unpunished. He further made it clear that did not think such an inquiry necessary or desirable.

In the opinion of Admiral Sands, the superintendent of the academy and the sec- Fam retary of the navy should be allowed to exercise their discretion in punishing hazing offenses. He favored the system of graduated punishment suggested to the SURI committee by Secretary Bonsparte, Admiral Sands contended that the discipline at Annapolis was excellent.

Secretary Bonaparte's bill provides "That the secretary of the navy shall have the power and authority in his discretion to dismiss at any time from the United States naval academy any midshipman whose contipued presence at the academy he shall deem contrary to the best interests of the service.

Taft Favors Purchase of Lands to Supply Fuel for Fleet in Far East.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 .- Secretary Taft appeared before the house committee on insular affairs today to explain a pending bill the purchase of coal lands to enable the United States to mine fuel for its own use in the far cast, An appropriation of $20.coo is sought to make the purchase. The secretary said the coal on Batan island is the best coal in the orient. As there has heen objection to the government's ownership of mines the secretary suggested that after the government acquires the land it hall be leased to capitalists who are willing to develop the property with an agreement to sell coal to the government at a price 19 per cent in excess to the cost of production.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.-General Joseph this morning. It was soon learned that the Wheeler, the famous confederate cavalry eader and a brigadier general of the United States army since the war with Spain, died at 5:35 this afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sterling Smith, in Brooklyn. The veteran of two wars was 69 years of age, but in spite of his age there was hope until yesterday for his recovery from the attack of pneumonia which caused his

It has not yet been decided where body will be interred, but probably it will be in Arlington National cemetery near Washington. Announcement of the plans for the funeral will be made tomorrow. General Wheeler was taken ill six days ago at his sister's home, where he has been living recently. He contracted a severe cold, which developed into pleurisy and pneumonia. From the first his age told against him, but the family did not give up hope until last night, when the disease was found to have affected both lungs. General Wheeler's immediate relatives were all with him. The family were summoned to the bedside of the patient at midnigh last night when the doctors in consultation concluded that the end was but a matter of hours. The general was then awake and conscious and his mind was apparently active. He seemed to know that death was approaching and though too weak to speak he succeeded in giving signs of recognition and encouragement to his children.

Later the general sank into a peaceful siumber and at the request of the doctors
