Number of False and Misleading Articles Published that Tend to Discredit Action of Federal Officials

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—By authority of President Roosevelt, correspondence made public at the White House this evening relating to methods alleged to have been employed by attorneys for the beef packers who are under indictment at Chicago to influence public opinion in behalf of the packers.

The documents consist of a communication made to Attorney General Moody by United States District Attorney Morrison of Chicago, setting out certain alleged facts regarding the payment of a sum of money to a Chicago newspaper reporter by one of the attorneys for the beef packers, and a letter to the president, transmitting Mr. Morrison's report, expressing the opinion that no way existed under the law by which the alleged offense could be punished; and a letter of the president to the attorney general directing the publication of the correspondence in order that the public might be informed of one situation at least which the government has to meet in prosecuting the case against the packers.

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26, 1906.

Mr. Morrison's Report. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, Office of United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois, 37 West Madison Street, Chicago, January 18, 1906.—The Attorney General, Washington, D. C.—Sir: I have the honor to report to you the results of my investigation into the matter of the alleged bribery of a reporter for the Inter Ocean newspaper, and to inform you of the action taken by me in connection with the same.

CAMPION CAUSES A DEATH

Warm Contest Waged Between Nationalists in Ireland Fatal to Winner

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Thomas Higgins, Irish nationalist, who yesterday successfully defeated the soviet, was killed in a duel with Colonel John Philip Nolan, another Irish nationalist and former member of the division, was found dead in bed at his hotel at Tuam today. The tragic occurrence is attributed to the excitement of Higgins' polling, acting on a weak heart.

Cuban Senate Appropriates $25,000 to Buy Wedding Gift for President's Daughter

HAVANA, Jan. 25.—The senate this evening passed an appropriation of $25,000 for the purchase of a wedding gift for Miss Alice Roosevelt. The bill directs President Palma to select a wedding gift for Miss Roosevelt. Each of the three senators introducing the bill spoke in a similar tone to Senator Zayas, who said that Cuba owed some evidence of appreciation to its unfriendly friend, Theodore Roosevelt, and that the wedding of his daughter afforded opportunity to demonstrate Cuba's love for and appreciation for her illustrious father.

STOCK SALE TAX LAW VALID

New York Supreme Court Upholds Statute Which Will Add Five Million Dollars to Revenues

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The constitutionality of the stock transfer tax law of New York state was affirmed today by a decision of the appellate division of the supreme court. About $5,000,000 annual taxes are added to the state revenues by the decision. The case decided was a test case brought against Albert J. Hatch, a stock broker, who was charged with having sold and delivered shares of railroad stock without paying the tax required by the law. Four justices decided for the constitutionality of the law and one against it.
