THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), one Daily Bee and Sunday, one year. Illustrated Bee, one year. Sunday Bee, one year.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. OFFICES.

Omaha—The Bee Pullding.
South Omaha—City Hall Building.
Council Bluffs—10 Pearl Street.
Chicago—1640 Unity Building.
New York—1568 Home Life Ins. Building.
Washington—501 Fourteenth Street. CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department. REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company. Only 3-cent stamps received as payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or eastern exchanges, not accepted. THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

The state of the s	State of Nebraska, I	being duly sworn number of full and The Daily, Morning Bee printed during ber, 1905, was as fol-
	181,640	1730,020
	232,740	18
	330,020	1931,770
		00 000

1	Pirassassassassassassassassassassassassass
332,740	1831,82
380,020	1931,77
431,550	20
531,780	2132,03
631,590	2232,10
782,150	2332,68
8,31,500	2430,05
932,560	25
1030,150	2632,21
1131,640	2732,01
1231,780	2832,00
1331,650	2931,84
1481,860	3032,91
15,	3130,15
1682,710
Total	982,64
Less unsold copies	10,80
Experience of the state of the

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 31st day of December, 1905.

(Seal)

M. B. HUNGATE, Notary Public. WHEN OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee

Daily average 31,349

C. C. ROSEWATER,

mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested. According to those resolutions the inclination of the independent telephone people toward Omaha is not to speak as they pass by. Moroccan tribesmen are adding their arguments to the plea for international intervention in Morocco; but probably they do not know it.

The opening of the Nebraska gubernatorial contest is evidently not to be delayed much behind the opening of the Iowa gubernatorial contest.

The public may be confused as to the real defendant in the Hapgood case, but It was a letter in response to one from trary, it might be more effective. the result will be hailed with satisfac. Senator Burkett. On second thought, inion by all legitimate journalists.

If the supreme court had not knocked out the filing fee exaction for entries to people, Mr. Fonda desired that it be pubthe municipal primaries, would the list of aspiring candidates be so long?

It is not a good plan anyway to let a book canvasser use your name to inveigle cash subscription on its strength in consideration of a complimentary he will make requisition on the railroad | Mr. Clancy. publicity agents.

Perhaps Admiral Sands asked no question of officers regarding hazing at Annapolis because of that provision of the law by which they could refuse to incriminate themselves.

With free passes and free mileage tabooed, 2-cent railroad fares would not entail much of a loss to the railroads, particularly between Omaha and Lincoln during the legislative sessions.

reaching nearly $3,000,000,000 a year the pered chiefly by the lack of steamship the arguments of those who would pare the United States. It is pointed out down the tariff just to be doing something.

The United States is asked to pay the funeral expenses of the late Senator Mitchell. In the light of the money saved by not having to defend his appeal Uncle Sam might do this and still get off easy.

City Electrician Michaelsen favors the substitution of electric lights for gasoline street lamps. The city electrician would naturally favor the extension of his jurisdiction at the expense of the gas inspector.

That conserative who resigned his seat in Parliament in favor of former Premier Balfour has made a sacrifice for his party for which he may expect to be repaid when the present administration retires. Men have been knighted guessing as a part of the correspondents' stock in trade is at a discount pired to a position in the federal revenue collection service in the Alaska Arctic zone and made his preparations accordingly. Now he is tendered a position torrid Panama Canal zone that will ments for a shirt collar and a pair of

WHICH MR. CLANCT! The plot thickens.

And there is blood on the moon. Senator Burkett's letter addressed to strated, William Ten Eycke Fonda answering the circular letter of protest against rate regulation which the railroad publicity bureau has been sending out over the names of Union Pacific employes was written by Mr. Clancy. But which Mr. Clancy? The concluding paragraphs of the made-to-order statement read:

As locomotive engineers we risk our lives supremacy in the United States, consequently we feel we are as much the support of the government as other citizens in any walk of life. We do not propose to sacrifice or jeopardize the wage we receive to insure political preferment to anyone."

