NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
Bids will be received until four o'clock p. m. on Thursday, February 1, 1906, at the office of the undersigned, for the construction of a museum building for said university upon its grounds in Lincoln, according to plans and specifications prepared by Thos. R. Kimball, architect, McCague building, Omaha. Bidders must consult the architect before preparing and filing bids upon all matters which may appear to them uncertain in either plans or specifications, and must also examine carefully this notice and the forms of contract and bond on file with the said architect and the said superintendent. They must also personally inspect the university campus and the building site thereon selected. Bids must conform strictly to the plans and specifications and to the requirements of this notice. Copies of plans, drawings and specifications and other documents will be found both at the office of said architect in Omaha and of said superintendent in Lincoln. Each bidder must also present an alternative bid upon the use of a semi-vitreous Kansas brick as a substitute for the sand brick called for in the specifications and must make an allowance of fifty dollars for cost of making freproof architests. The bidder must furnish samples of the brick proposed to be substituted for inspection and test before the filing of his bid. Bidders must be prepared to furnish commercial ratings or satisfactory references upon their financial standing, if the same be required by the university authorities. Each bid must be accompanied by certified check on some Lincoln bank, payable to the University of Nebraska unconsitionally, for the sum of six hundred dollars. The check of the successful bidder, in case of an award will be held as guaranty for furnishing to the superintendent of construction schedules of materials with quantities and prices, signing the building committee. Will be board of regents or its building committee, will also be held pending negotiations for the board of Regents or its buildi veniently assembled.

The right is reserved to reject any or all blds.
