

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), one year, $4.00.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.: C. C. Rosewater, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, deposes and says that the following is a true and correct copy of the Daily Morning Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of January, 1906, as follows:

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

It looks as if Hon. Ed P. Smith had gotten cold feet before Colonel Jim Dahlman could even discard.

Before scoging American insurance companies too hard the London Times should recall the Hooley episode.

Japanese "jingos" are apparently like those of all other nations—talk the loudest when there is no danger in sight.

Nearly every day adds to the list of building improvements on Omaha's calendar for 1906. But there is still room for a lot more.

Wanted—A candidate for the democratic nomination for mayor who can ride for a fall, no matter how hard the brombo may buck.

THE LINCOLN ANNIVERSARY. Abraham Lincoln was born February 12, 1809, so that this is the ninety-seventh anniversary of his birthday.

As was said by a distinguished contemporary of Lincoln, there cannot be any exaggerated estimate of him. The more his character is studied the stronger becomes his claim to be classed among the most illustrious statesmen and patriots the world has produced.

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK. Ripper on the Current of Life in the Metropolis. A stock-watering job rivaling the best efforts of Wall street was pulled off within ten days by Belmont, Ryan and other managers of the traction interests of Greater New York.

WONDER OF THE NEW CENTURY. Pittsburgh Despatch. Scottish crofters, led by pipers skirling Highland battle tunes, have captured an island in the Hebrides and are defying the British government to dispossess them.

WHAT DO THEY WANT? Philadelphia Press. The democratic address of reading Senator Patterson of Colorado out of the party because he said President Roosevelt should be sustained when he is right.

LOGIC PRECEDES A SQUEEZE. Chicago Record-Herald. The supply of coal, we are told, is the greatest on record; therefore a strike must fail—and the miners are too wise to court failure.

TWO CONCLUSIONS FROM ONE PREMISE. Chicago Chronicle. If it be true, as the president says, that the dismissal of twenty midshipmen from the naval academy will endanger the future efficiency of the navy the law ought, of course, to be amended as he suggests.

UNION OF TWO CITIES. Philadelphia Press. The Greater Pittsburgh bill has been signed by the governor in a shape that is probably constitutionally sound and will make Pittsburgh and Allegheny one of the half-dozen largest cities in the United States.

CLOSED AND SILENT CHURCHES. Editors Nonproductive Six Days Out of Seven. Cleveland Herald. Imagine 100,000 department stores doing active business only one day in seven and remaining closed for the other six days.

LINCOLN'S FAMOUS ADDRESS. Gettysburg Classic Little Thought of at Time of Delivery. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Alexander H. Stephens said the finest utterances ever made by presidents were Jefferson's first inaugural address and Lincoln's second.

AMALGAMATED ORDER OF TONDIAS. The Nebraska chapter of the Ancient and Amalgamated Order of American Tondias, pursuant to a call from the Omaha Daily News, is going to send a message of congratulation to Miss Alice Roosevelt upon her marriage to Congressman Longworth.

For Lung Troubles. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures hard coughs, hard colds, bronchitis, consumption. And it certainly strengthens weak throats and weak lungs. Ask your own doctor. If he says it's good, take it. If he has anything better, take that.

POINTERS ON NEBRASKA POLITICS. Lincoln Journal: If there is to be a choice between Millard and Rosewater for the senatorship by all means let it be Rosewater.

"POOR OLD BILL." Canal Knockers and the Secretary of War. New York Globe. It is evident that Secretary Taft is a very wicked man. He "all but cured me," testifies the Panama canal's ex-chief engineer, John P. Wallace, Horrors! But this is not all!

MIRTHFUL REMARKS. "So you won't abide by the decision of the caucus?" "No, I won't," replied the senator, thoughtfully. "If the caucus will permit me to formulate its decision, I'll abide all right."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Coal. Wood. Coke. Kindling. We sell the best Ohio and Colorado Coals—clean, hot, lasting; Also the Illinois, Hanna, Sheridan, Walnut Block, Steam Coal, Etc.