We will not admit that those who specialize in any profession, not excepting that of law, have a monopoly of intelligence and common sease. We at the throttle have time to think. There is not with us the mad rush for the almighty dollar or the plain living, good schooling for our children, to stand well with our fellow men and our God at the final. We analyze this question with the same deliberation and coolness required to safely handle our engines.

Now Mr. Fonda is not a locomotive gress. engineer. All he had to do with the letter was to wire a friend in Omaha to "call at Clancy's office and sign my name to letter for publication as reo | quested."

Clancy connected with the Union Pacific rate regulation put forward by President his chief, John N. Baldwin, that though the latter has specialized in the profesintelligence and common sense." This Mr. Clancy has had years of experience at the political throttle and he is an adept at the manipulation of the legis-"the mad rush for the almighty dollar." Except for foreclosing on three or four motive goes without saying.

But this Mr. Clancy has not laid claim to authorship of the clinching epistle to Burkett. On the contrary, if he did write it, he is modest by standing in the background and allowing his laurels to be snatched by a usurper.

For here comes another Mr. Clancy, ers in the jail. who explains that "he did it with his little typewriter."

Mr. Fonda, who is in Denver, had prior o going there prepared a letter setting out his ideas and left the same in my office. Its publication was not thought of at the time. been published, it was thought advisable ing professed to be a friend of laboring lished in The Bee. In this connection he directed Mr. Sorenson to call at my office and sign his name. Is there anything wrong about this? Nothing wrong at all. But Mr. Fonda is a traveling freight solicitor who never professed to be a locomotive engineer, and the second Mr. Clancy signs himself "J. D. Clancy, Operator Union Pacific Railway, Union Station, Omaha," which Any other railroad employe desiring a means in plain English that he is a ready-made answer to Senator Burkett's knight of the telegraph key and no more to report these boarding house fees as earnletter will be speedily accommodated if of a locomotive engineer than the first

> To be perfectly fair, it is only right and proper to say that Joe Sorenson, who was directed by wire to sign Mr. Fonda's name, is a really truly locomotive engineer. But which Mr. Clancy?

A DRAWBACK TO TRADE.

The fact has been attested by Amer ican representatives to the South American countries, as well as by the diplomats sent from there to Washington, that the development of international With the trade of the United States trade on this continent has been ham-"standpatter" is not losing sleep to meet facilities for direct service to ports of that while this lack has deterred American business men from risking their money in commercial exploitation, it has had no terrors for European investors for the very simple and conclusive reasons that the steamship facilities be Ayres, for instance, are practically as complete as between New York and Liverpool or Bremen. While there are in existence two lines from New York to South American ports, they cannot com pare in service with the English, Italian, Spanish or German liners, which speed across the South Atlantic and put South American ports in immediate touch with the European capitals and manufacturing centers. In the course of a debate in the senate last week on the merchant marine bill it was stated that we have no direct communication between any port in the United States and Brazil and the Argentine republic. A large part of our ex-The reported action of French ships ports to those countries go by way of in the neighborhood of the island of Liverpool and London and other Euro-Trinidad indicates that commanders pean ports. They are carried, of course, have received orders which the corre. in foreign ships, and the course they spondents would like to see; and that take necessarily involves more or less delay in their delivery. It is obvious that so long as this condition continues the manufacturers and merchants of the Four years ago George A. Mead as- United States will be at something of a disadvantage in competing for the South American trade. Whatever other difficulties there may be, there can be no doubt that the most serious is the lack in the revenue disbursing service in the of direct steamship communication between our ports and those of the princause him to exchange his bearskin gar- cipal countries south of us. While the port, it is very rarely that the American rear platform and the front vestibule this fact operates to our commercial det- what will prevent them from sliding It is now admitted that the reply to riment has been conclusively demon- into vacant nickel seats as soon as the was taken a few days after its accession, in

