The meteorological station reports that a gale has been in progress on the island coast for the past two days. Off Vancouver taland a velocity of forty miles an hour was reported. A tremendous ser sweeps in near Cape Beale in heavy weather, with heavy breakers.

Captain James Gaudin, agent of marine who received the first message of the disaster from the lighthouse keeper at Carnanah bay, when asked his opinion as to the probable scene of the wreck, said it was, as far as he could judge from the dispatches, at Parcena bay, which is about half-way between Clo-Oose and Cape Beale. Separating the two points is a stretch of oast line probably ten miles long. Slightly nearer Cape Beale than Clo-Oose is a bay known as Pachema, at the entrance to which are the notorious Scabird rocks, on which not so well known as I would desire—that the steamer Michigan was wrecked about en years ago.

LINCOLN, Jan. 23 .- To the Editor of The Bee: In this morning's issue of The Bee I find "one well known democrat" liber ally quoted with respect to the contest fo the democratic nomination for mayor of Omaha. From that interview I quote: "R. L. Metcalfe, who might be thought out of Omaha politics since his removal to Lincoln, is one of the pushers behind the Dahlman candidacy. He has an old grudge against Ed P. Smith because the latter several years ago blocked Metcalfe's hopes of a congressional nomination by threatening to come out against him if Metcalfe made a bid for the place. Metcalfe some time ago declared that if Smith were a candidate he would come up to Omaha and leave no stone unturned to whip him. He is starting on his program beyond a doubt Dahlman's statement that he will make the race on his record as a Bryan demo crat is just what might have been expected. While I make due allowance for the fact that in the great game of politics The Bee's move is in that direction which will contribute to disorder among the opposidemocrats, do me the justice to print an unequivocal disclaimer? I did not know that James C. Dahlman was a candidate for mayor until I read the news in the Omaha newspapers.

Ed P. Smith, nor any other man, never "blocked Metcalfe's hopes of a congressional nomination." This is true because there has never been a time since I could earn a living as a newspaper man that I would have accepted even a certificate of election to the lower house of congress. The editor of The Bee is in a position to tell the uninitiated of the obstacles in the way of the newspaper man who aspires to high political office. I discovered long ago that one way for the newspaper man to be happy with the politicians of his own party is to throw away personal political ambition. My affection for the editor of The. Bee is so deep-scated-although perhaps I regret he continues in the pursuit of things which, according to my experience, will be denied him if denial rests within the power of the politicians whom he has Referring again to The Bee clipping:

did not at any time or place declare that "if Smith were a candidate he (I) would come to Omaha and leave no stone unturned to whip him." I have not in any way, directly or indirectly, interfered in the contest for the democratic nomination for mayor of Omalia. I have never aspired to rank as a politician, and I resent any effort to put me in that class.

During the time I was editor of a democratic newspaper in Omaha differences grew up between certain politicians and myself. These differences were, at times, Billy Nightingale, a youth who was reared aggravated by the tales of mutual friends and-I may say-"mutual enemies." then I was charged with political activities was arrested by Patrolman Cunningham on granted—as my profound respect for The route of Nelson, and his companions in It was the great regret of my life that it was necessary for me to leave Omaha. Judge Crawford took occasion to comment have always loved the town, and in leaving positively identify him, and the cheap controversies which, exist- absentees. ing among democratic politicians in that town, have made impossible democratic victory in Omaha's municipal affairs. Having rid myself of that burden. I respectfully misleading newspaper reports are concerned -to drag me into the frays where men play politics as children play marbles.

Every Nebraska democrat has an interest in Omaha's municipal campaign. We would all be glad to learn that a democrat devoted to our party's principles as William J. Bryan has taught them had been elected mayor of Omaha. But this desirable result will never be attained unless the democrats of Omaha work together in an harmonious way, concerned more in their party's best interests and determined more upon the ad- Panama canal and canal commissioners vancement of the public welfare, than they cannot receive additional compensation be are in the triumph of any particular individual.

I well understand that many will regard this as gratultous advice: but when my name has, without the slightest justification, been dragged into this contest, I feel to perfect the bill as to canal purchases, that I am not entirely out of order when I remind Omain democrats that their petty sumed time in discussion, but met defeat parrels bode no good to the great cause they are presumed to represent. At all events, if they must quarrel, omit my name. I suffered under that yoke for many years, and, thank God, I am now out RICHARD L. METCALFE. HADLEY GOES TO CLEVELAND

Attorney General of Missonri Will Resume Hearing of Standard OH Case.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 23 .-- A motion was filed in the supreme court today by Attorney General Hadley asking that the court consider the same briefs in the case pending here to determine the right of witnesses to refuse to answer questions, as are filed in the New York court.

