Investigation Shows that Council Bluffs Gets Cheaper Water Service Than Other Cities in lown.

E. W. Hart, manager of the city water works company, when asked yesterday if the proposition as outlined at the meeting Saturday night of the committee of the whole of the city council to permit the company to operate at the expiration of its present franchise under a contract pending a settlement of the negotiations for the purchase by the city of the plant would be agreeable to his company, said:

"All I know about the proposition is from what I read in the newspapers this morning. The special committee appointed by the city council to confer with the water works company has not yet waited on me relative to this new proposition, owing to the fact that it was only brought up Saturday night. Until the proposition is laid before me I am not in a position to express any opinion regarding it. I presume, however, that the newspaper accounts are substantially correct.

"I shall be pleased to meet with the committee and take up the question of the proposed contract and adjustment of rates and do everything possible to bring about a speedy and amicable solution of the

Regarding the adjustment of rates, it is known that inquiries made by some of the held at the home of Mrs. W. W. Wallace, aldermen regarding rates charged private consumers in other cities of this state developed the fact that the rates charged by the water works company in this city were lower than those elsewhere throughout the state.

The city council is scheduled to meet in adjourned regular session tonight, at which time a report on the proceedings of the committee of the whole Saturday night, it is expected, will be made and steps taken toward some definite agreement between the city and the water works company as to the latter continuing to operate until the courts shall have decided the right of the city to issue the necessary bonds for the acquirement of the plant.

Revenue Cut Off. It just happened that the day following Rev. Henry DeLong, as probation officer of the juvenile division of the district court, was granted permission by the Board of County Supervisors to establish an office in the county court house he was called upon to officiate at two marriages in the office of the clark of the district

Justice Field viewed with alarm the in novation of having a minister of the gospel on hand at the court house to officiate at marriages. During the year just past Justice Field efficiated at 221 weddings, but with Rev. Henry Delons in competition and with headquarters in the court house he saw a shrinking in his marriage fees. He decided that prompt action was necessary, so he sat down and A. A. Clark & Co. drew up a protest which he intended presenting to the Board of County Supervisors. The document set forth that providing Rev. Henry DeLong with an office in the court house in close proximity to of the Ozark Zinc & Lead Mining company of Council Bluffs will be held tomorrow evening at the office of G. W. Lipe, in the Baldwin block. the reverend gentleman an undue advantage over the justices of the peace, not to mention the other ministers of the gospel throughout the city.

The protest was duly drawn up and signed by Justice Field, who sent it by his constable to Justice E. B. Gardiner to secure the latter's signature and endorsement. Justice Gardiner, however. who since his election to office had secured the short end of the marriages, declined to attach his signature to the document and he sent word to Justice Field that he was in no way aggrieved at having Rev. Henry DeLong quartered in the court house and at the same time, judging from the number of marriages that Justice Field had performed during the last twelve months in comparison to those he had officiated at, he did not quite understand how Justice Field had any complaint com-

The refusal of Justice Gardiner to attach his official signature to the protest resulted in Justice Field deciding not to present the document to the Board of County Supervisors.

Suspected of Turning in Alarms. Richard Devaney, a young fellow well known to the police, was taken into custody last night and will be detained pending an investigation. Suspicion points to Devaney as being the person who has within the last few months turned in several false fire alarms. Friday night when the department was called by a still alarm to the old implement warehouse on Eighth avenue young Devaney was the first on hand to direct the firemen to where the blaze was.

