A tough, who was trying to get a drink without cost, went against the wrong man when he tried to intimidate Paul Coldren the other night. How was he to know the man whom he accosted was an athlete, a man who had been captain of the Iowa didn't know it at the time, but in less than two minutes after, he suspected the stranger had either played the great college game or busted bronchos.

of his pals, who had been waiting around the corner, saw what was going on and rushed to the assistance of their com-rade. Coldren decided he was no match
