embassy has passed since last New Year's day, owing to change of ambassadors.

Baron Rosen, the new ambassador, appeared at his first reception today wearing many decorations and accompanied by Mrs. Baroness Rosen and members of his staff.

Senator Don Josquin D. Cassius, the ambassador from Mexico, was not present, probably on account of scarlet fever in his family.

Ministers Follow Ambassadors. When the ambassadors and their staffs had passed into the Green room the president began his reception of the ministers and charges who followed in quick succession.

A new nation made its appearance at the White House today, that of Norway, which was represented by the charge d'affaires, M. C. Haug, and for the first time Mr. Grip was today announced merely as the minister from Sweden.

As soon as the diplomatic corps had been received the secretary of state and Mrs. Root left the receiving line and returned to their residence, where they entertained the corps at breakfast.

Then the line followed the justice of the supreme court, senators, representatives and delegates in congress, officers of the army, navy and marine corps.

At 12:30 the reception of the various military and other societies began.

At 1 o'clock the reception of the citizens took place.

The reception ended at 2:44 p. m. By actual count 9,042 people shook the president's hand. Last year 7,115 were received.

LIQUOR GOES INTO SEWER

Police Court Hangers on Sign When They See it Disappear.

DRUG STORES OF CITY BEING RAIDED

W. L. Richard, a Stockman from Humboldt, Disappears and Police Asked to Be on the Look-out for Him.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—With Chief Cooper this morning destroyed a large quantity of liquor taken from the drug store of A. L. Shader in a recent raid.

The destruction was made upon the order of Judge Frost of the district court after Shader had pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license.

The chief had made an agreement to return the stuff to Shader, as terms of a settlement with him were, but the court made him get the stuff again.

Shader, however, tricked the police by substituting a number of bottles of colored water, and the best efforts of the department have not availed to secure all of it.

Sixteen half pints, fourteen pints and three quarts of whisky were allowed to go down into the sewer.

The police still have plenty of liquor on hand, however, and they raided the store of Steiner & Woepner, O street druggists, last night.

The officers happened into the place just as liquor was being served, and while the proprietors were in jail they took the keys they found on their persons and searched the place.

A half barrel of whisky and a great quantity of bottled goods of all kinds and kegs of wine were also secured.

Says He Had a Vision. George W. Pleasant, a colored preacher who also does a little barbering, told the police this morning that the "unidentified" believed to be a high explosive.

There was also something that looked like brown wrapping paper, but it would not burn. The contents of the grip are in the hands of chemists.

Inmate of Bull Pen. It is stated that Angus Sutherland, former sheriff of Shoshone county, who is on the ground, has recognized this man as one who was in the famous bull pen during the Cortez d'Alene riots in 1897.

PEACE TALK FROM BERLIN

German Foreign Secretary Says His Nation Could Gain Nothing by War.

CRUISE OF APPREHENSION IN FRANCE

Fear that Charges of Bad Faith Against Germany, Will Be Re-asserted in Such Manner as to Provoke Conflict.

BERLIN, Jan. 1.—The German Foreign office has been aware that nervousness existed in France among the cabinet ministers and people over the possibility of a renewed controversy with Germany.

What could Germany gain by a war? Inquiries were made here by the French financial interests last week as to the possibilities of Germany provoking a war with France, and German bankers, who are extremely well informed politically, replied that there wasn't the slightest indication that the German government contemplated aggressive action toward France.

Only presumption and vain glory. It was added, "would suggest war when nothing moral or material could be gained by it while all the solid considerations of commerce and orderly internal development, besides the thoroughly pacific policy of the emperor are immovably in the way of fighting for ambition alone."

Case of Apprehension in France. The apprehensions in France appear to be due to a reasonable certainty that Germany will oppose France's position at the Moroccan conference, now only a fortnight off, and also to the fact that France's official attitude toward Morocco was too far in accusing Germany of assuming a provocative attitude and charging Germany with bad faith.

Count Loubet Talks Peace. PARIS, Jan. 1.—President Loubet's New Year's reception to members of the diplomatic corps gave opportunity for a significant exchange of peace sentiments, evidently designed to offset the recent wave of pessimism which has gripped the military honors were rendered on the arrival of the members.

Count Loubet, in extending to President Loubet the felicitations of his colleagues and himself, said that he was not giving expression to mere formal sentiments of fraternity.

It is with the deepest satisfaction that I feel that the object of my desires, which were expressed a year ago, have been fulfilled. The moral power attained by peace ideas throughout the world has played a great part in this happy result.

President Loubet, in reply, said: It is with the deepest satisfaction that I feel that the object of my desires, which were expressed a year ago, have been fulfilled.

CANAL COMMISSION MEETS

Members Hold Conference with Chief Engineer Stevens Regarding Type of Waterway.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The Interim Canal commission held a short session here today. Chief Engineer Stevens, who came to Washington to present his views on the commission on the type of canal that should be constructed, was requested to submit any project which he may have for the excavation, removal and final disposition of the excavated material to be taken out of Cutlers cut for a canal with a summit of eighty-five feet above low tide, and also to inform the commission whether or not he has worked out or has a project for a sea level waterway.

The commission authorized the chairman to appoint a committee to review, approve, condemn or dispose of material left on the Isthmus by the old French company, which must necessarily be removed. The committee proposed for securing labor from the north of Spain was approved.