The merchant marine bill now before the senate and which was framed by a ship lines between the principal ports has been referred to by those not favorable to such legislation as the most conservative measure of the kind ever in daily to assist in maintaining commercial troduced into congress. It is the opinion of some that its provisions are too moderate to accomplish the desired object, but the deliberate judgment of the framers of the measure that it would prove sufficient to give the country an adequate merchant marine in the not remote future can be confidently relied upon. As the necessity for expanding our foreign commerce grows the quesdesire for political preferment. We ask a tion of building up an American merchant marine gains in importance. It is a question that must be met and there is no good reason why it should not be determined by the present con-

GENERAL JOSEPH WHEELER.

General Wheeler was a born soldier. He preferred a military career to any fully equipped to write a letter that military education at West Point, where what it does as a matter of fact. would extinguish every argument for he graduated shortly before the beginning of the civil war, he rose rapidly Burkett. This Mr. Clancy might easily ing the position of lieutenant general, road rate legislation bill the real "inbe the person described by the letter As a cavalry commander he had no surgent" strength of that body will be superior in the union army. After the will of the members, the next will show war he accepted conditions in good the will of the masters. gress. When the war with Spain came he promptly sought an opportunity to serve the government as a soldier and the country is everlastingly with the presiwas given it by President McKinley, dent. lative oil can. Except for a few hours His services in Cuba and the Philippines of forgetfulness he has never been in added much to his brilliant military

General Wheeler was the personificaappointive positions he has never tion of courage as a soldier and an amievinced "the desire for political prefer- able and courteous gentleman in civil ment." That he is risking his life daily life. He was thoroughly American and as engineer of the railroad political ma- us one who contributed much to the chine and that this risk is multiplied record of American military prowess back of them could save a few million dolby the fact that he never ran a real loco- his memory will be cherished by his lars annually for the government. countrymen.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

The local republican organ has now been of the republican Board of County Commisioners that it reduce the fees allowed to ods. the republican sheriff for boarding prison-

Instead of thus vainly beating the noisy com-tom of reform, why does Mr. Rosewater not take the very practical step of appealing to the courts? It might create such a hubbub nor offer such a glorious opportunity to preach, but, on the con-

The same chapter of our statutes which asmuch as Senator Burkett's letter had provides that the sheriff may have fees for ment he should have too much delicacy to to publish the response, and The Bee hav- pay into the treasury all fees exceeding $2,500, and the last legislature even reduced this limit to $1,500. Now why should the sheriff not account for these "fees" just as he does for others? Of course, the expense account should be allowed just as it is in other respects. Only last year our supreme court held full income of his office, even where he no greater vice than in Franklin's time, earned a fee as member of the Board of

Now, the beauty of the situation is that If Mr. Rosewater cannot induce his county ommissioners to act he can, as a taxpayer. if he is in earnest, mandamus his sheriff ings of his office. Mr. Rosewater is experienced in mandamus cases.

We make this suggestion because Mr Rosewater evidently needs and has called for help, and even a suggestion may be of ralue.-World-Herald.

Under ordinary circumstances it is the power of the courts for a redress of whistle. abuses that affect all taxpayers alike. His function and province is to turn the lime-light of publicity upon abuses that affect the taxpayers and to appeal to executive officers to discharge their duty and desist from aiding and abetring tolerated larceny and indefensible

It is only on extraordinary occasions when exposure, appeal and denunciation have fallen on deaf ears that as a last resort an editor who is in dead Such a condition existed when the editor of The Bee appealed to the pel the State Board of Railroad Assessment to reconvene to assess the franchises of railroads as well as their tangfble property.

