

FAREWELL TO JUDGE KELLY

Union Pacific Family Gives Departing Member Pleasant Sendoff.

BANQUET MARKED BY KINDLY SPIRIT

Expressions of Friendship and Esteem Rite Evening and Regrets of All at Departure of Guest Are Expressed.

The complimentary farewell banquet tendered Judge William B. Kelly, retiring general solicitor of the Union Pacific Railroad company, by his recent associates in the official service of that company at the Omaha club last evening was an event to which any man might well point with pride and remember the rest of his natural life. It was a fitting close to a busy life and a graceful tribute for over a quarter of a century of untiring service in the legal department of the road Judge Kelly represented.

J. N. Baldwin, general attorney for Nebraska and Iowa, acted as toastmaster. On his right sat Judge Kelly, the guest of honor, while at his left sat A. L. Moller, vice president and general manager of the Union Pacific.

Before the post-prandial exercises proper were called Toastmaster Baldwin read tributes from the following officials of the Harriman lines who were unable to be present at the dinner: John H. Abe, William Mahl, controller, New York; Oliver W. Mink, Boston; Jacob G. Brinkerhoff, Kansas City; superintendent Kansas division; Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operation, Chicago; W. W. Cotton, general attorney, Oregon Railroad & Navigation company; J. C. Stubbs, general traffic manager, Chicago; Judge J. C. Cheyette, A. D. Williams, general attorney for Kansas, Topeka; William V. Hodges, general attorney, Denver; J. B. Berry, ex-chief engineer; Alexander Millar, secretary, New York; W. D. Cornish, vice president Harriman lines; John M. Thurston, Washington, D. C.; Robert S. Lovett, counsel, New York; and E. H. Harriman, President Harriman's message was a glowing tribute to Judge Kelly's faithful service.

Toastmaster Baldwin's remarks following the reading of the regrets made a pretty word picture of the reward Judge Kelly had earned through his long years of patient and loyal service. Judge Kelly responded by saying he had tried to follow the path of duty and labor during his service, and bespoke a kind word for those who with him had placed their shoulders to the wheel in making the Union Pacific railroad the great system it is today.

Vice President and General Manager Moller followed with a few words of kindly farewell and commendation, in which remarks he referred to the general loyalty among the official corps of the road.

Those present at the banquet were:

W. B. Kelly, E. Stanger, J. N. Baldwin, A. Treasurer, John A. Deuel, John A. Sheehan, A. L. Moller, R. J. Clancy, Edson Rich, R. Blaisdell, F. H. Anderson, W. F. Canada, J. H. Stafford, W. H. Garratt, J. A. Rutherford, W. R. Kelly, M. J. Munroe, A. D. Brown, E. H. Wood, E. Young, W. R. McKee, Jr., J. W. Park, C. W. Ware, J. W. Griffith, W. D. Lincoln, E. L. Lomax, R. E. Huntley, H. B. Manchester, C. J. Lane, C. L. Dundy, D. O. Clark.

ITCHING PAINFUL SORES ON HANDS

Suffered for a Long Time Without Relief—Had Three Doctors and Derived No Benefit—One Doctor Was Afraid to Touch Them—Soreness Disappeared and Hands Now Smooth After Application of CUTICURA SOAP AND CUTICURA OINTMENT

"For a long time I suffered with sores on the hands which were itching, painful, and disagreeable. I had three doctors and derived no benefit from any of them. One doctor said he was afraid to touch my hands, so you must know how bad they were; another said I never could be cured; and the third said the sores were caused by the dipping of my hands in water in the dye-house where I work. I saw in the papers about the wonderful cures of the Cuticura Remedies and procured some of the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In three days after the application of the Cuticura Ointment my hands began to peel and were better. The soreness disappeared, and they are now smooth and clean, and I am still working in the dye-house.

"I strongly recommend Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment to any one with sore hands, and I hope that this letter will be the means of helping other sufferers. Very truly yours, Mrs. A. E. Maurer, 2340 State St., Chicago, Ill., July 1, 1905."

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

To know that a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and a single anointing with Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, and purest and sweetest of emollients, will afford instant relief and refreshing sleep to skin-tortured babies and rest for tired and worn-out mothers.

WARE CASE SET OVER A DAY

Trial of Preacher Charged with Land Frauds Tuesday Morning.

GOVERNMENT HAS HOST OF WITNESSES

Motion to Quash Indictment Against Ware Has Been Filed and Will Take Up Some More Time.