Last night about 8:30 the department was called by a still alarm to the Burlington roundhouse, where it was found that fire had started in the cab of one of the locomotives, but that there was no need for the fire department. Chief Nicholson learned that young Devaney, who was nearby when the fire in the cab was dis-

Majorities.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Jan. 7 .- (Special.)-To unsolve the tangle in the contest for the seat for O'Brien county between Whitmer, the lemocrat, and Youde, the republican, will take the best efforts of the best constitutional lawyers of the house. Thus far there is no one who is able to say how the house should proceed, since there is no precedent as a guide. Governor Cummins believed he had no alternative except to call a special election when the county auditor of O'Brien county notified him that there was a vacancy in the position of representative, and so he ordered the election. It is now claimed that as Youde has the certificate of latest date from the secretary of state the house will have to allow him to be sworn when the members take the oath At the annual meeting this afternoon of next Monday. Then it is claimed that the Woman's Christian association officers Whitmer will be forced into the position of and a board of managers will be elected, being the contestant. But the thirty days Changes in the personnel of the board have previous to the opening of the session in which contests are allowed has expired and tional amendment to be voted on at this it is next claimed that Whitmer having allowed the limit of time to expire cannot contest for the seat. This would force him clear out and give the sent to Youde. If posed to have the directors serve for two this is permitted then every time a county years, three being elected each year, auditor notifies the governor of a vacancy the governor will be forced to call an election and the result will be that no member the name of the hospital and that of the will be secure of his seat if the auditor training school for nurses in addition to takes it in his head to declare a vacancy other minor details. UNIONIST POLICY ARRAIGNED Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman Delivers an Address to the Voters.

LONDON, Jan. 7.-The election address of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the premier, is wholly devoted to a severe indictment of the late government's record and its policy on protection and to referring the electors to his public declaration on assuming office for an exposition of his government's intended policy. The premier declares that the last decade represents a well-nigh unbroken expanse of mismanagement and legislation conducted for the benefit of privileged classes, of wars and adventures abroad hastily empremier, is wholly devoted to a severe barked upon and hastily pursued, and the $1,000 added. legacy the unionists bequeathed to their successors is in the main a legacy of embarrassment, public mischief and confusion absolutely appalling in its extent and ramifications. He declines to regard Mr. Halfour's free trade tenets as having more than a nominal place in the estimation of the majority of the unionists, whose fiscal reform policy he holds is fraught with incalculable mischief to the nation and the empire. He characterizes protection as immoral and oppressive, based, as he said it must be, on the exploitation of the community in the interest of favored trades and financial groups and declares the policy of his government will be to hold fast to the time-honored principles of liberalism, peace, economy, self government and civil and religious liberty and to pursue a substantial continuity of the foreign policy without departing from the friendly and unprovocative methods adhered to by previous liberal administra-

The Morning Post, in a long article discussing the fiscal question, points out that retaliation alone will be a practically useless weapon against the United States and other protectionist countries. To be effective, the paper says, retaliation must be combined with colonial preference. It adds that with the help of Canada a 50-cent duty on foreign wheat would turn every wheatgrower in the western part of the United States into an opponent of the McKinley tariff

RUSSIAN LOAN POSTPONED Temporary Advance by Paris Bankers to Tide the Government

PARIS. Jan. 7. - M. Kokovsoff, former Russian minister of finance, who came here to negotiate another Russian loan, practically confirms the statement made in these dispatches yesterday that the loan has been postponed. French bankers are now considering the making of temporary advances in order to support the stability of Russian finances.

In the course of an interview today, Mr. Kokovsoff made a statement relative to Russia's real financial position. He said: The budget for 1906, which is about to be presented to the council of the empire. mprises an extraordinary budget of $246,500,000 of which only $5,000,000 covered by the excess of revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remains to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provisions for the repatriation of the troops in the far east, their maintenance until their to Russia and the reimbursement of Japan's outlay for the Russian prisoners of war. Other smaller extraordinary expenses include the maintenance of the families of reservists, succor for the victims of distress, railroad construction and subventions for the naphtha industry." M. Kokovsoff said Russia could, without difficulty, issue an internal loan to meet these expenses, but it was considered preferable not to float it until the second half of the year in order not to affect the proper administration of the national resources. Therefore, he said, it was thought desirable to arrange for foreign participation similar to that indicated yesterday,

In conclusion M. Kokovsoff said: "The difficulties through which we have just passed, though grave, were never sufficiently serious to affect Russian credit."
