A half dozen visiting girls and women saved last week from absolute duliness, for, excepting a few card parties, everything was given in honor of somebody. As it was, the week was full, although in the main the affairs were ordinary enough. The small luncheon parties were especially numerous; there were not days enough to Chicago will be the officiating clergyman. go around among the many women who have complimented the visiting guests, and the small evening card parties were nearly as numerous. This week is not everly promising, if one is to judge by the calendar, but of course every one knows better than that nowadays, and as there are still a number of visiting girls in town, almost anything may be expected, for prople have to be ontertained, especially if the people happen to be bright, attractive

Do You Want to Know

What You Swallow? There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF REGION N COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the compo-sition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stemach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, brokendown, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphiet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. WHAT DO YOU CARE? HEALTH.

Great Natures Do Not Despair at Disappointment-They Look for Something Else to Do. The broad-gauged man of today does not get blue just because things don't always come his way unless there is something the matter with him. If he "falls on one proposition he immediately starts to look up another. He always looks forward and keeps on hustling. A man with his health and his faculties has plenty of opportunities and the man who gives up or even feels like it has either a small nature or some physical weakness.

Dyspensia certainly puts the best of men out of condition for work of any kind. You cannot blame the dyspeptic for getting blue. The very nature of his disease is most depressing and calculated to deprive him of ambition, energy and hope. There is hope for him, however, certain and

WOMAN I. CLUB AND CHARITY

Miss Clara Barton issued a charming Christmas greeting to her friends this year. It was a leaflet in holly wrapper and reads part: "I would also tell you that all is well with me; that, although the unerring record tells that on Christmas day of 1821eighty-four years ago-1 commenced this earthly life, still, by the blessing of God, am well and strong, knowing neither illness nor fatigue, disability nor despondency." She touches but briefly upon her work in the civil war and welcomes the assumption by the government the work of the Red Cross organization. Continuing, she says: "Now another work reaches out its hands to me and I take them. It is to organize in this country first aid to the injured-not new, but the time-honored St. John's ambulance of England and Germany and other European countries, /saving hundreds of lives and thereby millions of property year by year."

Mrs. W. P. Harford will repeat her address on "Additional Opportunities Through a United Movement for Women" delivered before the recent meeting of the American committee of the Young Women's Christian association at Chicago Monday evening after the "get one" banquet to be given in the association rooms. Mrs. Byers will be the other speaker and will tell something of how we are to get the new building.

The Baptist missionary quarterly will entertain the members of the Presbyterian missionary societies of Omaha and South Omaha at the First Baptist church January 26. Mrs. A. Upon request of the General Federation, civil service reform will have a conspicuous place on the club programs this month. The committee has taken up the study in earnest and hundreds of clubs all over the country will make a feature of the subject. The program to have presented by the Omaha Woman's club last Monday was postponed until January 29. Mrs. F. H. Cole is chairman of the committee.

The first children's day program that has been attempted in the Woman's club was presented Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the literature department with Mrs. Fred Crowley in charge. Louisa May Alcott was the authoress of the day and her best loved story, "Little Women," was presented by a cast of high school students, assisted by some of the club members Miss Rosina Mandleberg presented an excellent conception of the part of bighearted, fun loving, but withal serious Miss Irene Jaynes was the elder sister, "Meg." Miss Alice McCullough the YOU'VE GOT YOUR languid invalid "Beth" and Little Miss Janet Oehrle was "Amy." Mr. Hubert Owen was "Laurie," Mr. Ronald Andrews 'Mr. Lawrence," Mrs. J. O. Burger "Mrs. March" and Mrs George Shields took the part of "Hannah." A piano number by Miss Mirriam Glover, accompanied by Master Ernest and Miss Genevive Glover on violin and mandolin; an Irish monologue by Mrs. George Shields and a vocal solo, "The Song of the Suds," sung by Miss Edith Martin to music composed by Mr. Carroll Ragan, completed the program. Cream and confections were served at the close, about 300 children with their mothers being the guests of the afternoon.

The members of the Bellevue Woman's club and several representatives of the Omaha Woman's club were guests of Mrs. Mary Moody Pugh Saturday afternoon at her home in Dundee. The afternoon was devoted to a pure food program, conducted by Mrs. Pugh in the absence of Mrs. Stephen Phelps, president of the Bellevue club. for a Piano In order to thoroughly advertise our new Omaha store business policy, and at the same time secure a large number of good, live piano prospects, without using the expensive method of sending out travelers and canvassers to hunt them up, we propose to give away $1.650 in prizes to our most alert customers and charge the amount to advertising. For the first correct solution of the above rebus received at our office we will award the grand prize of $100, to be applied on the net purchase price of any new plano in our store. For the next two correct replies we will give each a credit of $75; the next five, $60 each; the next ten, $50, and the next fifteen, $40,

The name of each contestant will be filed in the order it is received, and the prizes awarded accordingly. Each plane in our store is marked in plain figures with the low net cash price which it has been sold for prior to the rebus contest. Each prize will be accepted at full face value on any piano selected at said net The difference may be paid in cash or monthly payments, with legal interest. SEND IN YOUR SOLUTION AT ONCE, so you may be too late to secure a prize. that you saw this ad in The Bee. Our line of pianos includes such noted and well known makes as the Weber,
