More Candidates File.

There were several more candidates put into the field yesterday. John McMillan illed as democratic candidate for the office of tax commissioner. Anton Bazar, republican, filed as a republican candidate for the council in the Third ward. Joseph Moran, democrat, filed for the vacancy on the school board. It is lately rumored that C. W. Knight was to withdraw from the contest for that office, but as yet he has not formally done so. It is also said there will be several changes in the filing before the end of the week C A Melcher, it is reported, will file as a democratic candidate for city treasurer, and there is an effort being made to have Al Powell file for the mayor's chair.

Trensurer's Affairs O. K. The expert examiner of the American Bonding company finished his examination of the books of the city treasurer yesterday and found them correct and the cash called for on hand. He went to all the banks where the money of the city is deposited and secured a certified statement of the amounts in their keeping, which items were used in balancing up the cash on Bank Call Delayed.

The officers of the national banks here are speculating on the fact that the government has delayed its demand for the quinto-annual statement for ten or fifteen days beyond the usual time. These statements are required five times a year and the usual tapse between the dates is about seventy-three days. The time has gone by for nearly two weeks. Probably the call for the statement will be received before the end of the week.

Another Holdup Job.

Another holdup was perpetrated early yesterday morning on the L street viaduct. Martin Moon, a man who works for John Oller at the Union Stock yards, was going to work about 5 o'clock and when by Mr. near the west end of the viaduct was met the rest his face and ordered him to throw up his hands. Moon was not slow to do what was asked. The man searched his pockets and secured to the chiral secured to and secured $2. Then complaining bitterly of the small amount, he ordered Moon to move on and not look back. Moon reported the matter to the police and described the man as a tall, smooth shaven fellow, wearing a cap pulled down low over his face for a disguise. Early in the forenoon a man was arrested on suspicion, but Moon did not recognize him as the man who had held him up, so he was