Mr. Hadley departed late today for Cleveland, O., to resume taking testimony in the oil cases. It is stated as probable that officers of the Republic Oil company will be called as witnesses. CLEVELAND, Jan. 23.-The judicial inquisition in which a number of prominent usiness men of this city are expected to testify in connection with the action of the state of Missouri against the Standard Oil company, will commence here Thursday morning. This was announced today by Frank . Schwentner, the notary appointed by the Missouri officials to take the depositions.

The list of Clevelanders subpoenaed include James Corrigan, president of Corrigan-McKinney company, and well known for his litigation against the Standard company, and John D. Rockefeller, Frank Rockefeller, brother of John D. Rockefeller; Charles W. Scoffeld, now see retary and treasurer of the Lake Erie Iron company; Daniel Schurmer, retired, and John Teagle, former member of Sco neld, Schurmer & Teagle Refining com W. T. Five Miners Lose Their Lives When House is Swept Away.

SILVERTON ISOLATED FROM THE WORLD

Mill is Crushed and Trains Cannot Be Run from Durango to Silverton for Two Wecks.

SILVERTON, Colo., Jun. 23.-Five Italian niners, employed at the Sunnyside mine. ost their lives in an immense snowslide late yesterday afternoon. The mine blacksmith shop and several tram cars are known to have been swept away. No trains from Durango or Denver have arrived here since last Wednesday, due to slides and Immense drifts of snow which have blocked the tracks. All the short line roads running to out lying camps are now snowbound. There are eleven slides between Sliverton and Elk The slides average from seven to feet deep and from fifty to 450 feet wide. One immense slide fell into the Animas river, forming a dam of snow and ice, which caused the stream to back up and overflow the Rio Grande tracks to s depth of four feet.

It will be two weeks before traffic can be resumed between Silverton and Durango. The Iowa mill, in Arastra gulch, has been crushed in by heavy snow slides, which came down Little Glant mountain. The storm, which has about spent its force, has been one of the worst ever known In this section

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23.-The temperature registered 15 degrees above this morning. A light snow fell early today but ceased at dawn. The weather bureau forecasts that no more snow will fall today but that there will be a drop in temperature by night.

NEW ORLEANS Jan 28 -A drop of forty degrees since Sunday converted spring-like weather here into winter. The thermometer today registered 1 degree below the freezing point. Elsewhere in the state much lower temperatures with traces of snow were reported.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 23.-The blizzard in his part of the southwest moderated during the night and today there was but little snow falling and practically no wind. At Kansas City the temperature was 10 degrees above zero this morning. Trains into Kan sas City from all directions were from one to two hours late. but no serious interruptions to traffic were reported.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.-The temper atures continue abnormally high in Atlantic coast districts, including western New York and southward to western Georgia. Throughout this area and westward to the Mississippl valley precipitation has been general. Snow continues in the upper lake region and locally in the middle Mississippi, elsewhere fair weather has prevailed except in the north Pacific coast states. where rain continues. The weather will

These two changes in the urgent deficiency appropriation bill now under consideration in the house was the net result of today's session. Innumerable amendments seeking purchases of coal for the navy, etc., conwhen a vote was taken. When the session ended about half of the bill had been considered. It will be laid aside tomorrow when the statehood bill is to be brought in and have the right-of-way undisposed of The two amendments which prevailed in the bill were secured without discussion The eight-hour day provision went out on a point of order as "new legislation." made by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, and immediately sustained by Mr. Sherman in the chair. The limitation of salaries of commissioners was offered by Mr. Fitzgerald of New York and accepted by the committee. Mr. De Armond of Missouri offered a number of amendments, which had as their object the requiring of European competition in the purchase of canal supplies Each amendment went out by republican votes on the statement of Mr. Tawney, chairman of the appropriations committee, that this competition was se cured now and without the expense of maintaining purchasing agents and advertising in Europe. Bids of European manufacturers, he said, were accepted now and these manufacturers had their agents in American cities and were kept in touch with the demands of the commission.

The Stars and Strices saloon at the corner of Thirteenth and Douglas streets was robbed at 1:20 o clock this morning by a man who succeeded in getting away. John Gray, a hackdriver, was standing in front of the saloon when he was surprised to hear the ring of the cash register bell inside, and pering through the window, made out the form of a man behind the bar. He notified Patrolman Fisk, who investigated but could find no traces of the man. He found that the back door had been opposed by chopping out a panel and raising the bar which fastened the door. The hatchet with which it was done was found in the alicy. The intruder was probably frightened away, as he left several bottles of liquor which had been placed in a pall He had taken what small change there was in the register, dropping a few pieces on the floor.
