S. J. Sullivan, a young man who is heir to a large estate in Memphis, Tenn., and who enjoys a weekly allowance of $20 from his guardian, was arrested last evening. charged with the theft of a package containing a suit of clothes, a pair of woman's shoes and a pair of man's overshoes, all of the value of about $9 and the property of J. B. Barnes.

Sullivan met Barnes, who is a farmer from Harlan, Ia., in a saloon at 1022 South Main street, during the afternoon. Barnes' pocketbook was empty, and young Sullivar offered to loan his new found friend some money, but the Harian man declined the offer. Sullivan purchased a number of drinks and on leaving the saloon walked into the back room, where Barnes had placed his package, and w 'ked off with it. When arrested later in his room at the Gallagher house he was found to be wearing Barnes' suit.

Sullivan, when taken to the city jail said the only reason he could give for taking the package was that he had been drinking a quantity of absinthe and did not know what he was doing. Letters and papers on the young man showed that he was heir to a large estate in Memphis, the clerk of the district court may be gathfrom which he had an income of $5,000 a year, but that his guardian only gave him an allowance of $20 a week.

via Missouri, Kansas @ Texas R'y. On January 2d and 16th, February 6th and 20th, most lines will sell both one-way and round trip tickets at exceptionally low rates. If your nearest railroad agent cannot give you the rates, write me for cannot give you the rates, write me i particulars. If you're in any way interested in the southwest. I'd like to send you my paper, "The Coming Country." Address

If you've never been southwest to Okla-homa, Indian Territory or Texas-there is a treat in store for you. Besides escaping the wintery weather here, a trip now may prove of far greater benefit to you. There are more and better opportunities for mak-ing money-for home building-in the south-west today than anywhere else. You have only to get on the ground to prove this.