A continuance in the Rev. George G. Ware case has been granted until 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, because of the fact that T. J. Mahoney, the principal attorney for the defense, is engaged in the trial of a case before the Douglas county district court. The jury was excused until Tuesday morning.

The government is ready to proceed with the trial and the host of witnesses already reported indicates the trial will be one of the most important of the land cases yet before the federal court in this state. There is a possibility that the beginning of the formal trial may be continued until later in the week, as a motion to quash the indictment against Ware has been filed by the attorneys for the defense, and this will, in all probability, be followed by a plea in abatement on the same general grounds of the motion to quash.

The witnesses for the government thus far reporting are: M. M. Wheeler, Deadwood; William Romine, St. Charles, Ia.; Albert J. Zaack, Ottumwa; Martin C. Stevenson, Council Bluffs; Reason Hudgell, Liberty, Ia.; Martin Stapleton, New Virginia, Ia.; George Baker, Creston, Ia.; C. L. Inman, H. L. Dawson, G. W. Dawson, A. L. Dawson, Spencer, Neb.; Elias Thomas, Ross Fleming, G. B. Lewis, J. B. Lewis, Thomas R. Jones, George W. Patterson, Brownville; H. M. Stevenson, Illinois; George Patton, Rosedale, Kan.; C. F. Wiley, Carleton; W. E. Black, F. J. Black, Theford; T. B. Ford, Central City; C. A. Edwards, Kearney; Francis C. Stevenson, Callaway; Orlin H. Lemon, James Ledwick, James Whitehead, A. J. Robertson, Broken Bow; John Kavinell, John J. Dunn, Henry Lauer, John C. Blue, Jacob F. Schaber, Charles McKibben, G. A. Rhodes, George W. Steadman, Sanford B. Brown, Max M. Lentz, Grand Island; William A. Downing, O. F. Hamilton, F. N. Cudebec, H. Boyer, R. W. Mahaffey, H. E. Gardner, Eugene Crane, E. C. Hewitt, John S. Neal, H. G. Lillard, L. L. Mercure, William Smith, Joseph Heelan, T. D. Heelan, W. C. Heelan, S. T. Eiwold, M. R. Fessenden, F. M. Stedely, W. P. Triester, G. W. Fuller, Milton Phox, W. A. Hedford, H. Hoffgard, R. H. Schimmin, G. K. Kramer, R. W. Boyer, H. C. Boyer, E. K. Boyer, H. J. Lauer, Mullen.

In addition to these, Harry Welsh and Frank Lambert, who also are under indictment jointly with Rev. George G. Ware, and who have pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy, will be witnesses for the government.

In addition to the motion to quash the indictment against Rev. George G. Ware, in the matter of the land conspiracy frauds charged against him, a motion was filed in the United States district court Monday evening by Ware's attorneys for an amendment of the plea of conspiracy in the same case. The two motions are booked for hearing before Judge Munger this morning. The same general allegations appear in the plea for abatement as occur in the motion to quash, being on the insufficiency of the indictment, and that it does not allege a criminal intent.

CHICKEN NESTS AND COOPS

Articles Will Be Manufactured by New Plant Which Has Just Been Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation are being prepared for a corporation to be known as the Bennington Manufacturing company. Interested in the company are County Commissioner Solomon and other Omaha men, who have established offices in The Bee building. The capital stock of the company is to be $25,000, all paid up. The company will manufacture at first two specialties for poultry raisers, Glandt's hen nest and Solomon's folding poultry coop. The latter has been made by the Solomon Manufacturing company of Omaha, but the two companies will now be combined. Eventually the facilities are to be greatly enlarged.

The men behind the new institution are among the most substantial in Douglas county, who use the contrivances themselves and know their merits.

"We have interested," said Mr. Solomon, "practical poultry raisers and solid farmers, who have evinced their faith by their subscription. Among them are C. W. Glandt, William P. Mangold, Charles Grau, Claus Ernst, Fred Oht, George Dierks and Hans Meeves of Bennington, Henry F. Heide of Benson and others. The factory at Bennington has been installed for some time, with a complete outfit of machinery, much of it of special design and of Mr. Glandt's own invention.

"The articles the company is to manufacture are not experiments, but have been advertised and are in practical use all over the west. We expect the factory to far outgrow its present proportions and it probably is not out of bounds to say that it is simply the pioneer industry of many that will eventually make Omaha the distributing point for poultry raisers' supplies for all this section of the west."

RICH SOIL WAITS SETTLERS

Phelps and Harlan Counties Offer Big Inducements to Industrious Farmers.

