Text of the Invitation.

The letter sent out to inaugurate this new plan of action reads:

It is an important meeting and you are urged to be present. This letter will be the recential that will entitle you to vote in the meeting, so bring it with you.

There being no hall in the ward large enough to hold all of the republican voters at one time, it seems advisable to select only as many representative republicans as the hall will accommodate.

the nall will accommodate.

Whereas, there are several candidates seeking the republican endorsement to the city council from this ward and only one to be selected, therefore we deem it for the best interest of the republican party to hold a caucus for the sole purpose of endorsing a suitable candidate to represent the Twelfth ward in the city council, one whose candidacy will appeal to the voters of the whole city, who believe we should have a clean, progressive, honest and absolutely fair administration of public business. Other candidates have been invited to join issues with us, but for reasons best known to themselves prefer to act independently.

That the delegates may be left perfectly free to vote as their judgment dictates, the undersigned candidates agree not to solicit directly or indirectly the vote of any delegate.

In presenting our candidacy to the impartial verdict of the voters thus selected, we each agree to abide by the result of their choice and pledge our hearty support to the successful candidate.

Meeting Attracts Attention. Outsiders, hearing of the meeting ar attracted by its unique qualities who car to look on said they had never seen ward political meeting better representing the thought and intelligence of the com nunity than that assembled. John T. Dillon was elected chairman and M. O. Headley, secretary. J. W. Morrow explained in detail the objects of the meeting and the candidates were called upon to outline briefly their position on public mestions. All declared themselves in fa or of honest politics, economic and effielent administration and the municipalization of public utilities without exception. Smith called attention to the fact hat during his term as a member of the Board of Education he had been absent from but one regular meeting, and had placed no relatives on the pay roll. The latter declaration met with applause. He said he was opposed to dishonesty and graft of all kinds and promised that as ouncilman no one of the ward would ver have occasion to apologize for him, The delegates were required to produce redentials and business was carried out in a systematic way. There were no nominating speeches or other exciting impedimentae. Only one ballot was necessary a decide the question. Mr. Smith received out of the 63 votes cast. Mr. Hunter, 10; Mr. Olsen, 9, and 'Mr. Morrow, 2. The comination was made unanimous on Those Who Voted.

LEADER regardless of associations and clubs, in-DEMOCRATS SEEK Followers of Ed P. Smith Tern to Dr. Hipple as His Successor.

WILL NOT GIVE DAHLMAN FREE FIELD

City Clerk Goes Merrily on with No Signs of Abstement.

Indications are that Dr. A. H. Hipple, ember of the Water board, Jacksonian club stalwart and a dentist with a good practice, will be chosen to succeed Ed P. Smith as the anti-Dahlman candidate for the mayoralty. Since Smith threw up the sponge Saturday his followers have been extremely busy trying to find a Moses to lead them out of the chaos in which the withdrawal left them. They cannot stomach Dahlman, for they assert that he stands for the corporations and the spoils system pure and simple, and they hurriedly got together to put a man in Smith's place before the Dahlman candidacy gained any additional headway by the temporary lack of opposition. Three meetings have been held and the upshot has been an approximate informal agreement upon Dr. Hipple, if that gentleman can be induced to run. Dr. Hipple is more than a little ambitious in a political way and has long been a student of municipal problems, yet he hesttated about going into the race and presented a tentative answer in the negative He fears a term or two in the mayor's chair would separate him from his dental practice and do him considerable material injury in the long run. But the younger element among the local democracy insist that he is the man to make the campaign on a platform very like, if not identical, with that proposed by Smith, with perhaps the plank declaring for a strict enforcement of the Slocumb law knocked out. Not only have the Smith lieutenants taken up the Hipple Omaha Auditorium the evening of Febboom, but a faction that occupied the middle of the road and inclined to neither City, Des Moines, St. Joseph, Lincoln and Smith nor Dahlman is lending its backing Grand Island large parties will make long to the movement. Meetings are still being held with the idea of finally getting assembled a large one of influential and prominent democrats who will tender their she is 61 years of age there is not the resupport to Hipple and try to show him how he can't lose.

Dahlman appeared in the Jacksonian club rooms and made a plea for mercy and an unobstructed path to the nomination Saturday, but without avail, according to those who were there. Mr. Dahlman was in every city, such as no other actress, forinclined to be very conciliating about plat- eign or domestic, has ever experienced. The form and reiterated his statement that he would stand for any old thing of the kind even with extra matinee prformances there successful candidates and leaders framed up after the primaries.

