

GEORGE WEST WILL NOT RUN

Northwestern Passenger Agent Declines to Be Shoved Into a Nominating Fight.

BROATCH COMBINE STILL QUITE BUSY

Scheme is to Invade Camps of Each Opposing Faction to Work Up a Semblance of Following in Primaries.

Friends of George F. West, passenger agent of the Northwestern, authorize the statement that the boom of the general Mr. West for the republican majority nomination has been punctured by orders of that gentleman himself.

Mr. West fixed up a noncommittal smile to do service in response to questions and wore it all last week. From now on his relations with the political public will not have to be so diplomatic.

The Broatch combine is still busy figuring out a stage, and while the ensemble is pretty much in the air, yet the general plan has been outlined.

Respecters of clean personal records in and out of the Fontanelle club are indignant about the preference of John N. Westberg over Clement Chase for the endorsement for committee on the Saturday night.

The first primary certificate to be filed with the city clerk by a candidate who desires to get on anything but the republican ticket was deposited Monday morning by Charles Bauer of 2611 Patrick avenue.

A determined effort was made last week in democratic circles to secure the withdrawal of Ed P. Smith and the substitution of W. C. Bullard, long a close friend of the former.

At the meeting of the central body of the Equal Rights club of Douglas county, held at its headquarters in the Patterson block, Seventeenth and Farnam streets, last night.

A jury was secured late Monday afternoon in Judge Crawford's court in the $20,000 damage suit brought against the city of South Omaha by John Burke, a laborer.

OFFICERS FAVOR WORKHOUSE

Police Judge Crawford, Chief Donahue and Captain Mostyn Command Plan.

ESSENTIAL TO PROGRESS OF THE CITY

Ordinance Now Being Prepared for Council's Submission to People of Proposition to Vote Bonds This Spring.

If the present agitation may be taken as a criterion—and the agitation is well-defined—Omaha will have a workhouse within the year.

Police Judge Crawford, who has been giving the matter of workhouses personal investigation, said: "Omaha will be infested with vagrants, tramps and petty thieves so long as we are without a work house.