The suggestions made by the World-Herald in a spirit of sarcasm are, howifest duty of the county board is to force all officers, past and present, to render a detailed account of all fees collected in excess of their salaries and complied with in reasonable time torney to institute proceedings for the recovery of the excessive income and, incidentally, to get a ruling from the court that will define just what each county officer is entitled to under the county board to do its plain duty, its editor, acting for all the taxpayers of Douglas county, will invoke the power of the courts as a taxpayer, at the risk making himself unpopular, if not odious, to officeholders of his own party. In the meanwhile what is it that prevents the editor of the World-Herald

When standing room on the street flags of our European competitors are cars will command 3 cents per stand a in constant evidence in every southern good many men smoking cigars on the be this said."

from going into court on behalf of the flag is seen in any of them, and that will cheerfully take the benefit, but conductor has collected their fares?

If all the land-grabbing cases now combined commission of senators and pending in the federal court and all members of the house, is intended to those that may be impending when the encourage the establishment of steam- grand jury shall have concluded its inquisition will take as long to try out as of this country and South America. It the Ware case, the federal courts will still be grinding on land-grabbing cases when Gabriel blows his horn.

The Standard Oil company evidently made the mistake of not providing pen- had already been granted for a couple of sions for discharged employes who had years to come, was practically compelled to been used as confidential agents of the company. The average man who will break laws for an employer "stays licenses already granted, responsibility for bought" only so long as the money is in it would rest upon the former government

If Oklahoma and Arizona must by constitutional provision be compelled to been sought, since those already granted prevent Indians from buying liquor, the provide for about all the labor that is Nebraska Indian will feel entitled to be needed. So the liberal government got the considered superior to his southern trial arrangements of the Transvaal are mercial club of St. Paul Mr. Hill discussed brother, unless congress passes further not interfered with and everybody is happy. laws on the subject bringing him to the same level tried to tamper with an inspector on government work at Savannah indicates other, and in it he achieved a distinction that he probably found one who was for and fame which give him an imperish- sale, but the jury cannot draw this in- and South islands was in favor of no li able place in history. Receiving his ference as a matter of law, no matter

A Pointer for Knockers. Springfield Union. It cannot be too strongly emphasized that

What the Country Wants. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Nearly every president has handed down peculiar phrase, but all are left in the shade by Mr. Roosevelt's "square deal." Way to Save Millions. San Francisco Chronicle.

A few men with sturdy blue pencils with a little bit of common sense and discretion Wenry Pace of Claims.

New York Post. This year's urgent deficiency bill contains ociferously demanding for several weeks in the war of 1812. There is an example of be stoned and beaten the more effectively. promptness and up-to-date business meth- He was rapidly dragged to the hearse out-

Truly a Spectacle. Buffalo Express.

The spectacle of Senator Burton of Kansas peeking through the door of the senate in order that he might be certified as present and draw his mileage is one which senator to turn his head in disgust. If Burton has too much delicacy to attend the sessions of the senate while he is under indictdraw his pay.

Modern Passion for Display

Portland Oregonian It was a century and a half ago that Benfamin Franklin wrote that "idleness and and parliaments," but his message comes with peculiar force to the people of this that a county clerk must account for the day and generation. Perhaps idleness is but the sort of pride that taxes men's France in Morocco are to be found in money that their more wealthy neighbors do, and, when adversity comes, finding themselves with no money saved they realize too late, as Franklin would say,

POLITICAL DRIFT.

The unusual calm of Senator La Follette indicates that "all's quiet on the Petomac." Vice President Fairbanks notes with be-France in promoting the presiding officer weak escort that accompanied him. Some of the national senate.

