CROWE WANTS EARLY TRIAL

Attorney A. S. Ritchie Protests He Would Be Ready Monday.

ARGUING ENGINE HOUSE BONDS

Suit of Isabel Linn, Involving Validity of Voting Machine Election, Before Judge Troup.

SAYS CROWE WAS NOT WANTED

"It is also common knowledge that, though the defendant was in and around Omaha for a long time, he was not wanted in this case. No lawyer and no judge since the beginning of the world has ever held that a charge of robbery could be proved in a case such as this. It is an outrage to try to put this trial off when we stand ready to go ahead with it at once."

Reappointment of Mathews' Deputies by Warner Not Necessarily Permanent.

M'CAIGUE MAKES SELECTIONS

President of Board of Education Announces Appointments of His Committees.

NEW UNITED STATES MARSHAL DECLINES

To Discuss the Matter of Final Confirmation of Selections Made.

IT HAS BEEN NO SECRET

That the reappointment of the four old deputy marshals is not regarded as absolutely permanent, and each of the reappointed marshals feels that a string is attached to his position. The only permanent appointment is that of Crawford Kennedy of Lincoln.

SENATOR MILLARD STATED

In an interview in the Bee upon his return from Washington in December, "that the matter of the deputy marshals would be left entirely to Marshal Warner, as they were responsible to him and he would be given free rein in the selection of his assistants."

ALLEN PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Leal, who is awaiting and killing his brother-in-law, Lee Jarrett, was arraigned before Judge Day Saturday morning. He entered a plea of not guilty and said he had retained Attorney Crow to defend him. His date has been set for trial. Allen shot and killed Jarrett at the latter's home during a quarrel on the night of December 5.

CONTENTIONS OF THE FORMER SECOND ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY

Judge Troup has taken the case under advisement.

PLEAS FOR LOWER BOND OVERRULED

Mr. Ritchie then moved for a reduction of bail, saying: "We are not going to run away from this case, because we have no fear of it. The defendant is not so situated that he can give a very large bond. He is not a millionaire, like the prosecutor in this case, who can make $50,000. The time he has in his hands probably can find friends to give a reasonable bond."

CITY ATTORNEY BREEN, ASSISTANT HERDMAN

and Attorney A. G. Ellick put in the larger part of Saturday arguing before Judge Troup the issue of bonds voted in November for the construction of new engine houses. The amount of bonds authorized to be issued for such purpose a $25,000 and the issue has already been sold to J. L. Brandeis & Sons.

THE PETITION ITSELF ATTACKS THE VALIDITY

of the election by voting machines, as well as the right of the council to issue bonds for the purchase of a site. In his argument Mr. Ellick contended that "the city cannot issue bonds for the purchase of a site if the same can be secured in any other way; that such power so to purchase is not expressly given in the city charter and that it was purposely omitted by the legislature because of what Mr. Ellick alluded to as "the rape of the public treasury when the site at Eleventh and Jackson was purchased for $15,000, and a site across the street could have been secured for $5,000."

MESSRS. BREEN AND HERDMAN ARGUED that there is really nothing set up in the petition sufficient to constitute a cause of action and that they were surprised by the