A few other names have been talked over in the casting about for a successor have found that it would do more than the to Ed Smith. These include Charles R. manufacturers claim for it. It is especially Sherman, the drug man; John H. Grossman, formerly chief deputy in the office of the clerk of the district court; James P. English and W. C. Bullard. The two last named have positively refused to go into the race, and as a matter of fact neither is known to fail. When given as soon as the badly wanted by the faction that thinks the fight should be made on reform is-

"Oh, no, there isn't any split or anything of that kind in the Fontanelle club," said a member of that organization the other day. "Yet how one can reconcile this statement with the fact that Broatch has not shown his head inside the door since he diences in Boston, New York, Pittsburg, dorsement, and others of the same character, is too much for me. Broatch had and still retains quite a following in the club who are opposed to Benson to the last ditch. As for Brother Benson, no one seems to be particularly enthusiastic about him. So far he has exhibited every symptom of a practiced political trimmer. Since his endorsement he has made a few speeches at improvement club meetings and the like, but nary a word about municipal issues or what he stands for. Even at a quiet and sleepy little session of the Philosophical society Sunday, when the liquor question was forced by the leading speaker. Benson failed to commit himself ever so slightly when called upon for a few remarks.

> The contagion for endorsing A. H. Henlings as a mayoralty candidate continues The Second ward division of the Equa Rights club, at a well attended meeting a Twenty-first and Vinton streets, has unaninously approved of the action of the central body in this respect. In the Tenth ward a few ward leaders have been trying to create a hostile sentiment against Hennings. Saturday night they packed a meeting and prevented an endorsement, but it is said the club's membership in this ward was by no means fully represented.

> A new perplexity has broken loose re garding the primary law. The assistant city attorney has been studying the de cision of the supreme court on the law in the case brought by the socialists and has given it out as his opinion that all qualified oters may participate in the municipal primaries whether they registered for and oted at last fall's election or not.

> Since only about two-thirds of the voters are registered, it is urged that should participation in the primaries be opened wide without regard to this qualification a variety of complexities would be set up at once, including possible use of repeaters and imported voters and all sorts of things. Those interested declare they will want more than Herdman's say so to make them waive the registration prerequisite to vot-

Eccentricities in the present campaign do not end. The latest is the filing of Ernest Stuht as a republican candidate for the council from the Tenth ward. Three years ago Mr. Stuht ran on the democratic ticket for the council from the First ward and was defeated by Peter Back. Other new filings are: Thomas Mulhall, councilman Seventh ward, republican; John Mathiesen, committeeman. Third district of First ward. republicant L. L. Lohnes, committeeman, Second district of First ward, republican; Andy Hansen, councilman. First ward. democrat; Washington Gillan, Sixth ward, socialist; C. E. Malm, councilman Ninth ward, republican, and E. I Morrow, councilman Eleventh ward, democrat; Frank B. Kennard. councilman Fourth ward, republican; Thomas Collopy, committeeman Fourth precinct of Second ward, republican; Fred G. Watson, councilman Third ward, republican; P. L. Barnett, councilman Fifth ward, republican; Willis r. Peck, committeeman First precinct of Tweifth ward, republican; J. B. Wilkerson. councilman Fifth ward, republican; James Zezulak, committeeman First princinct of First ward, republican.

OMAHA, Feb. 12.-To the Editor of The See: It has been circulated by persons in the Fifth ward that I filed my petition as a candidate for city councilman only for the purpose of hindering and balking some one else who had announced him solf. This is untrue, for I am in the fight to make a success of it, not only as an old settler, but as a property owner and prompt taxpayer, and I can pretty safely say that is the kind of men the city of Omaha will need in the future for its representatives. If I should succeed, my policy will be, equal rights to everybody (and these who know me know that I mean it)

IT HELPS CORRECT FAULTY LIVING

To maintain the high tension of a strenuous life men resort to the whip and spur of stimulation. Most men use tex, coffee and meats to excess, to which many add the use of tobacco, and sold and slooholic drinks, all of which stimulate but cause an accumulation of poisonous waste in the system. When health fails they have reached the limit. To attempt to whip up the failing system with more stimulants or to deaden their growing pains with opiates and narcotics only aggravates the trouble and brings on the calamily of drug habits.

As the system is already loaded with poisonous waste products the only wise course is to clean out the poisons. This is what the Ellinton Remedies do. By thus clearing the system they give case and comfort and restore health and natural bouyancy.