Governor Vardaman of Mississippi had one of his spells the other day and threw an unwelcome visitor out of the executive Occasional outbursts are still possible, says mansion. It was the governor's day to

A former state senator of California is wearing a gorgeous striped suit on the the functions which should be exercised promenade of the state penitentiary. He county attorneys and state attor- was an amateur in legislative holdups and

The time for proposing freak legislation to the law-making bodies of various states supreme court for a mandamus to com- having arrived. Massachusetts leads off bill to legalize pumps in milkmen's with a yards, ostensibly in order to avert suspicion. but really to save time for the driver

There is a disposition among the reformers in the Pennsylvania legislature to put Senator Quay's statue out in the cold. ever, timely and to the point. The man- Still others are cruel enough to suggest a deep, dark cellar. The master hand that shook the plum tree appears past resurrectio

Some New Yorkers insist on worrying Judge Hooker, who draws $17,500 a year shifty. The legislature tried to oust him the hoard should direct the county at- legislature is about to give him another In recent years no political leader in New York state of either party has had a son with a taste for politics. Senator Platt's son shows neither aptitude nor inclination for the game. Boss Tweed left no son and Boss Kelly died childless. Richard Croker Should The Bee fail to persuade the had three boys, but none of them cared for politics. The only remaining one, Richard, has not even voted for several years. Murphy, the present Tammany leader, is

> The New York Sun regards the action of the insurance companies as manly and dignified. "We do not think," says the Sun, 'the severest critics he has encountered during a long and vicissitudinous and somelooked upon ex-Governor Hill as a grafter. a 'business' politician, a trafficker in political influence, a perverter of political opportunity to personal gain. And to his

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

The most striking act of the new British government thus far has been that which ordering the stoppage of importation of will be recalled that a sensation was caused thereby in Great Britain and the Transreal, and political capital was made for the made known. The fact is that the legality of the order was promptly called in question, and upon reference to him the attorney general of the Transvaul gave the pinion that, so far as it applied to importation licenses already granted, it was lilogal and could not be enforced. Thereupon the government, finding that licenses abandon its order, contenting itself with the declaration that, while the importation and the present government would wash its hands of the whole affair. No further licenses will be issued, but it is doubtful whether any more would in any case have "The growth of prohibitionist sentiment in The disclosure that "Colonel" Greene respondent, "has been as remarkable as the growth of socialism, and it is more likely to be enduring." In the referendum taken at the same time with the late elections, a clear majority of votes in both the North cense, which would have been sufficient to vote out the saloon in almost any American town or country under local option. But that country of experiments required a When the house of representatives is three-fifths majority, and the measure Roosevelt to say nothing of Senator in the service of the confederacy, reach- presented with a rule to govern the rail- therefore failed. "Sly grog selling" is the local phrase for "blind pig" operations, and the prohibitionists have been making wide use of the remarks of a magistrate from the writer. He is quite capable of telling equal in the confederate army and no developed. Previous tests showed the bench regarding the amount of perjury, sneaking and deceit involved in the conducof open bars. All liquor : elling, ilcensed and unlicensed alike, they call "sly." New Zealand has a local option law, and although prohibition for the entire country was de feated, the "dry" area has been largely increased.

> ing in some parts of Hungary today may be gained from the details of the treatment recently accorded to M. Kovacs, who recently had the misfortune to be appointed by the king high sheriff of Haiduck county, of which Debreesin is the chief acres. In an article in the January number city. This has always been a Magyar of the World's Work there is mention of stronghold. Previous to the arrival of M. a Georgia planter who by intelligent culti-Kovacs, the citizens issued a proclamation vation secured twenty-six bales from thirof boycott and excommunication against him. They had a hearse at the railroad station for his conveyance and a body- bale from an acre. Yet the average of all guard armed with rotten eggs. Fore- is the pitiful four-tenths of a bale. At warned, he refused to leave the train, but 10 cents a pound this yields the planter and trampled on. He was then, according a half acres to secure the crop which he an item for equipping New York regiments to a local paper, lifted up so that he could should obtain from a single acre. side, thrown upon it, and, as it started, the crowd sang the Kossuth hymn. In this way he was conveyed through streets to the chief square, where he fell fore farmers are working in the direction from the hearse and tried to take refuge of intensive and more businesslike methin a coffee house. The crowd, however, headed him off and drove him across the stree, where he fell unconscious under the should have caused every self-respecting archway of the savings bank. Two bank clerks protected him from further injury, and carried him upstairs, while the citizens broke the windows and tried to storm the His head, which was bleeding in many places, and his left hand, of which two fingers were smashed, were then bound up, and when he had recovered consciousness he was, at the instance of a committeeman for public safety, induced pride tax with a heavier hand than kings to sign his resignation. The offair naturally has provoked much incognation in Vienna.

