Hitchcock, proprietor of the World-Herald. When Mr. Dahlman called at the Jacksonian club rooms Saturday to beg for support he was accompanied by Mr. Hitchcock. The latter made a plea for Dahlman; said he was for Smith originally, but now that Smith had withdrawn was willing to support Dahlman; further that he thought Dahlman's proposal to accept a platform made by successful candidates and leaders after the primaries was "fair." This flop rather astonished the good Jacksonians, but one of them remarked he had seen Mr. Hitchcock do similar handsprings so often that after all the move was very consistent. Mr. Dahlman, lifting his voice, remarked if the Jackwonlans did not come over to him and refuse to put up an opposition candidate he would know for sure they had it in for peculiarity of the municipal enmpaign has been noted. It lies in the fact that candidates on the Fontanelle club ticket are presenting cards to the voters absolutely void of any reference to the Fontanelle club or the great service that organization did in approving the candidacy of the bearer. In response to scurrilous remarks that the missing mark indicates a low value of the endorsement in the minds of the men endorsed, some of the latter say they had the cards printed before the thing was tied up and they intended to have the matter attended "right away." Another man on the slate, who has not yet practiced the card habit, said "some" of his cards, now being printed, would mention the Fontanelle endorsement. The gist of the matter is it is pretty plain the people on the Fontanelle slate are no longer proud of the alleged or conferred upon them and that instead of procuring a boon they have managed to handicap themselves with the mass of intelligent voters irritated by its

The third meeting and banquet of the newly organized Pan-Hellenic society of Omaha was held last night at O'Brien's cafe. The gathering was all that could have been desired in the way of enthusiasm and there was a lively discussion of future possibilities. The society was formed about two months ago and now has a membership of about 100 persons, a large share of whom were present last night. Plans for increasing the membership and awakening greater interest in the movement among college and fraternity men were taken up. The desire of the meeting was expressed in responses, indicating that all favor the ultimate establishment of a university club in Omaha such as exist in some other cities. So much of the time was taken up in discussing plans for the future and so engrossed were the members in the subject that little was done for entertainment. E. Pan-Hellepie Club Banquet.

Rumor that O'Neill Property Will Be the Only Site Offered Monday to the City for the Proposed City Hall.

The principal business about the city hall yesterday concerned the affairs of the special election; and it is the details of this election that will occupy the attention of the officers until the close of the week. The place of C. B. Hendricks, formerly the custodian of the voting machines of the city of South Omaha, was supplied by E. E. E. Ridgeway, who began the work of delivering the machines to the voting places in the afternoon. Five of them were delivered to the wards. The other seven will be sent out today. There will be a school of instruction for the judges and the clerks of election at the council chamber, where the handling of the machines will be explained and the details of conducting the voting rehearsed. In the clerk's office the proofs of the newly ordered noll books were examined and the revised copy sent to the printers. Assignments were made to the various police officers who will have charge of the delivering of the poll books and the books of registration on election day were made. also the necessary instructions of the police officers were formulated. Among them will be the advice regarding the closing of all saloons on Thursday as is required by law. A list of instructions was posted for the benefit of unregistered voters as

We find that the law governing the swearing in of votes has been thoroughly gone into, in the case of Unitt against Miller, and also in the case of Crocker against Dewal, and hence, after a careful analysis of these cases we think the correct rule as laid down therein, is as follows:

1. The voter desiring to swear in his vote on election day as being unregistered, must appear before the city clerk and be yorn.

L. His affidavit must also be signed and worn to by two freeholders, residing in the precinct in which he desires to vote, he have known the applicant for one ar. The fact that they are residents of the ward in which he desires to vote is a same voting precinct.

not sufficient. "They must be residents of the same voting precinct."

3. The affidavit made by the voter in order to entitle him to vote need not be confined to "sickness." "absence from the city." but may include, "at work and did not have time to register."

If any of these reasons shall be assigned they will be deemed sufficient, and the voter so applying to this office February 15. A. D., 1908, will be given a certificate showing his qualification to vote on that day.

The time during which the polling places will be open will be between the hours of 8 a. m. and 7 p. m. A blank report has been prepared on which the result of the vote will be sent to the office of the city clerk. This is the unofficial report and is to be made to the city clerk as soon as possible after the canvass is completed. With the voting machines it is believed that the unofficial report will be in before 8 p. m. Thursday night.

The clerks, under the auspices of the Sewer Bond Promotion bureau, were given access to the registration lists from which they addressed letters containing the in formation which the bureau wishes each voter in the city to possess before the polls open for a vote on the proposition. Bids are advertised for the construction of the same, to be closed at 8 p. m. Monday, February 19. The maximum of the estimates is 90 cents per lineal foot. The improvements extend from Missouri avenue north to the city limits. North of F street Twenty-third will be a part of the boulevard system. There will be nearly 10,000 lineal feet of curbing and guttering to be done on this thoroughfare, including the intersections. The intersections are paid by the city, the city will be held at the Commercial club | while special taxes will be levied for the streets.

> German Democratic Club Organizes The German-American Democratic club had a meeting yesterday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. It was further ordered that the democratic candidates who desired the en dorsement of the club should present their names and requests to the secretary of the organization. Regular weekly meeting will be held until the close of the campaign The following is the result of the election Dr. F. W. Faulk, president; G. Rahm, vic president; P. It was ascertained that all the member had been registered Saturday. President Urbanski of the Kosciusko Republican club estimates the strength of the Polish vote since the organization of this last club between 406 and 500,

The Swedish-Norwegian Republican club will hold a meeting Thursday night, February 15, at the Commonwealth hall, Twenty-fifth and N streets. As this is the regular meeting night it is expected there will be a large attendance. President Johnson reports that good results are following the organization of the club. All of the members assisted in getting the names of their members on the revised lists last Saturday.

A new weekly, under the auspices of the Voters' league, a branch of the national organization, which has been active in Philadelphia and other large cities of the east, will be issued in South Omaha until the close of the spring campaign. It will be devoted entirely to the interests of the municipal politics.
