be acceptable to free traders and protectionists alike. On the other hand, he says there is no ambiguity about the Chamberlain propaganda, which is avowedly protectionist.

The manifesto contends that the unionist party organization has largely been completed by the protectionist wing, and that should the party become predominantly protectionist there will either be real danger to free trade or the prospect of the exclusion of the union party for an indefinite period from power.

The duke declares that it is the duty of the unionist free traders to take such action as to prove that the unionist party in power or in opposition is still unconvinced to a retrograde fiscal policy which would be proposed.

GREAT REVIVAL OF RELIGION

Change in Mental and Moral Attitude of the Multitude Wrought by Force from Within.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 31.—Rev. Washington Gladden, moderator of the Congregational churches of the United States, in a sermon delivered from his pulpit today declared that the world is in the midst of a great revival of religion that has been about as gradually that few have realized it. Dr. Gladden said in part:

There has been during the last year a marked change in the mental and moral attitude of a great many persons, hundreds of thousands of people, old and young, are thinking differently about life, about the world, about the future. I think that we are in the midst of a great revival of religion—the greatest, perhaps, that this country has ever experienced. It has not taken on the usual form, it has not been conducted in the traditional way, but it is the genuine thing, it is the very thing that is needed. When great multitudes are thinking differently about life, about the world, about the future, I think that we are in the midst of a great revival of religion—the greatest, perhaps, that this country has ever experienced.

What shall we say about the influence which has so changed the mental and moral attitude of great multitudes of people? The religion which is being revived, I think that we are in the midst of a great revival of religion—the greatest, perhaps, that this country has ever experienced.

It is the genuine thing, it is the very thing that is needed. When great multitudes are thinking differently about life, about the world, about the future, I think that we are in the midst of a great revival of religion—the greatest, perhaps, that this country has ever experienced.

It is the genuine thing, it is the very thing that is needed. When great multitudes are thinking differently about life, about the world, about the future, I think that we are in the midst of a great revival of religion—the greatest, perhaps, that this country has ever experienced.

NEW RICHMOND IN FIELD

J. Maynew Walworth Candidate for New York Speakership and Has Twenty-Four Votes Pledged.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—With endorsement of twenty-four members of the state assembly, nearly all of whom received the support of the Municipal Ownership league in the last election, Assemblyman J. Maynew Walworth was again placed in the race for speakership of the New York state assembly tonight.

The assemblymen, who took this action at a meeting of the Independence league, the organization which succeeds the Municipal Ownership league at the Gilsey house this afternoon, informed Mr. Wainwright by telephone of their endorsement of him. After thanking them the assemblyman said he would start for Albany tomorrow, where headquarters would be opened.

Twenty of the assemblymen at today's conference are listed among the 111 republican members of the assembly. Mr. Wainwright announced his independent candidacy some time ago, but had not been pressing it actively.

At Albany tonight Assemblyman Wadsworth, Governor Higgins' candidate, and Assemblyman Merritt, commonly known as former Governor Odell's candidate, expressed their confidence in election.

PRINTERS' STRIKE IN CHICAGO

Over Two-Thirds of Members of Union Now Have Eight-Hour Contracts.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The eight-hour day was given a New Year's salutation by 2,600 union printers this afternoon in a demonstration at Brandt's hall.

Figures were offered to show that out of 3,500 members of the union, 2,400 are to come under the eight-hour day.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Typographical union No. 6, one of the largest aggregations of wage-earning printers in the world, today formally declared a strike in all the book and job printing offices within its jurisdiction and tomorrow not a line of type will be set or cast by a union man in any of the great printing establishments unless the employers shall agree to make eight hours the length of the workday and at the present scale of wages paid for a nine-hour day.

BIRTH OF THE NEW YEAR

Exact Instant Flashed to All Parts of Western Hemisphere.

FOUR SIGNALS SENT FROM WASHINGTON

Naval Observatory Ticks Off the Hour for Each Time Belt in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Telegraphic signals announcing the birth of the new year 1906 were flashed from the naval observatory here tonight through the medium of the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph companies. The signal was ticked off at 12, 1, 2 and 3 o'clock, respectively, so as to conform to the night hours for eastern, central, Rocky mountain and Pacific coast time, respectively. The midnight signal was repeated to all points readily available by the telegraph companies throughout the United States to Honolulu, Guam and Manila and through Mexico and points in the West Indies to South America and to England and France. The midnight signal was also flashed to the wireless telegraph stations with a view of its communication to ships at sea. No attempt was made, as on previous occasions, of circumventing the globe with the flash signal.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 1, 1906.—The advent of the New Year was the occasion tonight of the usual noisy demonstrations throughout the city of New York. The fact that New Year's eve fell on Sunday did not dampen the enthusiasm of the tens of thousands of people who paraded the streets blowing great tin horns, ringing bells of all descriptions and finally with the coming of midnight resorting to all sorts of methods for the production of noise.

The chiming of old Trinity brought to lower Broadway and Wall street the greatest throng of merry-makers. For years the bells of this historic church have been rung as the signal of a new year's birth and the attraction caused an attraction of being in hearing of their melodious tones when the last minutes of the old year slipped away. Great cheers greeted the chiming of the chimes tonight and later when the strains of an old-fashioned hymn were heard many of those in the crowded streets of the neighborhood uncovered their heads and joined in singing the familiar words.

In the theater and restaurant district of upper Broadway the crowds in the streets at Sunday night concerts and in the cafes was the largest in years. In the uptown streets many merry-makers in carnival spirit indulged in confetti battles.

DENVER BOYS CONFESS MURDER

Leslie Francisco and Charles Eslick Say They Killed Frank L. Scott, a Prominent Business Man.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 31.—Leslie Francisco, 20 years of age, and Charles Eslick, 18 years of age, made sworn statements to Police Chief Adams today in which they admit the shooting of Frank L. Scott, a prominent business man, on December 20. They are now confined in the county jail and in view of the frequent threats to lynch the prisoners, Sheriff Primes has placed a large force of armed men in the jail and announced his determination to protect the prisoners at all hazards.

Eslick said they intended to hold up the first man they saw going to the station and rob him. When they saw Scott with a valise in each hand they told him to halt. Eslick held the revolver, and he went off the bullet striking Scott in the back. Scott died several days afterward.

PRESIDENT IS IN WASHINGTON

Chief Executive Delighted with Effect of Brief Vacation in Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The president and Mrs. Roosevelt, with their two children, Kermit and Archie, returned to Washington at 11 o'clock tonight from their visit to Pine Knob, Va., where they have been staying since Wednesday last. They were driven immediately to the White House.

The president seemed to be in a specially happy mood and cordially greeted the crowd of policemen and employees who had awaited his coming. As he left the station he greeted the throng with a friendly nod to those gathered about him. During his trip to Washington he expressed himself as having had a delightful time, and to have been greatly benefited by his outing. The wild turkey and other game which the president had bagged during his four days' stay in the neighborhood of Pine Knob were brought to Washington.

M'SHANE SAW MILL DESTROYED

Omaha Men Lose Entire Plant on Big Horn Forest Reserve by Fire.

RANCHESTER, Wyo., Dec. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—Word reached this city Saturday morning of a big fire. McShane's saw camp on the Big Horn forest reserve, which totally destroyed the big sawmill of the company.

Both F. J. and J. H. McShane were in Omaha at the time and arrived in Ranchester yesterday and went up to the camp this morning. They were unable to give any particulars except that the mill was a total loss and that no insurance was carried on it. The lumber around the mill was saved, but the large boilers and engine were wrecked and it was thought will have to be replaced by new ones. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $500,000.