Further details of the recent work pocketbooks never before flourished as report, published in a Paris newspaper, of The desire of the poor to ape the a recent tour of inspection made in southrich, the universal effort and determina- ern Oran by M. Jonnart, governor general tion to keep up appearances for appearance of Algeria. In company with General sake, is one of the curses of this age. Lyautey he has reorganized the whole sys-That hollow appearances are but tokens of tem of Hinterland defence, substituting for superficial minds too few understand, the many small military posts a number Men and women of moderate means as- of larger garrisons capable of policing pire to make the same display in spending wider regions than before. The old garrisons of regular troops have been superseded by Saharan troops, recruited in the country, living on the land and extremely They are always moving from mobile. not the business of the editor to invoke that they have paid too dearly for the point to point of their districts, and easily surprise marauding Moorish bands by the rapidity of their march. During the last eighteen months these bands have been constantly attacked and broken up. Pacification on the frontier region is, therefore, proceeding steadily. Two years ago it would have been impossible for the govoming pleasure the splendid precedent of ernor general to make his tour with the chief of tribes formerly hostile turned out to salute him and to thank him for the of trusts and corporation of various kinds. re-establishment of security in their region. M. Jonnart, in southern Oran, but as a re-dence. The people will have to face the sult of the new system there will no longer fact that this most powerful body in their

Prince Nicholas of Montenegro, a small men that are the agents of special interests mountain principality of southern Europe, as against the general interests; men that has set a good example for Czar Nicholas are there to control legislation for private and the few other remaining autocrats. and against public interests when these He has given his people a parliament and the right of suffrage. Montenegro has been ruled despotically from the time it became a nation. For forty-five years Prince Nicholas has exercised autocratic power, holding even the lives of his sub fects in his hands. His voluntary surrender of supreme authority was as unompanied it is surprising. In an impassloned speech ushering in the new order of things, he declared he had always believed that every man belonging to civilized society should be a free citizen. The act of Prince Nicholas raises him to the out of the state treasury. The judge is rank of a really great man. He knew the county treasury. If its demand is charged with being exceedingly thrifty and that civilized mankind had outgrown autocratic government. He did not wait until last summer, but failed, and the present his people had forced him to recognize their rights, but conferred them willingly The Montenegrins are a brave and hardy people. They deserve their new freedom, and it is to be hoped that they will make

> Model Example of Citizenship. New York Commercial.

Everybody will admire the spirit in which Mr. Samuel L. Clemens, a citizen of this town, has offered to pay taxes on $5,000 worth of personal property, although, according to his own sworn statements before the tax board, he has no personalty David Bennett Hill in asking the State Bar at all to be taxed. "I do not want," exassociation to investigate his relations with plained the author of "Innocents Abroad," "to be regarded as unwilling to contribute to the cost of maintaining the governmen of the city in which I live." If tens of thousands of other New Yorkers possesse what devious political career have ever of personalty in various amounts would only think that way, the city would be vastly enriched by the thought, and New York real estate would be relieved of portion of the unjust burden of taxatlor that it now struggles under.

NEW ART SUBJECTS

"Love Disarmed," $36.00 "Before Moscow," $12.00 "The Squire's Song," $6.00

"Forgiven," $36.00 "The Model," $6.00 "Don't Be Afraid," $6.00

The 1906 patterns of Picture Mouldings are now arriving; bring your pictures for framing, we will save you money.

