SPEEDY TRIAL FOR OUTLAWS

Prompt Work to Be Made of Murder Case by County.

O'HEARN AND PALS AFTER PAT CROWE

All Four Youths Held for Lausten's Death Will Be Tried for Murder in First Degree.

So far as the county attorney's office is concerned there is not likely to be any delay in bringing to trial Jay O'Hearn and his three pals, who are held for the murder of Neil Lausten. County Attorney Slough and his staff of assistants are preparing themselves to take up the trial of the four boys charged with the murder as soon as the Crowe case has been disposed of.

has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething for over fifty years. It soothes the inflamed, swollen gums, relieves all pain, cures colic, and is a sure remedy for all ailments of infants.

of O'Hearn, Nelson, Angus and Warren will be tried as principals for murder in the first degree and will stand or fall together, so far as the state is concerned.

It is understood former County Attorney English will be the principal counsel for the defense. He is also Crowe's counsel and will be a pretty busy man after the opening of the new term of court.

Judge Sutton is drawing a rather discouraging lot of cases in his new assignment to the criminal branch of the district court. Eight murder cases are on the docket, counting the four boys charged with the Lausten crime. Frank Noonan, a South Omaha butcher, stands accused of cutting the throat of another butcher named Carlson in South Omaha. John Doyle is to stand trial for fatally knifing his partner, John Kelly, but without premeditation. Leslie Allen, a negro, is charged with shooting and killing his brother-in-law, Lee Ferret, during a quarrel at the latter's home. Leo Osborne shot his father on a Sunday morning last May. He is the only one of the bunch out on bail, and owing to the circumstances of his case there is no disposition to rush it to trial.

In sharp contrast to trials such as these Judge Sutton also will handle the juvenile complaints Saturday mornings, when the other court is rarely at work. He will sit with Judge Day Saturday morning in the juvenile court to get a view of his workings. At present no judge on the district bench has had to sentence a man to hang.

HARRIMAN BUYS COAL FIELDS

Southern Pacific Takes Over Mines at Durango for Two Millions

ROAD MAY RUN LINE TO THAT POINT

Another Road South from Durango into Arizona and East to Pueblo Among the Possibilities.

Harriman is still continuing to pour his millions into the west to develop new fields and new business for his great railroads. The latest deal which has been announced is the purchase of the coal deposits at Durango, Colo., by the Southern Pacific, the purchase price being approximately $2,000,000. Besides the outright purchases options have been taken on thousands of additional acres of coal lands.

It is said to mean the Southern Pacific probably will at once build into the district and as a result will control the whole coal situation of California and the Pacific coast. Besides transforming the Durango district into one of the great coal districts of the world, the purchase by Mr. Harriman is taken to mean the construction of a railroad not only south from Durango to a point in Arizona, but also a line from Durango to Pueblo. It is said that for the last three years surveyors have been at work running a line from Durango to Clifton, Ariz., to connect with the Southern Pacific. The line to Pueblo is supposed to indicate the Southern Pacific's intention to bid for the business of the eastern traffic and for the Colorado fuel and iron business.

Harriman will build a new line, or rather five branch lines, in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, the Snake River Valley Railway company, auxiliary of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, doing the work. One of these lines will traverse Idaho nearly east and west in the middle of the state, and by a connection with the old Utah & Northern also provides a north and south route. The cross-state line will be 300 miles in length. Great improvements also are being made all along the line of the Union Pacific.

L. S. Cass of St. Paul, vice president of the Chicago Great Western, accompanied by O. Cornelien, superintendent of Clifton, Ia., are in the city looking over railroad matters in Omaha. Mr. Cass was in Chicago Thursday at a meeting between President Stickney of the Great Western and Darius Miller of the Burlington. J. M. Johnson of the Wabash, H. R. McCullough of the Northwestern and J. H. Hiland of the Milwaukee. The meeting was held pursuant to a telegram sent out by President Stickney in response to a telegram asking him if it was true the Great Western was intending to cut rates on dry goods to Missouri river points. The message from President Stickney was: "It is true the Great Western is being solicited to make openly the same rates on dry goods from Chicago to the Missouri river as has been made secretly by the Burlington for two or three years. After the issuance of the federal injunction, and by means of routing agency in New York, returns in the form of commission to the agency were secretly made to certain big jobbers on the Missouri river. The Great Western is now solicited to make the same rates on the open published tariff, and the matter is under consideration. You gentlemen must have known that the secret rates were made, and it seems strange that you should be so frightened at the prospect of my making those rates open. Published rates, I shall be at the Auditorium Annex Thursday morning.

Mr. Stickney and I met with these men in Chicago Thursday," said Mr. Cass, "but no action was taken and the Great Western now stands in a position to see that some other roads get a chance at this dry goods business. The assertion that our road was lived with his mother and father at Hastings. The body will be taken to Hastings Saturday morning by Conductors C. J. Hietzer and Thomas Ryan and the mother and father. Burial will be Sunday under Masonic auspices.

YOUNG CONDUCTOR IS DEAD

L. T. Kilgore of Union Pacific Succumbs to Injuries Sustained on Train.

L. T. Kilgore, the Union Pacific freight conductor who was injured last Monday at Papillion, died Thursday night at St. Joseph's hospital. Kilgore's skull was fractured and he never regained sufficient consciousness to tell just how the accident occurred, although the belief was he stood on top of a caboose and did not notice a bridge. Kilgore was single, 25 years of age, and lived with his mother and father at Hastings. The body will be taken to Hastings Saturday morning by Conductors C. J. Hietzer and Thomas Ryan and the mother and father. Burial will be Sunday under Masonic auspices.
