

HARRIS ON WATCH TOWER

Old Kansas Senator Central Figure at Shorthorn Breeders' Meeting.

SHALLENBERGER ALSO AT CONVENTION

D. S. Parkhurst, President South Omaha Live Stock Exchange, Delivers Address of Welcome in Behalf of City.

Former United States Senator William A. Harris, one of the old guard of Kansas populists, is the central figure at the ninth annual convention of the Central Shorthorn Breeders' association, which began its sessions at the Millard hotel Tuesday.

The convention has selected the Millard hotel as headquarters. This has been done by President E. C. Johnson of Clark, Neb., who reached town Monday afternoon.

Members are present from a dozen or more states west of the Mississippi. The attendance is not as large as desired, owing to the fact that an important stock sale at Marysville, Mo., drew many of the breeders to that place.

After the general session of the evening, the banquet was held at the Millard hotel. The banquet was held at the Millard hotel, the guests of honor, together with those who were to respond to the toasts, were seated at the tables.

After the banquet, the speakers were introduced. The first speaker was Mr. J. L. Lawson, president of the breeders' association, who responded to the toast.

Mr. Lawson, in his address, took occasion to say the packing house interests at South Omaha would endeavor to keep pace with the phenomenal growth of the state in stock and grain raising.

Mr. Lawson also dwelt at some length on the rules which govern the organization. Other representative men among the speakers were James Dahman, Thomas B. McPherson and Bruce McCullough of the South Omaha exchange.

Perhaps one of the most enjoyed treats of the evening was the response of A. L. Bixby of Lincoln. His acquaintance with the mason is well known in Nebraska and much farther.

Mr. Bixby's remarks were listened to with interest. He said in part: "The mason is well known in Nebraska and much farther. He is the backbone of the state and the backbone of the nation."

Mr. Bixby also dwelt at some length on the rules which govern the organization. Other representative men among the speakers were James Dahman, Thomas B. McPherson and Bruce McCullough of the South Omaha exchange.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Report from Inspector Mahamitti Gets Scent Consideration.

LETTING OF CONTRACTS STARTS DEBATE

Steam Coal and Drug Items Bring Out O'Brien's Eloquence and He Wins in Both Arguments.

An appeal by Inspector of Weights and Measures Mahamitti for legislation to prevent grocers and small coal dealers from systematically robbing the poor was not given even the consideration of a respectful hearing by the city council last night.

The charges were made in a report requested in the annual report of the inspector. The document was brief and to the point, but was not read.

Inspector Mahamitti said: "I desire to call your attention to a growing tendency upon the part of grocers to use paper bags or sacks as measures in selling commodities, without having previously measured or weighed such commodities in duly inspected and standard measures and scales."

Mr. Mahamitti also desired to call your attention to the constantly increasing weight of the coal in the city. It is believed by the purchaser that he is buying a bushel of coal, when, as a matter of fact, the largest of these bushels will not hold over sixty-five pounds, whereas eighty pounds is the weight of a bushel.

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA

Mayor Moores Positively Denies Alliance With Broatch as His Successor

YELLOW STORIES NOT BASED ON TRUTH

Hennings Repudiates Report that Mayor Tried to Enact Promises of Him Regarding Future Appointments.

Two positive statements were given out Tuesday morning that ought to clear up the republican political atmosphere considerably. Both were made to deny stories printed in the yellow newspapers.

The first is authorized by Mayor Moores, who states positively that he has not committed himself to the majority candidacy of W. J. Broatch in any way.

The second comes from City Treasurer Hennings, who asserts with emphasis that Mayor Moores never sought an understanding with him regarding appointments to city jobs or any other concessions for support in the majority race.

At the mayor's home this statement was given out for the mayor: "The mayor says he was for George West for mayor, but he has made no statement regarding his willingness to support W. J. Broatch or anyone else."

Mr. Hennings also repudiates a report that Mayor Moores had promised to appoint persons to positions in the city hall if elected by the city.

Mr. Hennings said: "As a matter of fairness to Mayor Moores I want to say he never made any request of the character upon me, nor has he tried in any way to have an understanding regarding the appointment of persons."

Mr. Hennings also repudiates a report that Mayor Moores had promised to appoint persons to positions in the city hall if elected by the city.

BLACK KATS

Gotch of Iowa threw Charles Kaiser, George Gray and Con Albright, all of Rochester, twice each in forty-six minutes.

WITH THE BOWLERS

The Black Kats bowled three good games last night, but the Metz team was a little stronger, and took them all.