W. H. Cowell, a prominent land owner of Holdrege, is in the city for a few days arranging with the railroads to send a few more settlers to some of the "richest land on the face of the earth."

"We have land in both Phelps and Harlan counties and lucky was the man who bought land there three years ago, when we were out looking for settlers," he says, "land which was then sold for $20 an acre is now held at $25, which is not a bad investment for three years. During the past two years our firm alone has sold over 200 farms to settlers in these two counties and this spring over 10,000 acres of virgin soil will be called upon to yield forth a crop for the first time. We do not need irrigation as the rainfall has been sufficient for years without a crop failure.

"We will have a large acreage of winter wheat and the weather and moisture for this could not have been made better to order. As soon as the winter is safely passed all this acreage of wheat will increase in value at least $5 an acre. There is plenty of land to be had at reasonable figures and the newly created land department of the Burlington will soon be in shape to give information to prospective settlers."

MULLEN MAN SEEKS CHILD

Wants to Adopt One and is Even Willing to Take Top of Them.

W. P. Smith, a well-to-do stock farmer of Mullen, while in the city as a witness in the land cases at the United States court, wishes to adopt a homeless boy from 5 to 12 years of age, or a boy and his sister, should they both be without a home and desirous of being adopted into a comfortable home, such as Mr. Smith says he will give them. The Mullen citizen called on Police Matron Gibbons yesterday afternoon and it is requested that anyone interested in the matter communicate with the police matron who will advise Mr. Smith.

Whisky Drives Him Mad.

J. J. Molder of Seventeenth and Nicholas streets was arraigned in police court on the charges of drunkenness and disturbing the peace by carrying concealed weapons and threatening to shoot two women at 123 Webster street. It was reported Molder called on the women at that number and upon their refusal to accompany him, he tried to persuade them with a revolver. Officer Cullen made the arrest and the police judge imposed a fine of $7 and costs.

Postoffice Robber Locked Up.

Deputy United States Marshal J. O. Moore returned from the northern part of the state Monday evening, bringing with him Patrick O'Brien, who is charged with breaking into the postoffice at Pleasanton, Neb., in default of bail the accused was lodged in the county jail to await his hearing at the ensuing term of the United States district court.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The New York State Association Opposed to the Extension of Suffrage to Women, which is the strongest and foremost "anti" organization, has just issued its tenth annual report. It is a pamphlet of twelve pages, several of which are devoted to an argument that women generally do not want the ballot, and that the whole movement is on the decline. In justifying its own existence as an opposing force to a dead issue it says: "Because in studying the methods of the National Woman Suffrage association we cannot fail to perceive its scope. Its work is performed by a rotary movement which brings the same national suffrage leaders to each state in their regular turn. It is this association which directs the work of the suffrage campaign and which, being national in its character, seems more formidable than it really is. The experience in our own work has convinced us that the suffrage workers in any state should be a negative force without the outside assistance of this body, which is admirably organized and which derives a large part of its financial revenue from dues paid into its treasury by state organizations in states that have repeatedly turned down woman suffrage. Any work would be impossible to establish it at the present time."

STREET RAILWAY ELECTION

Annual Meeting of Stockholders Chooses Same Directors and Officers.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company held Monday afternoon all of the old directors were re-elected. They are: Guy C. Barton, G. W. Wattle, W. V. Morse, W. A. Smith, C. R. Tyler, Frank T. Hamilton, Randall Morgan, Albert Strauss and Hugh J. McGowan.

The directors then elected the same officers for the coming year consisting of Guy C. Barton, president; Gurton W. Wattle, vice president; W. A. Smith, treasurer; R. A. Leisler, secretary. The president then appointed W. A. Smith as general manager and F. A. Tucker as general superintendent.

Omaha's Live Stock Show.

The January number of The and Spur, the leading horse show monthly of the country, had this to say concerning the prospects for a live stock show in Omaha next fall: "Omaha is to have a live stock show next fall, preceding Kansas City in the new Auditorium. W. J. C. Keisson, manager of the Omaha stock yards and a member of the Commercial club, has induced the city to raise a fund of $2,000 for that purpose. Mr. Keisson was a visitor at the International and laid the ground work for a big show among stockmen and fanciers. This will mean work for Kansas City to hold its own and active energy put out early in order to offer exhibitors next fall a suitable building for housing stock and exhibiting purposes. A stockman class to be held of affairs states that horsemen will heartily consider showing again at Kansas City unless they have adequate stabling quarters."
