The found that the house had not been broken into forcibly, but an unbolted kitchen door, which the house servants claimed was securely fastened during the night, gave a possible cine that someone had passed out of the house by that means. There was no Waistings at Our Flannel Design of a weapon.

Charles A. Hiller lived in the homestead with two servarts. He is unmarried. He came to this city from Salina, Kan., where he was a judge about four years ago. He is a Thirty-third degree Mason. A. Maxey Hiller is a lawyer and lives at 43 Temple street. He is very prominent in affairs.

Mr. Edwards was about 60 years old and a descendant of Jonathan Edwards, one of the early presidents of Yale, and was related to many families of distinguished ancestry. He was graduated from Vale in the academic class of 1866, and was an extremely popular member of the class 'Charley' Edwards, as he was known Women's Black Cashmere Hose, high throughout Yale in those days, was one of the fathers of base ball at Yale and played on several of the early university Women's Black Cashmere Hose, fullashioned, double soles, heels and toes, 500 nines. Her ashioned, natural wool feet, double heels estate has not yet been settled and it stated that the attempted division of the property caused a bitter disagreement be tween the Hillers and Mr. Edwards. For almost five hours Deputy Corone Pond conducted the preliminary inquest Those who were examined were A. Maxes Pond was asked after the inquest whether or not the shooting, in his mind, was the result of a quarrel between members of the Hiller family, but declined to speak definitely on that point.

Sensations Hinted At. Dr. Chency said tonight that when he arrived at the home Mr. Edwards was dead. Mr. Edwards was dressed in his underclothes. There were black powder marks on the left ear of the dead man, according opposition to displacing the Philippine bill to Dr. Cheney, but there was no sign of powder on his fingers. It was stated to night by one close to the situation regard ing the alleged differences between the Hilbute on the Philippine bill. The measure lers and Mr. Edwards that about three weeks ago Mrs. Edwards came to New Haven, and at that time there was trouble over the settlement of the estate of the elder Mrs. Hiller, who died a few weeks before. It is alleged that Mrs. Edwards called at police headquarters for a police man to accompany her to the railroad station in order to protect her from the threat ened violence of certain members of the family. The police tonight state that the case probably will develop into one of the nost sensational in the annals of crime in New Haven. A police guard was kept over the Hiller homestead tonight, no one being allowed to enter the grounds. A. Maxey Hiller is quoted tonight as saying that he believes that Mr. Edwards died as the re-suit of a stroke of apoplexy. The autopsy probably will be performed tomorrow morning. Medical Examine Bartlett, who viewed the body, refused to make a statement concerning the probabi cause of death.

AN ERROR

In its annual review of the financial institutions of the city The Bee erroneously gave the assets of this Association at $142,-000,00. This is incorrect, as our net resources on the 1st inst. were $1,516,986.44. Our increase last year amounted to the record-breaking (for a savings institution) sum of $319,688,80. Our dividend rate for the year was 6 per cent, necessitating the distribution of $69,-449.49 to pay same. Since its organization this Association has disbursed $330,419.32 as dividends to its numerous stockholders. Our reserve and undivided profit account now amount to $57,000,00.

Savings of $1.00 or more and investments of from $100.00 to $5,000.00, on which eash dividends are paid semi-annually, are received by us any day.
