Did We Get Your Order

A FEW more days and Nicoll's January Stock Reducing Prices will be a matter of history.

HUNDREDS of shrewd and economical buyers have availed themselves during the past week of this tempting opportunity to have garments made to order, at about cost of material and making.

YOU must see the fabrics to appreciate the price; you must feel of their excellent quality—and also see the workmanship and trimmings that we put into the garments.

MANY men—after examining the quality of the cloth—inspecting the workmanship and trimmings—seem puzzled at the very low price.

THERE'S no secret about it; it's simply Nicoll's way of cleaning up the surplus stock—the odds and ends and remnants that accumulate during a busy season's trade.

THERE'S mighty little profit in it for us—but in return we gain many hundred new friends, whose patronage remains with us permanently.

THE assortment is still liberal—and you'll pick from the best if you pick now.
