RUSH ON ARMY BUILDINGS

Fast Work Being Done by Contractors at Fort Omaha.

HOUSES READY FOR OCCUPANCY JUNE

Mild Winter Facilitates Progress and Most of the New Structures Already Are Under Roof.

The building contractors at Fort Omaha have been taking every advantage of the fine weather of the winter. Most of the new buildings are now under root and work has begun upon their interior finish. This is especially true of the administration building, the new double barracks, the hospital, the quadruple and double set noncommissioned officers' quarters. These structures are built of pressed brick and are roofed with slate.

The three double sets of Heutenants' quarters are ready for the roofers, and the single set of field officers quarters and the double set of captains' quarters will be ready for the roof, under the prevailing weather conditions, in three weeks, All of these buildings are two-story strucbufit of pressed brick and are prettily located on the slope of the hill overboking the parade ground. The hospital and noncommissioned officers' quarers are located south of the officers quarters on the same ridge. The new double "ANDY" GALLAGHER PROMOTED barracks lie at the south side of the parade grounds, and still south of these are the stables, already completed, and the new coal shids, soon to be built.

Adjacent the guard house is the hose carriage house, which is fully equipped with fire fighting apparatus for the needs of the post. Across the main driveway are the big punctermaster store houses, and a new store is shortly to be built north of this existence reposed. building which will be 120 feet in length.

Signal Corps Quarters.

The old administration building, which has been transformed into a double barracks, with the new mess hall added, now houses the two companies of the Signal corps on duty at the post. The two old quarters for officers lie on the slope of the hill, just north of the new officers' quarters under process of construction. These buildings are occupied by Major E. O. Fechet. commanding the post, and the other officers in command of the two companies.

The new roadways have been completed from the main entrance past the barracks now occupied and around up to the officers' quarters. These roadways will be finished early in the spring past the new officers quarters, down to the hospital, around in front of the new barracks building, and ministration to the main enfrance again These roadways are laid with cement and are bordered with cement sidewalks. It is expected that the new barracks will be ready for occupancy about June 1.

J. Adam Bede, the Minnesota humoristcongressman; Governor Magoon of the canal zone and Governor Deneen of Illinots are on the list of speakers sought by the McKinley club for its annual banquet.

"Unless we can get some such man or men, whose personal presence would be an attraction, we will not have a banquet, suld N. P. Dodge, jr. That seems to be the sentiment of the club. Congressman Bede has a date at Peoria for February 22 and may be able to come here the 24th. The club hopes so, at any rate. Mr. Dodge and others charged with securing speakers are negotiating through Senator Millard. Congressman Kennedy and Edward Rosewater, now at Washington, for Governor Magoon and have hopes of getting him. The club will give its regular dinner Monday night at J. P. O'Brien's cafe on Farnam street, and State Representative Windham of Plattsmouth and John J. Ryder of Omaha will be the principal speakers. The Douglas county legislative delegation will be guests on this occasion and the club is anxious for its entire membership to turn out. It has the entire third floor of the building reserved.

BIG PLANS FOR BURNING BRICK J. Fred Smith to Experiment with

"Continuous" Kilns at His Plent.

J. Fred Smith is building a "continuous" kilo at his brick plant at Twenty-second and Hickory street. This kiln, and there s said to be but one other in Omaha, will burn the clay much more evenly and turn out a better grade of brick than the old Dutch kiln commonly used. It will be put n operation about April 1, and if it proves satisfactory a second one will be crected at once. Each will have a capacity of 25,000 brick a day, or 15,000,000 a year for the time the plant is in operation. At this rate Mr. Smith calculates the clay bark at Twenty-second and Hickory streets will last fifteen years.

New and improved machinery for mixing will be added to the plant this spring. Mr. Smith left Wednesday for Philadelphia. where he will buy $5,000 worth of machin

BOYS PINE FOR SOUTHLAND Merchant Tailors' National Protective as-Employment Agent and Police Nip Their Plans for a Trip to Florida.

Even the summer-like weather now prevailing at Omaha was not sufficiently equatorial for Emil Kuehn of South Omaha and Everett West of Council Bluffs, both if years old, who applied at a labor agency vesterday for a job in Florida which they had seen advertised. Their apparent youth awoke the proprietor's suspicion and he runaways. The boys had explained that they were brothers, but failed to reckon Altstadt still administers sustice at the with the difference in their surnames and the nearness of their birthdays. They were taken to the station where Captain Mostyn soon had the stories from them. They said that they had been working together during the winter distributing advertising matter, but when that work was finished they could not get other employment. Seeing the advertisement in the papers of men wanted for work in Florida they conceived the plan of "shipping out" and not only getting work, but getting into a warmer climate.

West's parents were called up on the telephone and the son talked with his mother and promised her he would come right home if released. This plan was carried out, and later Captain Mostyn decided to give the Kuehn boy his freedom also after giving him some good advice and warnings, upon his earnest protestations that he would go smalght home and not try to eun away again.

NO. SEC-A PRETTY CORSET COVER. Many women who have a care to the serfect fit of their gowns prefer a corsel cover which has a few scams and thus avold the bulkiness which often results from the many seamed garment. Here is a suggestion for a corset cover having but one seam and that in the center of the back. This is a bias seam, so it fits the form perfectly and without difficulty. This model is not only a perfect fitting one, but very easily made, as may be seen The slight fullness in the front of the corset cover is held at the waist line by a ribbon run through beading, which forms a next finish. The corset cover may be as elaborate or as plain as is desired and yet he very attractive.
