DIVISION AMONG DEMOCRATS

House Minority Unable to Agree on Philippine Tariff Bill. WILLIAMS FAVORS PENDING MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Philippine tariff measure was the single topic of consideration in the house today. The speeches were uniformly against the measure and were allowed to go in general without answer. Discussion in the form of tariff revision discussion was made in a brief speech by Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts, who favored Canadian reciprocity.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Speaker Cannon's effort to win the insurgents over to the Hamilton joint statehood bill over met with little success apparently and the joint statehood proposition is still shrouded in uncertainty. The insurgents claim they have more than 55 votes, the number which, coupled with the solid democratic vote, will force a consideration of the Hamilton bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Representative Binger Hermann of Oregon, will be tried in the courts of the District of Columbia for complicity in the land fraud cases in Oregon, beginning the last week in March.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Minister Rockhill today called the State department from Peking that the Chinese government has agreed to make a thorough search to discover the whereabouts of Reuben H. Morley, a young man from Saginaw, Mich., who has disappeared in the interior of Northern China.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—A cablegram received from the State department today from Berlin says that Baron Richthofen, German minister for foreign affairs, has suffered a stroke of paralysis and is seriously and critically ill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—According to a bulletin issued today by the census bureau, 9,723,773 bales of cotton were ginned to January 1, 1906, counting round as half bales and excluding linters. Number of round bales in 1905, 28,284, and in 1904, 26,828. There was no report for corresponding period last year and comparative statistics are not available.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The postman Paulter, who on a cruise in South American waters and which has, on several occasions figured in international incidents, will, according to information received here, shortly visit Buenos Ayres and later make a trip along the Parana and the Paraguay rivers and call at Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay. The purpose of the visit, it is believed, is a desire to show its flag in the small republic, in which there are considerable German commercial interests.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

President Pro Tempore Schroeder Guides the Legislative Machine. ONLY ONE BIDDER FOR GASOLINE LIGHTS

President Pro Tempore Schroeder of the eighth ward last night assumed the gavel of the presiding officer of the city council for the first time. He was elected some months ago to the position of temporary president to succeed the late Councilman Nicholson, and seemed thoroughly at home and dispatched business with speed and dexterity.

ONLY ONE BIDDER FOR GASOLINE LIGHTS. The bid was received in response to an advertisement calling for proposals for gasolene lamps and maintenance or any other kind of lighting, the number of lamps not to be less than 250 and the contract to run from two to five years. The gasolene lamps are in the outskirts of the city, where gas mains or electric light wires do not run.

CLAIM AGENT OFFER VACANT. Mayor Miller held by Senator Clark the resignation of George C. Cockrell as city claim agent and that he proposed to appoint a successor, but asked for time to pick a man. He said the city clerk had informed him that the ordinance creating the office is still in effect.

PROPERTY OWNERS ASK REBATE. Another proposition handed the legal department was a proposed resolution to refund $254 out of the general sewer bond fund to sewer district 28 as one-third cost of construction. The sewer in question covers the area enclosed by Seventeenth, Twentieth, Vinton and Valley streets. It is represented that the sewer is twenty-four inches in diameter and is a combined storm water and sanitary sewer and that councilmen promised the property owners that the city would bear part of the cost.

BALDWIN SUCCEEDS KELLY. General Counsel of Union Pacific for Nebraska Becomes General Solicitor.
