Long Wheat Comes Out Early and Causes Decline.

REACTION AT CLOSE ON SHORT BUYING

Corn and Oats Easy on Improved Weather. Shipping Demand for Former Being Disappointing.

OMAHA, Jan. 25, 1906.

Long wheat came out early on increasing stocks and the demand for corn was heavy, declining to 85% for May; it was checked by shorts covering, but on every day there was a demand for sale and May fell back to 84%.

Clearances were 7,000 bushels of wheat, 10,000 bushels of corn, 3,000 bushels of oats and 10,000 bushels of rye.

Liverpool closed unchanged to 1/4d lower on wheat and 1/4d lower on corn.

Cash business in Chicago yesterday was quiet for wheat, but the demand for corn was heavy.

The Price Current says the favorableness of the general situation of growing wheat is maintained, striking changes in temperature having not yet seriously damaged the plant.

Broomhall estimates Argentina wheat shipments this year at 1,200,000 bushels.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Opens Irregular and Gives Way to Positive Reaction.

LOWER PRICES STIMULATE BUYING

Rise Brings Out New Offerings and Another Stamp Occurs—Bulls Support Market and Close Is Steady.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The recurrent attacks on prices in the stock market were more persistent today than any previous day of the week.

The speculative party on the long side of the market confined its operations largely to protective measures and they made no very aggressive efforts to lift prices comprehensively to a higher level.

There were constant rallies from the recurrent reactions, and supporting orders were being placed in the market.

The closing tone, in fact, was strong after a vigorous recovery. But as often as the recovery had proceeded to an extent renewed offerings of stocks came upon the market.

This selling was in large part continued realizing and as soon as its character became perceptible, the professional operators showed a side-swing price down to take the market away from those seeking profit.

The movement of currency giving no such promise of replenishment of bank cash as has been shown for two weeks.

Sub-treasury operations have yielded to the banks thus far this week only $1,700,000 compared with $2,000,000 the corresponding period of last week.

This does not allow for the withdrawals of gold cash to meet the advance of the gold exchange rate declined at Paris.

The Bank of England in its weekly statement showed a gain of 1,000,000 pounds of 7,000,000, but the heavy loan extension of over 200,000,000 kept down the proportion of gold reserves to liabilities.

The continued policy of the bank to strengthen its control of its own money market.