FRAMED PICTURE NOVELTIES FOR GIFTS.

A. HOSPE CO. 1513 Douglas St.

Our FRAME FACTORY, 1614 Izerd St., has MADE FRAMES 32 Years.

NO MORE ROOM!

Apprehensions of James J. Hill Pronounced Unfounded.

New York Sun. Whether his conclusions are right o wrong, the views and opinions of Mr. James J. Hill are always interesting and usually suggestive in an extraordinary decredit of having given the order, the indus- gree. In a recent address before the Coma subject concerning which the American people are lamentably indifferent, that is the habitual wastefulness of our treatment of the nation's resources. Upon that New Zealand in a few years," writes a cor- matter there is little or no opportunity

Mr. Hill went further and said: "Our public domain is all gone, and the nation cannot longer boast that it has homes for all. Where are the immigrants rushing to our shores to end up? Not on the land. We have no more to offer them.

They must crowd into the cities." Mr. Hill's apprehensions will not shared by everybody. It is not clear how he arrives at the conclusion that there is no more land in the United States to offer to settlers. Land now lying idle in this country is capable of supporting millions of people. The reclamation service is converting the wilderness into homes for millions more. The intelligent cultivation of comparatively small tracts instead of the present wasteful cultivation of large areas would leave millions of acres available for to be done settlement. The last of these three factors in the situation is unquestionably the most important. In the way of illustration, consider our cotton crop, which may be re-Some idea of the political spirit prevailgarded for the present purposes as typical of all our agricultural products, with the possible exception of wheat.

Statistics of production show that our cotton yield averages about four-tenths of a bale to the acre. We plant about 30,000,000 last ten or fifteen years. teen acres, or two bales to the acre. Other planters, by business methods, obtain a he was pulled out, pelted, thrown down only $20 an acre. He cultivates two and

The same general rule holds good with regard to nearly all the products of our soil. Better cultivation of smaller areas would release millions of acres for settle ment by newcomers. More than ever be ods on the farm. But it is probable that the great majority will be indifferent about these methods until compelled to adopt them by the severe pressure of economic

We believe that there is room and a good living in the United States for two or three times the present population

SPECIAL INTERESTS IN THE SENATE

The Strangle Hold on Measure of Pr lie Necessity. Indianapolis News (Rep.) The house will have before it a railroad rate bill on which its committee has unani mously agreed. After debate it will be passed and sent to the senate, which will thus be fored to act. That it should be openly conceded that the senate is the representative of special interests and no of the people is most serious. It is what is expected of the British House of Lords

But the Britons have forced the lords into a position of virtual harmlessness. It is utterly dissociated from control of the purse. With us our senate is only nominally so. The senate in the course of its encroachments virtually exercises the rower of raising revenue-enstitutionally lodged with the house-by altering and amending house measures, while it is endowed with an executive power in the confirmation of the president's appointments and in the ratification of treaties that is wholly beyond the power of the House of Lords.

With active powers that thus hold legis lation in its grip on the one side, and executive exercise on the other, the senate has grown beyond the intentions of the fathers. Instead of becoming to the people a protection and a conservative force, i has become the servant of special interests The story is set out with unmistakable plainness in our Washington corresponbe such heavy losses in men and money as institutions does not represent them. By this is meant not that now and again and at all times there should be in this body clash-such a thing is to be expected in public affairs-but that the number of senators who are thus openly and avowedly such agents has so increased that the special interests control all the affairs of the American people. That such a condtion should be permanent; that the American people should tolerate such a perversion of their institutions, is unthinkable. Signs of protest and effort against it have been growing for years. But the fault is inherent in the constitution of the senate, with its powers of a veto both on legislative and executive action. We are paying the price of the fathers' distrust of the people. We have brushed aside that distrust as registered in the constitution of the electoral college, having reduced the body to the nominal registering machine, to which, in fact, practically the English have reduced the House of Lords. But the senate is not so casily reformed. And yet we can not doubt that litimately a way will be found.

Property an Incentive to Action. Louisville Courier-Journal

President Eliot of Harvard gives a reason why poor American boys swell the ranks of millionaires when he says that "It is wellnigh impossible for a very rich man to rear his children so as to avoid habits of indifference and laziness." He adds that farmers' children get the best start because they begin young to co-operate in the work

Why Break it Gently!

Pittsburg Dispatch. The news that Senator Aldrich is bitterly opposed to railroad rate regulation and considers it a direct emanation of the Hearst and Bryan school of political thought might be more shocking if we had not had it broken by degrees spreading over the

LAUGHING LINES.

A barrister once pleaded with great ability the cause of his client for nearly an hour. When he had finished, his learned friend on the other side, with a supercillous sneer, remarked that he did not understand a word the other fellow had said.

"I believe it, for I was expounding law!" said the first speaker. "I see they admit that young Willie Hoppe is the greatest living billiard player,"
"Hopped right to the front, ch?"
"Yes, but Willie stay there?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Druggist-Our new clerk doesn't seem to have any common sense. Assistant—Is he likely to make bad Druggist—Is he? Say, he'd sell carbolio acid to a wiid-eyed lunatic he never saw before and trust him for the money.—Philadelphia Press. The agent of the building had agreed to put new wallpaper on the rooms. "What kind do you prefer?" he asked. "Something with large figures?" "Decidedly not." said the new tenant.

"They would always remind me of rent I have to pay."-Chicago Tribune. "Doesn't the speaker recognize you?"
"The minute I get on my feet," answered the new congressman, "he recognizes me as one of the people he doesn't want to hear from."—Washington Star.

Dr. Kallowmell (after a thorough examination)—there is nothing at all the matter with you. All you need is a little rest. Caller—Thank you. Well, I must be—Dr. Kallowmell—But thanks, my good man, will not pay my office rent. Caller—Maybe not, but that's all I got for overhauling your watch the other day and finding that all it needed was winding.—Chicago Tribune.

SINCE BABY CAME. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Ave; so it is, my dear,
The truant cuff is e'en where I did place if
Here in the baby's drawer.
The "baby's drawer," ha!
Well do I mind the day
When I, too, had a drawer wherein to place
My collars, cuffs, my shirts
And small belongings;
Impediments in which then I took
A certain pride.
These were my very own—

These were my very own— had a drawer for them, a dresser drawer, And 'twas my very own.
That was, I think, less than three years

agone;
Before that day—
Ah, me; how memory dwells
Upon those lean and lonely years!
I had a trunk; relic of barbarous days,
And bachelorhood.
I had a trunk, and there it was my use To place my worldly goods—my all in all.
Joyous habiliments of occasions glad.
And treasured trophies, and the symbols of
Single and most deprayed delights,
But—Tempora mutantur—
And now, though burdened with possessions rare
All mine in name,
I have no place to store them.

All mine in name,
I have no place to store them.
Baby's things and her's
Monopolize the closets, all the drawers.
The attle-e'en the basement is not freeAnd when I see a handkerchief or cuff
I know not where to find it, nor on whose Belongings I shall lay my descrated hands.
I joy in what I own, forsooth, and yet,
Still, on occusions do I sigh to have
A cracker box or something that is mine
Exclusively, and to my own use
Forever dedicate:

Is It Your Own Hair?

Do you pin your hat to your own hair? Can't do it? Haven't enough hair? It must be you do not know Ayer's Hair Vigor! Here's an introduction! May the acquaintance result in a heavy growth of rich, thick, glossy hair! And we know you will not be gray.

The best kind of a testimonial-"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also Manufacturers of ATER'S SARSAPARILLA-For the blood. AYER'S PILLS-For constipation.
ATER'S CHERRY PECTORAL-For coughs. ATER'S AGUE CURE-For malaris and agus.